

Blair-Hight Ceremony Preludes Tahoe Trip

In a double ring ceremony held in the evening of May 10, 1975, Miss Sharon Clea Blair became the bride of John Wesley Hight. The service, performed by Bishop Gary Thompson, was held in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Nyssa.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frell Blair and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hight, all of Nyssa.

The church was decorated in roses, carnations, chrysanthemums and lilies, in colors of pink and white.

The bride wore a gown of slipper satin, trimmed with lace and seed pearls, with a long train and a finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

The bride wore a gown of slipper satin, trimmed with lace and seed pearls, with a long train and a finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Maid of Honor Shanna Bair and Attendants Pam Jefferies and Lynn McKeeth, all of Boise, wore lavender and pink gowns. They wore matching straw hats and each carried a bouquet of lavender and pink carnations.

Mrs. Hight wore a long dress of lavender, while Mrs. Blair wore one of pink. Both wore corsages of lilies. The men wore carnations.

Marlo Reed Fife served as Best Man.

Honored guests at the wedding were the bride's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Blair, Curtis, Ryan and Garrin of New Milford, Connecticut; the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rosemond Blair from Lewiston, Utah; and the bride's aunt, Mrs. Vesta Hansen of Smithfield, Utah.

At the reception, Mrs.

Nina Cottle, Mrs. Vesta Hansen and Mrs. Loretta Blair served a three-tiered cake, made by Wilda Stewart of Nampa. The cake was decorated with candied bells, flowers and wedding rings, topped by a centerpiece of the same decoration, all in pink and lavender.

Mrs. Marilyn Blair kept the guestbook. Mrs. Carrie Fife, Debbie Cox and Sherrie Cox took care of the gifts. Marion Child also assisted in the reception, with Lori Miner, Shelly Myrick and Jeannie Jefferies as table servers.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Lake Tahoe, Nevada and visited Reno, Virginia City and the Ponderosa Ranch.

Both graduates of Nyssa High School, the bride attended Ricks College in Rexburg, Idaho and the groom attended the University of Idaho in Moscow. He is employed with Albertson's Land and Cattle Company.

The young Mr. and Mrs. Hight now make their home in Ontario.

GRANGE NEWS

Members of Oregon Trail Grange met in regular session Thursday evening, June 5, with Master protom Don Somers conducting the meeting.

Legislative Chairman Frank Sherwood reported on the problems resulting from the dam on the Nile River. Since the usual flooding has been controlled, many pools have become stagnant resulting in increased pollution and insect pests.

Zoning Chairman Loyd Adams reported on the housing project west of Nyssa which will extend from Alberta Avenue south to Cloverdale Avenue. The land will be divided into acre tracts.

Don Somers, Rodeo Parade chairman for the Grange entry, discussed plans for work on a float which will take place at the next regular grange meeting.

Grange Insurance Agent Wilbur Atherton reported that trip insurance is available to members. Mrs. Atherton, Boulevard Grange, was a visitor.

Plans for the grange picnic were discussed and the date of July 13 was set. More information will come later.

Refreshments were served by Marguerite Moss and Tom and Violet Drydale.

The next regular meeting will be held Thursday, June 19, 8:30 p.m. Members should come prepared to work on the float.

CWA ACTIVITIES

The regular meeting of the Oregon Trail Grange CWA Club was held Tuesday, June 3, at the Grange Hall.

The main order of business was getting the quilt material into the frame which was accomplished under the direction of Clara Price and Lois Boenig.

Potluck lunch was served at noon. Eric Boenig and Loyd Adams joined the ladies for the meal, but declined when they were invited to do some quilting. However, two other guests, Nancy Albritton and Dorothy Russell, did help with the quilting. Members will be quilting each afternoon and all members are urged to come and bring a friend.

After lunch the regular business meeting was conducted by Vice Chairman Violet Drydale. The devotional was given by Thelma Parr and was entitled "Sermons We See" by Edgar A. Guest.

Needlework Chairman Violet Drydale reminded members of the contests in crocheting, knitting or embroidery classifications. Articles must be entered before August 31. Non-members are eligible if sponsored by a grange member.

The club members will not meet again until Tuesday, October 7. The meeting will be at the home of Sadie Metcalf with Violet Drydale as co-hostess.

Vale Rebekahs Host 63rd District Meeting

The 63rd District meeting of District No. 24 was hosted by the Golden Rule Rebekah Lodge No. 64 of Vale, Thursday, June 5, 1975.

A potluck luncheon, preceding the meeting was held at 12:30 p.m. Registration was at 1 p.m.

The meeting opened in ritualistic form at 1:30 p.m. with the officers of Golden Rule Lodge No. 64 in the chairs. The officers then relinquished their chairs to Dorothy Winder as chairman.

Escorted and introduced were: Leigh Wilkens, Assembly President of Oregon; Marie Schaffer, Assembly President of Idaho; Florence Hinton, Grand Chaplain of Idaho; Vida Nye, Past Assembly President of Idaho; and Blanche Imil, Past Assembly President of Oregon. Several committee members and appointees from both Idaho and Oregon were also introduced.

Fourteen past chairmen answered roll call and were presented a marigold plant, as were all the District Officers. The marigold is the flower of the Assembly President of Oregon.

A question and answer period was held.

The election of officers brought forth the following results: Hazel Maggart of Beatrice Lodge No. 82 of Ontario, chairman; Helen Pittz of Yellow Rose Lodge No. 202 of Nyssa, vice-chairman; Leah Chapman, Beatrice Lodge No. 82, Ontario, secretary-treasurer.

The meeting next year will be held in Ontario. There were 48 members present from the following Lodges: Gem of the Mountains, Caldwell; Fidelity, Weiser; Wild Rose, New Meadows; Homedale, Pocatello, Boise, Aloha-Columbia, The Dalles, Scio, Vale, Ontario, and Nyssa.

Kathleen Wheeler of Yellow Rose Rebekah Lodge No. 202 of Nyssa, retired as District Deputy President for District No. 24 and Marie Riley of Golden Rule Lodge No. 64 of Vale will be the new District Deputy President. Genevieve Priest of Ontario is Grand Committee member from Beatrice Lodge No. 82 of Ontario.

Gala Event Tops 50th Anniversary

At an afternoon celebration, decorated with golden iris and yellow June roses, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Engelhardt marked their 50th wedding anniversary.

The event was held June 8 in the Methodist Church social room, where Mr. and Mrs. Glen Alcorn were the hosts, with a wedding cake made by Muriel Engelhardt of Nampa.

Mrs. Myrtle Sasser poured the coffee, while Clarice Poor served the punch. Mrs. Helen Wilson and Mrs. Pauline Boston gave further assistance. The flowers were furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Ben McConnell.

Out-of-town guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Engelhardt from Elsinore, Calif.; Mrs. Elsie Connor from The Dalles, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Engelhardt of Mountain Home, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Curta of Arock, Oregon; and a telephone call came from Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Dickman in George, Iowa.

Shaw Family Visits In Texas

Mrs. Dorothy Shaw and family, accompanied by Mrs. Hazel Tyler left Nyssa, May 6. Mrs. Tyler went as far as Alliance, Nebraska where she visited her brother and sister. The family went on to Texas with them.

They attended the graduation of Mrs. Shaw's daughter Mrs. Armando Sepulveda, and visited with the family nearly a month.

They returned back through Nebraska, leaving Woodrow Shelton at his home in Plattsmouth and picking up Mrs. Tyler at Alliance, Nebraska. On the way through Wyoming, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Art Scheer in Torrington. They spent a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fraser in Casper and Clara Parmely at Lusk.

Also, while in Nebraska they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown at Wahoo and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Murrens in Omaha.

They returned home, May 31.

Engagement Announced

Enrique and Guadalupe Serrano, of Nyssa have announced the engagement of their daughter, Angelica, to Larry S. Guillen, son of Delores Guillen, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Miss Serrano is a 1973 graduate of Eastern Oregon State College at La Grande, with a Bachelor's degree in bilingual and bi-cultural education. She is currently teaching in Nampa.

Mr. Guillen, a 1968 graduate of Brawley Union High School, Brawley, California, is presently employed by the federally funded G. I. Forum in Caldwell and is also taking courses at Boise State University.

An August 2 wedding is planned in Nyssa, followed by a reception. A dance will then be held in Ontario.

The couple will reside in Nampa, following a honeymoon in Mazatlan, Mexico.

Pollyanna Club Plans Picnic

The Pollyanna Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Betty White and Mrs. Marge Ervin, co-hostess. Twelve ladies were present. Mrs. Marge Ervin, president had charge of the meeting. The minutes and treasurer reports were given by Mrs. Betty White. Roll call was followed by each member reading a joke. Mrs. Dale Witt gave a reading. Plans were made to have the club family picnic Sunday, July 13. It will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Conant. Serving will start at 12:30. It is Pot Luck. Bring your table service, perhaps a card table and a chair.

Former members and friends in the surrounding area are invited.

FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE

The Friendship Circle met Friday, June 6, at the IOOF Hall with Leona Reeves, president, presiding. Eight members answered roll call.

There will be no meeting in July. However, a picnic will be held in August with the time and place to be announced.

Following the adjournment of the meeting, two tables of Bunco were in play. Winning honors went to Leona Reeves who took high, Wilma Ostrom, low, and Orma Cleaver, traveling.

Hostesses were Aileen Morrison and Louise Wernick.

Adrian Alumni Picnic Planned

Plans have been made for an Adrian All-Alumni picnic, to be held Sunday, July 27, in the Adrian Park at 1 p.m. The picnic is for all Adrian High School graduates and their families, from the first class to the class of 1975.

Since this is the only form of notification that will be given out, individual class members are asked to contact others in their classes.

The class of '48 will supply punch and coffee for the event and the rest of the meal is to be "pot luck." The committee organizing the picnic feels that "this will be a time when old friends can get together and visit."

Further information can be had from Mrs. Dick Stam, Mrs. Jim Miller, Mrs. Carroll Rettig or Mrs. Jim Phifer.

Former Nyssa Girl awarded

Julie Robb Edmondson, a Speech Pathology major at Idaho State University, has been selected to receive an Academic Scholarship for Upperclassmen. Julie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Robb and a 1971 graduate of Adrian High School.

The scholarship, in recognition of high scholastic standing by the Associated Students, through the Student Senate, of Idaho State University, is awarded to three students; a sophomore, a junior and a senior.

Julie, a junior, will receive the scholarship for the fall semester of the 1975-1976 academic year.
