Horseshoe Leagues To Continue Weekly Play

Entering into the third week of the Second Annual City Horseshoe Tournament the contestants have settled down to a steady pace.
 League A games found Mathews still on top with Bob Wilson, last year's Champ, still bidding his time in second place.
 Red McCrady put on a burst of speed to split a double header with Wilson, then dump Father Simard two straight games and finish on a split with Mike Mathews.
 Ray Norland climbed to fourth place by giving Neil Mathews his second defeat of the season in a two game split, then Norland trounced new-comer Ray Sager two straight games and won two more from Ralph Werner.
 Wilson split a series with the on-coming McCrady then lost 2 games to Mathews, but finished the evening strongly by defeating Simard four straight games in series and make-up play.
 Also a newcomer, Mike Mathews climbed from last week's cellar to sixth place by defeating another newcomer Ray Sager two straight games. Mike then moved above Ralph Werner with two games and split a series with third ranked McCrady.
 In League A both Werner and Sager suffered losing streaks as has Jim Monroe but they can console themselves that they are newcomers in very tough competition.
