

Out of The Past

10 YEARS AGO

A farewell testimonial, honoring Elder Michael Marvin Jefferies will be held Sunday evening, May 30, at the Nyssa LDS Stake Center. The young elder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jefferies, will leave soon for a church mission in the central states and will be headquartered at Independence, Mo.

An open house reception was held May 9, 1965, at the Nazarene parsonage honoring Mr. and Mrs. John Haight's golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ekanger will be honored with a golden wedding anniversary reception Sunday, May 30, at Faith Lutheran Church.

20 YEARS AGO

Carl Tyler and Virginia Tucker have been awarded the Eric W. Allen certificates for newspaper service by the University of Oregon. Tyler is editor, and Miss Tucker is business manager of the Nyssa High School Bulldog.

Stan Thompson, editor of Tupelo, Nyssa High School year book, received the George S. Turnbull award for yearbook service at the time.

They were among 187 students in 66 Oregon high schools for outstanding work on high school newspapers and yearbooks during the past year.

Alan Fahrenbrauch, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fahrenbrauch of Adrian has been awarded a $700 honor scholarship from the College of Idaho in Caldwell. Fahrenbrauch, salutatorian of the senior graduating class, is an outstanding student in chemistry and dramatics and was editor of the high school annual. He plans to major in engineering.

30 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Keck received word Tuesday through the Red Cross that their son, Lieut. Delmer Keck, was released from a prison camp near the Polish border. He had been in the camp for one and one-half years.

Parents of Lieut. Merle Kurtz received a cablegram stating that he was fine. The cablegram, dated May 7, without origin, expressed Mother's Day sentiments and stated "hope to see you soon."

Staff Sergeant Leroy D. Bair, son of Mr. and Mrs. E.M. Bair of Nyssa, who had been a prisoner for a year, was reported well. The message was the first information the parents had received from their son since he was taken prisoner in August. He was a radio gunner on a B-17.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Long, who live on the Ira Ure ranch, received word Saturday from the war department that their son, Pvt. Harry Long, was killed on Okinawa May 4.

40 YEARS AGO

A few deepthroated blasts of the whistle and a roaring tan blur marked the passage of the new Union Pacific streamlined train through Nyssa. A crowd of over a hundred people were assembled at the station Wednesday night at eight o'clock to see the newest in modern railroad transportation on its way to Portland. Six coaches and engine made up the train and the crowd was not disappointed in its speed through Nyssa. It had come and gone on its thundering way in a matter of seconds.

Several fans from here took in the ball game in Payette Sunday which resulted in a victory for Nyssa, 10 to 4. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lienkaemper, W.H. Bailey, Ernest Wilson and two sons, Bernard Frost, Mrs. Dewey Ray, Mr. and Mrs. M. Robertson, Jim Boor, Dwight and Dean Smith, Hugh Glasgow, Mr. and Mrs. C.B. Short, Mrs. Jennie Ward, Artie Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Les Ernest, Berwin and Ronald Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fulton, Dave Dugger, C.J. Keizer and daughters and Charlena Crawford.

50 YEARS AGO

Nyssa people are planning on spending Saturday (Decoration Day) in improving the West Side Cemetery. Streets and alleys will be laid out and corners marked so that lots may more easily be located. All are invited to help in the work.

Don't forget auto top and curtain work at Nyssa Harness & Saddlery Shop. A bargain - one full block for sale in north part of town, $150.

Issues for 60 years ago are missing from our files.

TOM MOORE, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF THE STUDENT UNION BUILDING AT BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY, WILL BE ON "loan" TO THE UNITED WAY CHARITY FUND RAISING PROGRAM FOR ONE MONTH NEXT FALL, SCHOOL OFFICIALS HAVE ANNOUNCED.

Moore will join about 20 other Boise area executives who are yearly "borrowed" by the United Way to help organize the organization's projects.

A resident of Nyssa, Moore graduated from Boise State in 1971 and just completed work on a Masters in Business Administration. As a student, he served BSU as business manager and student body treasurer. Following graduation, he was appointed to his present position at the Student Union Building.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore, Nyssa, and is married to former Ontario resident Jeanette Lloyd.
