Call 372-2233

Joy Ballou, Melanie Martin and Mattie Corthen are attending the Nazarene 7th grade church camp at Victory Cove by McCall this week.

Friday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Haroldsen were their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Haroldsen of Provo, Utah and their son Gary of Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Griffin went to Boise Saturday. They visited Mrs. Griffin's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ashford Fields in Notus. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Gorrell in Boise. Monica and Pennie, their great-granddaughters, were at the Gorrell home too. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gann joined the families for dinner. Pennie Gann then accompanied the Griffins back to Nyssa where she is visiting this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warnie Wickham of Jefferson, Oregon arrived Sunday at the home of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Clapp. They are visiting in the area for a few days this week.

Guests last weekend at the home of Mrs. A. L. Heldt were her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Heldt and five children of Renton, Washington. James was here to attend his high school class reunion.

Mrs. A. H. Keck was a Sunday afternoon guest at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Goff of Nu Acres. Mrs. Keck joined Arvin's father, his children and his grandchildren in honoring Arvin on his birthday. The traditional birthday cake with homemade ice cream was served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sallee are enjoying the company of their granddaughter, Missy, while her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ray Larson are at McCall this week.

Monday morning callers at the Lewis Riggs home were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Janvier of Colstrip, Montana. Mrs. Janvier is Mrs. Riggs' niece.

Recent visitors at the Larry Blackburn home were Mrs. Blackburn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Newberry of Jerome and her nieces Julie and Cheryl Rohwein of Livermore, California.

Matt Stringer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stringer, returned from Eugene where he had been visiting this past week with his brother, Mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Foster of Colusa, California called at the home of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sger on Wednesday. Howard also visited with his father, W. W. Foster at the Malheur Nursing Home. The Fosters were enroute to Lewistown, Montana and were traveling in their 5th wheel trailer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sager attended the Methodist Church Youth Picnic on Sunday. Raymond umpired the baseball game between the "Over 30" and the "Under 30" teams.

Michael and Brian Bauer of Kennewick, Washington, who have been visiting at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. R. G. Larson, Sr. since the first of July, will return to their home Thursday (today). Jimmy Larson of Nampa was also a guest of his grandmother this past week while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Larson were in McCall.

Thursday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Beck were Mrs. Evana Buckley of Boise and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Anderson of Provo, Utah.

NYSSA HIGH SCHOOL VARSITY CHEERLEADERS, (right to left) Alma Vielma (on top) Linda Church, Norene Savage, Julie Hoff and (on top) Julie Anderson attended the National Cheerleaders Association in Logan, Utah in June. The girls attended classes and workshops at the meeting. During an evaluation period, the Nyssa Pepsters performed before the many persons at the meeting and were rewarded with three blue ribbons for taking first place honors.

Mrs. John Hoff accompanied the girls to Logan and Gene Chester, Nyssa High School principal, brought them home.

The five girls are presently preparing lemonade for the truck drivers who deliver and load grain at the Farmers Feed and Seed grain elevator. They are using the proceeds to buy uniforms and other necessities needed during their year as cheerleaders.

"Country Flair" Is Show Theme

"Country Flair" will be the theme of a Western Fashion Show sponsored by the Treasure Valley Christian Women's Club, along with The Saddle Tree, a Western wear outlet in Boise.

Scheduled for 1 p.m., August 6, the show is designed for mothers and daughters and will be held at the La Paloma, in Ontario.

Dun Gordy, from Baker, will speak at the event, while Leo Braun of Cambridge, will present special music. There will be free babysitting for the afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Ontario.

Happy Dozen Club Meets

The Happy Dozen Card Club met Friday afternoon with Minnie Stam. Guest players were Hazel

Picnic Enjoyed By All

The first Adrian All Alumni picnic was held in the Adrian park, Sunday, July 27, with approximately 100 persons in attendance. Of the 36 classes that have graduated, 22 were represented with at least one class member. The first year that Adrian graduated a class was 1940, and Mervin Peterson of Adrian was there to represent the first graduating class. Pauline Gowey Mackey represented the class of 1941. Lee Hill represented the latest class to graduate, as he was a member of the class of '75. Those coming the greatest distance were Mr.

and Mrs. Del Grannis of Texas, Gary Webster of Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie West, of Kennewick, Washington. Several came from Boise, Fruitland, Home-dale and Emmett, Idaho, LaGrande, Bend, Ontario, Nyssa and Adrian, Oregon. Two teachers also signed the registration book, Mrs. Marie Moore, and Joe Witty. Joe is presently the F.F.A. instructor at Adrian, but is also a member of the class of 1949. Mrs. Moore is a retired teacher still living in the community.

It had been hoped that more people would be interested, but those that did attend reported a very enjoyable afternoon visiting and renewing friendships. Tentative plans were made to have another All Alumni picnic in three years.

SENIOR CITIZEN ACTIVITIES

The Nyssa Senior Citizens met Wednesday, July 23 for a potluck picnic in the Nyssa South Park with 33 members and three guests present.

The club passed a motion to have a booth at the Malheur County Fair in Ontario in August. Reports from the rummage committee, indicates the rummage sale is proving to be successful.

Several persons attended the advisory board meeting in Vale, July 22. Reports indicate that the housing project is still being talked about. The next advisory meeting will be in Ontario, August 19.

Some of the Nyssa Senior Citizens group plan to go to Vale, July 30, to see the Bicentennial Wagon Train and attend the barbecue.

The meeting was adjourned, following prayer by Wyatt Smith. Following the picnic the group was entertained by Mrs. Haas, who played beautiful accordion music.

Ice Sculpture To Be Shown

The Christian Business and Professional Women's Council will meet on August 5, at 7 p.m., at the Charolais Restaurant in Ontario.

Homemade ice cream will be served, some old-fashioned songs will be sung and a special feature will be an ice sculpture done by Mr. Larry Gardner of Ontario.

The music will be presented by Mrs. Virginia Woods of New Plymouth, Idaho. The guest speaker will be Mr. Dunn Gordy of Baker, Ore.

For a very cool and relaxing evening, we invite all women of the valley to attend. There are no member

REBEKAHS MEET

The Yellow Rose Rebekah Lodge No. 202 met Tuesday, July 22, with Emily Clapp, Noble Grand presiding. Thirteen members answered roll call.

The annual picnic will be held August 3, at the homes of Beulah Gann and Leona Reeves. It will be a potluck with each person to bring their own table service.

Noble Grand announced that Leona Reeves would be Community Service Chairman and Kathleen Wheeler would continue as Good of Order Chairman.

Conductor Rose Toomb and Warden May Bretz presented Hazel Sewright and Louise Wernick to the Past Noble Grand station where each was presented her own birthday cake. Everyone sang "Happy Birthday" to the two ladies.

Then, with Vice Grand Helen Pittz assisting, Conductor Rose Toomb with appropriate verse, presented a lovely brunch coat to Kathleen Wheeler, Good of Order Chairman, for work done this past year.

The next meeting will be August 12 at the IOOF Hall. Hostesses were Emily Clapp and Neta Mae Wiley.

Children Host Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Muri Lancaster were entertained at a surprise patio buffet, July 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Lancaster of Fruitland. The evening event was held in honor of the Lancaster's forty-fifth wedding anniversary and was hosted by Dean, their son and Mary Lou Hobson, their daughter.

Also present were Larry Hobson of Hagerman, Idaho; Dorothy Nolen, Irma Forbess and grandchildren of the celebrated couple; Tammy Lancaster, Libby Hobson, Matthew Hobson and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lancaster.

Reporter's errors in last week's paper make it necessary to reprint this information.
