Out Of The Past

10 YEARS AGO
 Dan Reece, a senior at Nyssa High School, is one of more than 60 candidates eligible for a trip to Europe later this summer when a tryout camp for Oregon prep wrestlers opens June 12 at Corvallis.
 Reece placed first in the Oregon A-2 tournament to earn a spot in the two-day tryout camp. He is eligible to compete in the 140-pound class. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reece.

30 YEARS AGO
 Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ure have received word from their son, Cpl. Ira Ure, Jr., somewhere in Germany that he has been transferred from the First Army to the Ninth Army. He informed his parents that he was in the First Army through the whole fight. He said that V-E Day to him was the ending of "one bad nightmare." The soldiers had no celebrations or bonfires "just a quiet, peaceful sleep. Now during the daytime they just play baseball, swim or sun bathe."

Four young people who were members of the 1965 graduating classes at Nyssa and Adrian High Schools, were recipients of this year's DAR "Good Citizenship" medals and small cash awards.
 They are Linda Morrison and Mike Hirai, both of Nyssa; Marilyn Nishihari and Dick Skogan both of Adrian.

20 YEARS AGO
 Kaye Hammon, Margie Quick and Catherine Thiel were elected student body varsity yell leaders at Adrian High School following tryouts Friday afternoon. Others who tried out were Bobby Jo Webster, Edith Matthews, Connie Montgomery and Sharon Fox.

40 YEARS AGO
 Questions relating to Nyssa's proposed sewer system came up for discussion at the regular meeting of the City Council Monday night and it was decided that a competent engineer should be secured to outline a plan and its approximate cost in order that an application may be made for PWA assistance.

50 YEARS AGO
 Albert Hinsch has caught the prevailing spirit of progress and is having his residence painted by that master of the paint brush, Ole Servoss.

Riley Horn, one of the earliest settlers in this section but who for the past few years has been located in California, is revisiting Nyssa and vicinity. He still has extensive interests in Malheur County and expresses great faith in the future of this country.

The Episcopal Church had launched a "new church fund drive" during the seventh war loan campaign for the purpose of establishing a building fund which will be used after the war.
 The present church will be used as a recreation hall. Grant Rinehart and Mrs. J. J. Sarazin are members of the building fund committee.

Adrian Union High School juniors who will leave the fore part of June to attend the week's session of Beaver Boy's State at Corvallis are Bob Parker, George Jelinek and Roger Howes.

Nyssa's ninth annual rodeo has been definitely scheduled for July 15-16 and early plans indicate it will be one of the fastest moving, most thrill-packed shows ever staged here.
 The Owyhee Riding Club, sponsor of the big western show, has just approved the dates selected by a committee headed by Lynn Spodgrass.

Engagement Announced

MR. AND MRS. W. K. WAHLERT OF NYSSA announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to Ted Freitag, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Freitag of New Plymouth, Idaho. Patricia is a 1973 graduate of Nyssa High School and a 1974 graduate of Bassist Institute of Portland, Oregon. Ted is a 1967 Nyssa High School graduate and attended Treasure Valley Community College. He is presently farming west of Nyssa.
 An August 9 Nuptial Mass wedding in Nyssa is planned.
