

Out Of The Past

10 YEARS AGO
Bishop Howard Bair performed a double-ring ceremony uniting Miss Sue Olsen and Jim Tracy the evening of Friday, July 16, 1965, at the Nyssa LDS stake house.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. J. O. (Brig) Olsen of Route 2, Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tracy of 302 North Fifth Street.

Over 500 guests were present for the August 7, 1965 ceremony uniting Miss Bonnie Lucille Steiner and Ralph Leavitt. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Steiner of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Elmen Leavitt of Nyssa.

20 YEARS AGO
Mrs. Hazel Lane and Mrs. Helen Gonyer returned from Monmouth, Oregon, Wednesday evening. They had attended a leadership conference on the college campus under the leadership of the Oregon Education Association on August 7 to 9.

Truckloads of spuds coming into market were crowding the highways toward Nyssa this past week. Figures indicate a total of 428 refrigerated carloads of spuds shipped out of Nyssa this past week. The price as of Wednesday was a net of 90c to the grower for packout potatoes after removal of culls and No. 2 grade of white rose.

30 YEARS AGO
Outward demonstration of the celebrative spirit prompted by the surrender of Japan developed slowly in Nyssa Tuesday afternoon, but reached a crescendo of yelling and screaming and horn tooting by 9 p.m.

When the news of the surrender was received over the radio early in the afternoon, a few motorists began sounding their car horns and then the noise decreased.

Later in the evening a group of men organized for a street dance, which was continued until about 12:30 a.m. Wednesday. Various men, using a truck as a platform, furnished music for the occasion. Among them were the Sanders brothers, Bert Lienkaemper, Jerry Crandall, Dave Hawkins and Robert McDonald.

Businessmen had made no previous arrangements for closing of stores, so they closed their stores Wednesday.

Although all federal buildings were closed because of a two-day holiday called by President Truman, most of the business houses in Nyssa were open today as usual.

40 YEARS AGO

Girl Scouts of Nyssa and Kingman Colony returned Sunday evening from a very enjoyable week spent camping at the Kiwanis Camp on Silvan Beach, Payette Lakes.

Mrs. Dick Tensen was chaperone for the Nyssa girls, who were Betty Cook, Ethel Mary and Helen Boydell, Mary Lee Emmott, Eva Lynch, Marion Harris, Phyllis Poage, Barbara Brown, Clarissa Tillman, Lavena Phillips, Tienna, Betty and Louise Tensen.

The Kingman girls were in charge of Mrs. Ralph Haworth, who also had her little daughter Phyllis with her. Kingman girls who spent the week in camp were Helen and Maybelle Pond, Ethelyn and Eleanor Haworth, Flora Prosser, Ellen McConnell, Emily Otis, Joyce and Donna Ashcraft, Lyla Day, Mrs. Floyd Zesiger, Dorothy and Margaret Winters, Lucille Thresher and Pearl Williams.

50 YEARS AGO

A farewell party was given Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stubbs Monday evening at the Odd Fellows Hall by the people of the community. A large crowd was in attendance and a most enjoyable time was had. Many expressions of regret were heard over the loss to the community of Mr. and Mrs. Stubbs. We will especially feel the loss of Mrs. Stubbs' helpful efforts in arranging musical programs. An enjoyable feature of the evening was a big feed, in preparing which Nyssa ladies excel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Oden returned August 11 from a salmon fishing trip to Newport and Winchester Bay. They visited at the home of their son Laurence and his family in Albany.

Merle Johnson accompanied by her cousins, Katharine Vetsch of Boise and Mr. and Mrs. Norville Leuck of Santa Barbara, Calif. went to visit Charles Leuck at Canyon City last week. They visited Mr. and Mrs. John Leuck of Germantown, Tennessee, who were guests at the Charles Leuck home.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sullivan of Rolla, Kansas brought Mrs. Bertha Busler of Hermiton to Nyssa for two days last week to visit at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Gann. Owen is Mr. Sullivan's uncle. On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fernlund of Medford brought Mrs. Bessie Fernlund to visit with the Ganns for three days while the other Fernlunds were visited in Caldwell. Bessie and her husband, Carl Fernlund, were neighbors of the Ganns when they all lived in Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Looney and boys hosted a dinner Monday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Hiro Kido, Sharlene, Scott and Clark and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Michaelson.

Mrs. Iona Flinders and Mrs. Carolyn Blaylock took their Sunday School classes on an outing to Meridian Tuesday afternoon to the Lorin Saunders home. They enjoyed swimming, playing on the trampoline and playing pool before eating a very large picnic lunch.

Judy Nedry arrived Saturday and is spending one week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dirick Nedry. Judy was here for the wedding of her cousin, Mardi Tensen to Dick Butcher, August 16.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hartwig, nee Janet Nedry, and their little foster child, Tommy, of Waco, Texas, arrived Tuesday and will be vacationing for ten days at the home of the Dirick Nedrys.

Picnic Slated For Owyhee Park

The Park above Owyhee Dam will be the site of St. Paul's Episcopal Church's Service and picnic this Sunday, August 24. Members of the congregation, together with Holy Trinity Church in Vale, will gather at 12 noon for worship. A picnic dinner will follow.

Cars will gather at the church shortly before 11:30 Sunday to offer rides to all who need them. There will be a brief Communion service at the church at the regular 11:00 o'clock hour.

Watch for a special announcement of the service schedule for the Labor Day Weekend.
