

Nyssa Couple United In Catholic Service

St. Bridget's Catholic Church was the setting for the August 9, 1975, afternoon wedding of Trish Wahlert and Ted Freitag.

Parents of the bride and groom are Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Wahlert of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Freitag of New Plymouth.

The wedding began with a procession of the entire bridal party to the altar. The bride and groom exchanged vows in a double-ring ceremony at a nuptial mass celebrated by Father Robert Simard. The first and second readings were read by Trish and Ted, and the prayer of the faithful was read by Ray Wahlert, brother of the bride. Mike Wahlert was server. Baskets of white gladiolus and red carnations decorated the sanctuary.

The bridal gown, fashioned by the bride, was a floor-length, high-waisted dress of white polyester with lace overlay on the bodice, collar, and long sleeves and a lace train. An elbow-length illusion veil was held in place by a headpiece of lace and satin ribbon. She carried a bouquet of red roses and babies breath with ivy streamers. The necklace worn by the bride was a cross of garnets that belonged to the bride's grandmother.

Matron of honor was Mrs. J. P. (Tone) Sands, sister of the bride. Her dress was sheer white polyester with clusters of red roses over pink, and she carried a nosegay of red roses, pink carnations and babies breath.

Best man was John Freitag, brother of the groom. The groom and his best man wore white dinner jackets with red boutonnières. Ushers were John Wahlert, brother of the bride and Robert Morrison, brother-in-law of the groom.

Soloist was Garen Manley, accompanied by Miss Lori Lewis on the organ.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church hall. Mrs. Mike Kodama and Miss Nancy Ross were in charge of the guest book. The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with red roses and babies breath, was served by Mrs. Wilton Jackson and Mrs. Charles Quinowski, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Frances Allen and Mrs. Don Fraser, aunts of the groom, poured punch and coffee.

Upon returning from a honeymoon on the Oregon Coast, the bride and groom will reside in Nyssa.

An honored guest was Mrs. Hannah Burbank as "grandmother" of the bride. All of the bride's brothers and sisters and their families were home for the occasion. It was the first time in four years the Wahlert family had been together.

Amity Club Has Picnic

The Amity Club held their annual summer picnic on August 13 at the Carl Burningham home. The husbands were special guests and 16 couples were in attendance.

The gardens were very beautiful and the guests were seated at card tables with red carnations in bud vases as centerpiece. Party favors were little American flags and bows of ribbon in Americana colors carried out the theme.

The picnic lunch was served buffet style with Ida Moncur and Iona Flinders in charge. Barbara Burningham, as hostess, also arranged an interesting program consisting of coronet solos by Don Moss and Fred Child singing and playing his guitar, Johnny Cash style.

Cyclists Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Williams and children, Cindy, 5, Kathleen 9 and John 12, completed their bicycle ride from Klamath Falls to Fruitland by way of Redmond, Prineville and John Day.

Cindy rode in a two-wheel cart pulled behind one of the bicycles. Mr. and Mrs. Sager had met them in John Day and they all went to Big Creek, behind Strawberry Mountain to camp and fish.

The bicyclists traveled over 400 miles at a rate of about 50 miles a day. At the trip's end, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, with John, returned home to Mountain View, California.

While Kathleen and Cindy remained in the area for a visit with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Williams in Fruitland. They arrived in Nyssa Saturday for a week's visit with their other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sager.

Foss-Lundy Vows Set In Candlelight Service

In a candlelit evening ceremony, August 2, Randie Lynn Foss became the bride of Neil Arthur Lundy. The service was held at Piedmont Community Church, Piedmont, California with Jeff Miles officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Foss of Walnut Creek, California and Mr. and Mrs. Ward C. Lundy of Nyssa.

The bride was given into a double-ring marriage by her father, with Jackie Hsia, of Hayward, California, as matron of honor and Charles Lundy of Sacramento, California, as best man.

The bride wore a gown of ivory silk over bridal satin, with a bodice of Irish lace and a high Victorian neckline. Irish lace also trimmed the edge of her cathedral-length train. Her full-length veil was sprinkled with lace flowers and her shoes were covered to match. She carried Jaffett orchids, butterfly roses and staphanotis, overlaid with babies breath, and trimmed with long streamers of knots and flowers.

Bridesmaids were Sue Rice of Saratoga, Calif., Lora Eberle King of Corvallis, Oregon; Jan Featherly of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Jane Abrami of Orinda, California. They wore gowns of chiffon with a floral print colors of lavender, aqua and white. Their headpieces were bows of matching fabric with flowers. They carried bouquets of lavender, bachelor buttons and tiny carnations.

Ushers for the service were Reid Foss of Walnut Creek, California, Bill Krahn of Tiburon, California, Dave Wallace of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Bob Eslick of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony, at Parkwoods Recreation Center, Oakland, California.

The couple presently make Pleasant Hill, California, their home.
