

Wilson Attempts Tag Of Mathews

Coming down the stretch in the Nyssa Horseshoe Tournament Neil Mathews still holds a commanding leading lead but is being relentlessly pursued by Bob Wilson.

Wilson scored six straight games to keep pace with Neil who also polished off three opponents.

Prime mover during the week was Roger Norland who won 5 of 6 games played, including two wins over Father Simard to ease into third place. His split with Red McCrady provided the opening for Norland to reach the higher rung.

Two splits and two losses dropped Red back to fourth place while Father Simard lost six games while winning only two to remain behind McCrady in the standings.

Mike Mathews picked up 19 percentage points to give indication that he will be reckoned with in future competition. He gained a split with Red McCrady and two splits with Father Simard before dropping two games to last year's champion Wilson.

Playing make up games Ralph Werner won four and lost four to hold his standing.

League A	W	L	Up	Av.

R. Werner	9	15	12	.375
R. Sager	1	33	2	.029

League B
Jim Phelps retrieved the first place position he loaned Gene Chester last week mercessfully flogging six opponents to win 11 of 12 games.

Ironically, it is third place Gene Dockter who holds the Indian sign on League Leader Phelps, having administered three of the losses Phelps has suffered. And just as ironically is the fact that Gene Chester has defeated Dockter in all six games they have played.

Tailenders in both Leagues Rev. Jim Monroe and Ray Sager, have a wager going on who will win the most games. Rumor has it that the loser must carry a horseshoe with him for an entire week.

League B	W	L	Up	Ave.

Activities In Arcadia

By Nell Bowers

ARCADIA - Last weekend Brig and Kerma Olsen went to Clearfield, Utah to attend the 50th Anniversary of one of Brig's sisters. She is Mrs. Emory Simmons. All eight brothers and sisters of Brig's family were present for the event which honored Mr. and Mrs. Emory Simmons. On Saturday, they went to Bountiful to attend their family reunion. There were 56 present for this gathering. The Olsens went from there on to Rexburg to stay with their son Garth and family. They returned home the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bullard and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bullard went to Harriet Turner's funeral on Monday this week. Services were held in the Owyhee Community Church and she was buried at the Owyhee Cemetery.

Orville Carroll and family came for a visit to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carroll Sunday afternoon. They will return to Bend Tuesday.

Doyel and Francis Carroll were visitors from Mountain Home Sunday evening at the Henry Carroll home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carroll received word of the birth of their first great-grandchild. The baby was born August 10 to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Green of Vancouver, Washington. He has been named Dustin Michael and weighed 8 pounds and six ounces. He is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Doyel Carroll of Mountain Home, Idaho and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Al Rickenberger of Vancouver, Wash.

Don Bowers called at the Clyde bowers home Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Ron Pruyn called on Nell Bowers Friday afternoon. All the neighbors on Gem Avenue were quite shocked by the vicious vandalism that destroyed a bit of nostalgia last week. The little Red Barn mailbox which Merrillean Robbins put up a few weeks ago was burned by person or persons unknown. As one lady on the avenue expressed it, "We folks, who live on Gem Avenue were proud of that. It was our loss as well as theirs." It seems that there are people who do not value beauty and craftsmanship.

Bud and Maxine Rossow visited the Husts, Friday night and spent the night. Mrs. Rossow is a sister of Mrs. Hust. The Rossows live in Mountain Home, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hust visited Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Rossow at their cabin at Featherville, Idaho.

Carla Hust and Georgia are visiting Mrs. Laure Gardiner and family at Nampa. They are working at the school library for a while.

Arcadia lost another of the "Oldtimers" last week with the death of Dave Hawkins. He has been in this community since 1915. He died at Malheur Memorial Hospital. Carlene and Darlene Carroll, twin daughters of Jim and Karen Carroll, spent Wednesday and Thursday at Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carrolls, while their sisters went to the Malheur County Fair. They are all very proud of their sister Susie who won Grand Champion of the whole show with her white, fat hog.

Brent and David Bowers, sons of Don and Janice Bowers of Parma, Idaho stayed with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bowers, Sunday through Wednesday. On Wednesday, Nell Bowers and the boys accompanied by Craig Atkins attended the Malheur County Fair.

Ted Howe and Craig Atkins came from Oregon Slope to attend the "Grandma's Party" given by Nell Bowers for the grandchildren. They included the Don Bowers family, Melanie Mann and Craig Atkins plus several grownups. The evening was spent with a choice of swimming, boating, roasting weiners and marshmallows and other lunch provided by the grownup members and some fishing. All present said, "Can we do it again next year?"

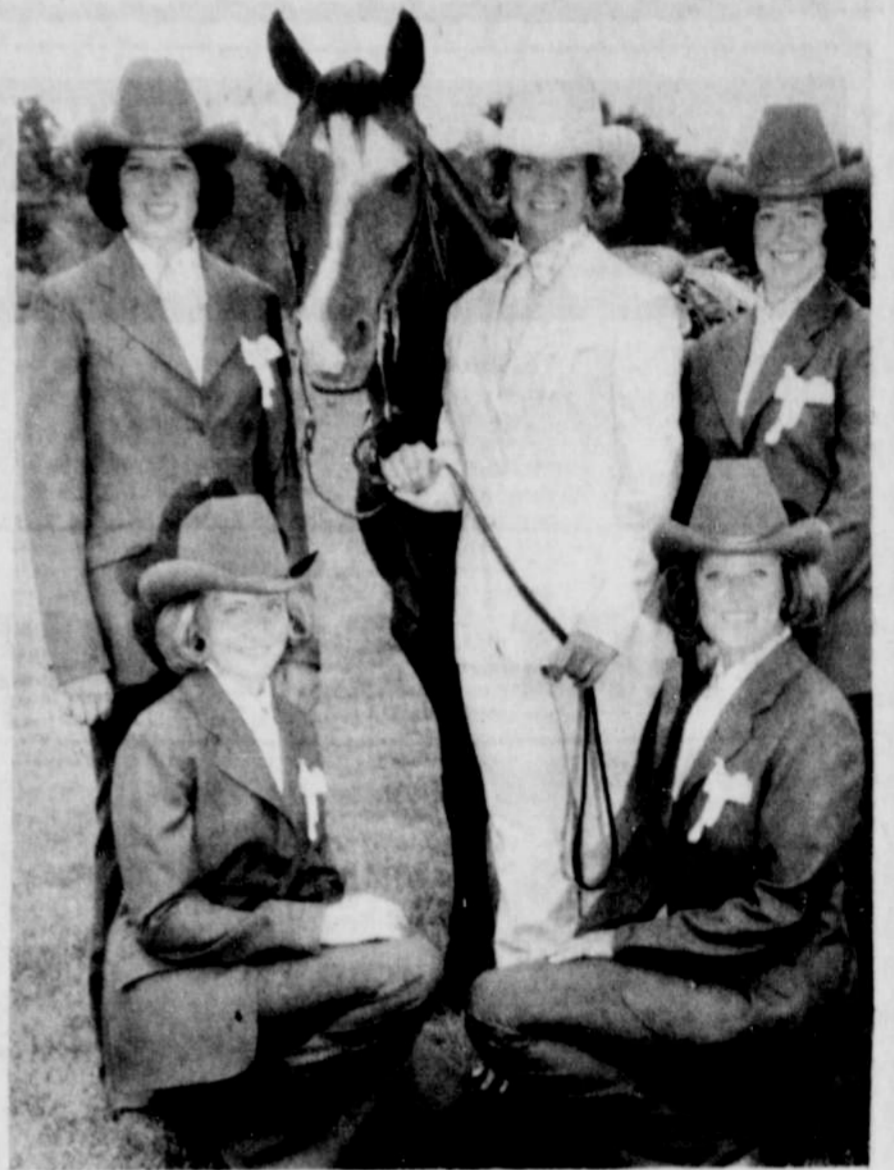

Clyde and Nell Bowers visited Charles Bowers, Sunday afternoon, in the Pioneer Nursing Home in Vale.

Janice Bowers and family visited Monday evening with Clyde and Nell Bowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Meyer and family went on a sight seeing trip, Sunday, to Lake Lowell.

Amy Stradley was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Haney, Sunday at dinner. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dail and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Winchell and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Robbins, also Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Robbins were all married in August. They celebrated their anniversaries by having dinner at the Starlite Cafe in Vale Sunday. It was the 48th anniversary for the Winchells, 49th Anniversary for the Austin Robbins and the 53 anniversary for the L. E. Robbins.

THE PENDLETON ROUND-UP QUEEN Michele Evans, Heppner; Queen Lori Anderson, Pendleton; and Princess Susan Fitterer, Pendleton. Round-Up season officially opens with the Dress-Up Parade in downtown Pendleton, on September 6.

Three Nyssa Swimmers Set Six Idaho Records

Lisa, Matt and Mark Rose, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rankin of Nyssa, swam in the Idaho State Swim Meet held at Boise State University, Saturday and Sunday.

The twin boys, swimming for the Boise "Y" team, set six state records, three a piece. Mark took first in the Individual Medley; first in the 100 yard Free style by breaking the old record of 120.4 by his time of 1:10.6; and in the 50 yard Free style his record of 32.8 wiped out the old one of 35.8.

Matt, not to be outdone by his brother, took a first in the 50 yard Backstroke and a first in the 50 yard Breaststroke (his times for these were unavailable at presstime) and he then broke the old time of

40.6 in the 50 yard Butterfly with his score of 37.8

The boys raced in the boys eight years and under class. They tied for the high-point trophy for their age group.

The feminine part of this swimming trio is Lisa Rose, who took the State Championship with a gold medal for a first place in the 100 yard Breaststroke in the 11-12 girls class. She then was a third place winner in the 200 yard Individual Medley, the 50 yard Freestyle and the 200 yard Freestyle. In the open girls 200 yard Freestyle, and this includes 18 year olds, this young swimmer captured a silver medal for second place. Her times were also unavailable.
