

News From Big Bend

By Goldie Roberts

BIG BEND - Most all of Big Bend attended the July 4th celebration in Adrian Friday put on by the Adrian Junior Chamber of Commerce. Several J.C. members reside in Big Bend. The affair was well-arranged and a large crowd enjoyed the afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Witty received word recently of the death of "Bud" Lawrie Boyer in Kansas. He lived in Lower Bend for a while. His wife was Alice Molt and they came to Big Bend when the Molt families came.

Mr. and Mrs. John Packwood visited Mr. and Mrs. Perry Parrott in Ontario last Monday. They also called on Sam Tuning, Steve Gacey and Mrs. Maurice Troyer at the Presbyterian Nursing Home.

Kelly Allsop left last Tuesday for Fairbanks, Alaska, where she will join her brother, Scott, and visit their father, Richard Allsop.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Clary and boys of Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Thomas and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell English on the 4th.

Mary and Becky Carroll of Sunset Valley accompanied Mrs. Dyre Roberts to Nampa, Saturday, where they visited Mrs. Florence Henderlinder at the Nampa Convalescent Center. This home was threatened with a bomb Friday.

Leaders Needed For Day Camps

Volunteers are needed to help conduct day camps in late July and August in Vale, Nyssa, Ontario, and Adrian according to Helen Conner, Extension Home Economist for Malheur County.

The camps are planned for youngsters in the 3rd, 4th, and 5th grades. Volunteers should be in the 9th grade or above.

Those interested in helping may obtain an application blank from the Extension office in Ontario, City hall or the Nutrition House, 12 E. First, in Nyssa.

Volunteers will be asked to help with such activities as outdoor cooking, crafts, games, songs, fishing, and ceremonies.

Four Compete in AAU Meet

At an AAU track meet in Boise last week, four Nyssa boys qualified and two broke records.

Efrem Rameriz tossed an 8-pound shot put and broke a record with a distance of 39'6". John Strickland threw a 12-pound shot put 49'8".

In the long jump event, Jose Delgado made 19', while Richard Fehlman pole vaulted 10'6", breaking a record.

The four will compete in Salt Lake City, Saturday, July 12, in the Intermountain AAU Track Championships. The top three winners there will go to Phoenix in two weeks for the Regional competitions.

Jenkins Home

Destroyed by Fire

The mobile home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jenkins was destroyed by fire the morning of Thursday, July 3, at 11:30 a.m. The fire started in a pan of hot grease and the family lost everything. The couple have two children.

The mobile home was located on the former Willis Conant property. The family have moved to a mobile home in the Newell Heights area on land across the road from Mrs. Marie Moore.
