

Out Of The Past

10 YEARS AGO

Tuesday, June 29, 1965, marked the 60th wedding anniversary of Pierce and Lucy Haney. On Saturday, June 26, the occasion was celebrated as members of their family gathered for their 12th annual reunion.

David Wilson and Rod Martin, young brothers of Judith Ann Wilson and

20 YEARS AGO

A new doctor will begin practice in Nyssa next Wednesday, but the young professional man is not new to this community nor is he establishing a separate practice.

Dr. Clayton Morgan, son of Mrs. Jessie Morgan and the late Frank Morgan, and a native son of Nyssa will join Dr. L. S. Maulding at the Maulding Clinic here. Dr. Maulding, who moved his offices about a year ago to the former telephone building at the corner of Good and South Second, has recently extended the building to enlarge his clinic's medical service.

Nyssa's third Garden Club "The Nyssa Town and Country Club," was organized Monday afternoon at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Dale Garrison. Mrs. George Schwiezer, Malheur district state director was in charge of the organizational meeting.

30 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrom received word Monday that their son, Helmer, who is serving in the medical corps of the 7th Division in the Philippines, has returned to duty after three months spent in the hospital suffering from stomach and lung trouble caused by fighting in foxholes.

The new shoe ration stamp that the office of price administration announced would become valid August 1, 1945, will be airplane stamp No. 4 in ration book No. 3.

Jeans are popular apparel for University of Oregon and Oregon State College coeds who pitched in this spring to help farmers near Eugene and Corvallis over a critical farm labor emergency.

40 YEARS AGO

Sam Caldwell, son of C. M. Caldwell of Nyssa and Miss Goldie Flannery, were quietly married at five minutes past midnight, the morning of July 4th. The ceremony was performed in Payette by Justice of the Peace, Leo Ballenger.

The young couple were accompanied to Payette by John Stam, Tom Schlisting, Sabina Caldwell, Mrs. Nicholson, a sister of the bride and Jim Caldwell. Mrs. Nicholson was her sister's only attendant and John Stam was best man.

Mrs. Caldwell is well known locally, having graduated from the Nyssa High School with the class of 1931. Sam Caldwell is in business with his father and attended school in Kent, Washington.

Adrian walloped the Roswell ball team Sunday to the tune of 12 to 1. "Lefty" Young pitched for Adrian and had the Idaho boys under control at all times.

50 YEARS AGO

The Gerritt Groot farm west of Nyssa was the scene of a very interesting and profitable crop improvement field day on Wednesday of this week. At 10 o'clock a lengthy procession of autos left the Groot farm to inspect a number of experiments in crop improvement, including field peas, fertilized red clover and wheat improvement tests.

There were a number of reports by committeemen on various trials and demonstrations now in progress.

Issues for 60 years ago are missing from our files.

Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyn Dohner

Some Monday mornings are like that. I mean, well meaning, one sets out to do a job assigned. And everything conspires to change your course. Today, for the first time, the dishwasher ran over and flooded the kitchen floor. Not that it didn't need mopping. But a gal likes to plan these things and do them at her own convenience.

Keeping out of the kitchen, the hub of our house, I found myself remaking an old pair of slacks for hot days. Cut off the legs to the knees and patched the seat with a piece of pant leg, and made a kangaroo pocket across the front. From doing that it was easy to find myself gathering up a bit of wash and emptying the hamper, sorting out and starting the machine. All this on column-writing day!

Finally got on the phone, got some news and wrote it. Before it was done, in came George and said it was dinner time. So he ate and I wrote, and am writing.

It was a nice day to get the news, though. Most everyone had a nice weekend, full of family and friends. We stayed home and tended irrigation. Really enjoyed seeing our garden getting its drink. Spent most of the time just trying to keep cool. How about you?

It was a big family weekend for the Sherman Kecks over the Fourth of July, for all their children and their families were home with them.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Keck and family from Colorado Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pugh and family of Madras, Oregon; Mrs. Carol Prosser and children of Wenatchee, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Troyer of Richland, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Keck of Spokane.

Spending the weekend at Hazelton, Idaho, with their sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Stigile, were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ziegler and their families. They brought back to Nu Acres their nephew, Loren Shubert, age nine, of Fresno, who has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans and other relatives.

There was a grand post-Fourth picnic Sunday at the Cecil Evans' place. Present were Mrs. Myra Knapp of Madras; the Rev. and Mrs. George Nichols; Mrs. Anna Mills and daughter Beverly; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sherman all of Greenleaf. Also present were Kathy Archer of Wilder; Brian and Theron plopper of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Russell and Miss Janice Evans of Nu Acres, and Loren Shubert of Fresno.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hislop of Nu Acres were guests at a steak fry on the Fourth in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson of Nyssa. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pepple of Fruitland.

Tom Hislop, son of the Dean Hislops, has been at Fort Gordon in South Carolina attending radio school. He has finished his training and on July 4th, left for his new station in Germany, according to his mother.

Recent guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grasmick were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Steinebach and three sons of Portland. Mrs. Steinebach is Mrs. Grasmick's sister.

On July 4th, Mr. and Mrs. Grasmick visited another sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cantrell of Nampa.
