

Marriage is Celebrated

A reception will be held Saturday afternoon, August 2, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. B. Lonnie Ward, who have been married 50 years.

Married in 1925 at Damascus, Ark., the Wards have made Ontario, Oregon their home since 1937.

The anniversary celebration will begin at 2 p.m., ending at 5 p.m., at VIP's restaurant banquet room,

Photography by Braun

Ontario. It is to be hosted by the daughters of the couple and their husbands, Ernestine and Charles Pickthorn, of Portland and Maxine and Bill Stringer of Nyssa, who have announced that everyone is invited to "spend some time visiting and reminiscing at the reception." It has been requested that no gifts be sent.

Ballou Family Attends Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ballou, Goldie and Doyle went to Quilcene, Wash., on June 20 to attend Mrs. Ballou's 25th high school class reunion. Joining the Ballous were Mr. and Mrs. James Steltz and family of Snohomish, Wash. Mrs. Steltz is Mrs. Ballou's sister and it was her reunion also. Following the reunion they went to see the waterfall in Brinnon, which is about 12 miles from Quilcene. They went to the beach and collected clam and oyster shells. The Ballou family returned to Nyssa on July 2.

"Little Women"

Little Women is a story that never has grown old and never will grow old, because it deals with the greatest of human emotions, a mother's love and the appreciation of it.

Who can forget the wild, romping, tom-boy and her desire "to be the man of the family;" the rehearsing of Amy in the fainting scene for the Christmas play; Aunt March's critical evaluation of the dress rehearsal; the death scene with Little Beth; and the meeting of Professor Bhaer.

All of these circumstances will be shown in the Valley Players' presentation of Little Women on July 31, August 1, and 2, 1975. It will be presented at 8 p.m., in the Lounge area of the Administration Building on the Treasure Valley Community College campus.

The production will be directed by Wayne Phillips, assisted by Karen Whipple.

Tickets are now available free of charge. They may be picked up or arranged for at either the Drama office or the Administration office on the campus. Tickets must be picked up by 7:30 p.m., on the day of performance or they will be released to those waiting for tickets.

For six generations Louisa M. Alcott's "Little Women" has remained the most popular juvenile novel written by an American. It has gladdened the hearts of millions upon millions of people throughout the world. Get reacquainted with these delightful characters on July 31, August 1 or 2, 1975, at Treasure Valley Community College.

Vows Read Again After Wedding in Germany

Wedding vows were read for the second time at a reception on June 29, 1975, held in honor of Vicki Kay Franklin Fritz and John Randall Fritz, Sp/4, who were married April 11, 1975, at Kaiserslautern, Germany.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Franklin of Nyssa, and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Fritz of Ickesburg, Pennsylvania.

For the afternoon reception held at the Church of Christ, Ontario, Richard Dalzell read the marriage vows which the young Mr. and Mrs. Fritz had previously pledged in Germany.

In a setting of yellow roses, blue carnations and babies breath, the bride wore a white organza gown with long, sheer sleeves and trimmed with ruffles. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mrs. Franklin wore a mint green polyester crepe gown, while Mrs. Forrest Carpenter, grandmother of the bride, wore one of blue. Both wore yellow rose corsages.

Before 130 guests, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dalzell and Michael Franklin, brother of the bride, sang.

The reception was assisted by Mrs. Bill Richesin, who served coffee and Mrs. Bruce Richesin, serving punch, both aunts of the bride. Mrs. Dean Boyland and Mrs. Vern Flock served the three-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with doves and yellow and green flowers and made by Mrs. Flock.

Linda Richesin, a cousin of the bride, kept the guest book. Gifts were carried in by Sonya and Traci Richesin, also cousins of the bride, who were dressed in identical frocks.

The young couple opened gifts with the assistance of Suzanne Flock and Tony Franklin, brother of the bride.

Other reception assistants were Mrs. Wayne Farmer, Mrs. William Price and Mrs. Delayne Brindley.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jess Brown, Nampa; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Evans, Eagle, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bryon, Boise; Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Mankin, Marsing; June Sharp of Emmett; Mr. and Mrs. Orville of Caldwell; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Warren, of Parma. Guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Carpenter, grandparents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Brown.

The bride is a 1973 graduate of the Nyssa High School and a 1974 graduate of Kinman's Business College, Spokane. The groom graduated from Ickesburg High School, Pennsylvania in 1973.

Both are employed by the U. S. Army, Kaiserslautern, Germany, where they will make their home for another year, after which they hope to live in the Nyssa area.

Mrs. Brown Returns

Mrs. Ross (Maxine) Brown returned to Nyssa last week from Oroville, Calif., where she had been staying since the first of May. She has been visiting and taking care of her sister, Deloris Knause, who has been very ill.

Mrs. Brown visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McCauley, also of Oroville. On her return home she visited her son, Mr. and Mrs. Gary DeRock and family at McClellan Air Force Base. Mrs. DeRock and family accompanied her to Nyssa and they will be staying with Mrs. DeRock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Brown in Ontario.

EAGLES AUXILIARY

The Ladies Auxiliary No. 2134 met for a regular meeting at the Eagles Hall on Tuesday, July 15. After the meeting, refreshments were served by Kay Carpenter. Social activities included bidding and buying white elephant items furnished by members in attendance.

During the good of order, Mrs. Harry Stolte was the birthday honoree.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, August 5 at the Eagles Hall at 8:30 p.m. The social activity planned for this meeting is bingo, with white elephant items furnished by members. Refreshments will be served.

GRANGE NEWS

Oregon Trail Grange

Members of the Oregon Trail Grange met in regular session Thursday evening, July 17 with Don Somers Master protom.

During the Lecturer's program, Iva Adams requested the members to give suggestions for the building of the Grange booth at the County Fair. Written suggestions were to be turned in to the Secretary. Don Somers reminded the members to enter produce of every kind at the Fair.

Grange Insurance Agent Wilbur Atherton reported that some changes were being made in policies. Mrs. Atherton was a visitor from Boulevard Grange.

State Deputy Robert Coble Richland and Mrs. Coble were visitors. Coble gave a report on State Grange held recently in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Orville Nichols, chairman of the Tri-County picnic, sent word through Clara Price that the picnic would be held Sunday, July 27, at Wheatmore Park, Highway 26, 1 p.m. All Malheur, Baker and Harney County grangers are urged to attend.

Refreshments were served to twenty-two members and guests by Thelma Parr and the Ballou couple. The next regular meeting will be held Thursday evening, 8:30 p.m., August 7.

Golden Agers

The Nyssa Golden Age Club met Wednesday, July 16, at their clubhouse on Green Avenue.

There were several guests present and everyone enjoyed the bountiful potluck dinner.

Everyone, men and women, are invited to attend the meetings of this organization. Not only is there a potluck meal served each time but this is a time to catch up on visiting, play cards or games.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, July 30 at 113 Green Avenue at 12 noon. All are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Glascock are the very proud parents of a new baby son, "Jack Wade" was born at Mercy Hospital in Nampa, Friday, June 27, 1975. He weighed in at seven-pounds and fourteen-ounces.

He joins another brother and a sister at the family home in Douglas, Wyoming. Beaming grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Sherard of Douglas, Wyoming, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Glascock of McCall, Idaho.

65th Anniversary Observed

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Maze, 515 North 8th Street, Nyssa, celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary, Sunday, July 6, with a special church service in their honor and a reception at the Nazarene Church social hall. The Rev. William M. Russell of the church preached an appropriate sermon on Exodus 20:12.

Mr. and Mrs. Maze were married at high noon March 30, 1910, in the maternal home at Lodi, Nebraska. To this marriage, three children were born: Mrs. W. H. (Leonia) Anderson of Nyssa; Orville F. of Othello, Wash.; and LTC (Ret.) Ralph E. of Colorado Springs, Colorado. The couple have ten grandchildren, and nineteen great-grandchildren. One grandson passed away in 1950.

Ernest and Effie moved to the Nyssa area in 1940, where they farmed. They retired and moved to their present home in the city in 1960.

Approximately seventy friends and relatives, both local and out-of-town, called on the honored couple at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Maze wish to take this opportunity to express their sincere thanks and appreciation for the many expressions of friendship they have received at this very special time.

Happy Birthday

July 25 - Derral Draper, Nancy Wilson, Jean Williams, George Shimomada

July 26 - Marquette Leslie, Dee Garner, Casey Walker, Wilbur Coffman, Jeri Grunke, Irvin L. Mabe

July 28 - Gene Chester, Harold Kassman, Wendy Martin, Joe Corfield, Larry Shaw

July 30 - Mary Ward, Royce Cole, Tami Holcomb, July 31 - Michelle Sadamori, Mike Williams, Larry Larsson, Ryan Sights, Pearl Bullard, Golda Roper.

Happy Anniversary

July 25 - Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Castro

July 26 - Mr. and Mrs. Paul Valencia

July 29 - Mr. and Mrs. Bill Purcell

July 31 - Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lowrance

Mr. and Mrs. Fidel Soliz

Protect your valuables with a First National Safe Deposit Box.

Lucille Dimmitt can help you with your safe deposit box needs.

Would you know where to look for your home mortgage papers right now? What about your marriage license or your children's birth certificates? With a First National Bank safe deposit box, you wouldn't have to look. Or even be concerned.

Because everything you value would be in one safe place. And, you'd have the security of knowing that your valuables were protected from fire, theft or loss.

First National safe deposit boxes come in several sizes, so you can store a variety of items including jewelry, old coins, tax records, and other important documents. And, of course, you can have access to your box whenever you wish, during regular banking hours.

If our safe deposit box system sounds like what you need in protection for your important items, stop by the Nyssa branch of First National Bank of Oregon and talk to Lucille Dimmitt. She'll be glad to tell you how a First National safe deposit box can keep your valuables safe for just pennies a day.

We'd like to get to know you.

Nyssa branch
FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF OREGON

Message to Employees

... and Others Desiring to Work During the Corn Processing Season at American Fine Foods, Inc.

Payette and Nyssa Plants

SIGNUP STARTS JULY 21

Please report to the company employment offices for signup. Employment offices at both plants will be open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday thru Friday.

We work in cooperation with the state employment offices.

WE ARE AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER