Bob Wilsons Report a "Most Interesting Vacation"

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson recently returned from their annual Wells Distributing Convention, held this year in St. George, Utah. The outstanding events of the three days were the Golf Tournament and Poolside dinner held at the beautiful Broadmore Country Club. Also one evening, the groups were taken by 5 chartered buses to Las Vegas to attend the dinner show of Liberace.

Following the convention, the Wilsons returned to Las Vegas for a few days, seeing the shows of Wayne Newton and Johnny Carson. Then they went on to Los Angeles where they met their daughter Marilee of Corvallis and son Tom, who had been attending the Dick Harter Basketball Camp at the University of Oregon in Eugene and they had flown to L. A. While staying there four days, the Wilsons visited Disneyland, the Queen Mary and Universal City.

Journeying up the coast highway, they spent two days at San Simeon, taking the tours through the fabulous "Enchanted Castle," home of the late William Randolph Hearst. After spending one night in Frisco, they arrived in Salem where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Erland and visited their son Dave. Marilee returned to Corvallis.

Mrs. Erland and Nicki came to Nyssa with her parents with Ray arriving later in the week for July 4th. Marilee and Jane Joyce accompanied him to spend the holiday and attend the Jackson-Dagenhart wedding.

Ray and Linda attended her Nyssa High School class reunion, held at the Eastside. The group all returned to the valley on Sunday.

The Wilsons reported that this was a most interesting vacation.
