

OUT OF THE PAST

10 YEARS AGO

Toni Fife, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fife and a Nyssa High School senior, has been named as semi-finalist in the 1965-66 merit scholarship competition. She was among high scoring students of Oregon in the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test administered last March in over 17,000 schools throughout the nation

Two members of the Nyssa FFA Chapter will leave Saturday, October 9 to attend the 38th National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri. Chapter members voted to send seniors Jim Bishop, president and Bruce Child, sentinel, as representatives of the local unit.

20 YEARS AGO

Not a seat was vacant as Nyssa celebrated its annual Harvest Festival with two performances by the famous Grand Ole Opry. Saturday night. A thrilling moment of the big show was when State Senator Elmo Smith crowned high school senior Theima Mullins as queen of the Harvest Festival. Members of her court were Patricia Nicholson, Sally Lawrence, Sharon Glover and Catherine Coleman.

A birthday dinner given Friday evening by Mrs. Leo Child at the Elwood Flinders home, honored Mr. Child, Jesse Elgan and Amasa Hammon. The three honor guests old time friends, were celebrating their 71st birthday anniversaries which fall within two weeks of each other.

30 YEARS AGO

With the Third Infantry Division, Seventh Army, Germany—Sgt. Howard D. Boor of Nyssa, Oregon, has been awarded the bronze star for meritorious service in direct support of combat operations while fighting with the Third Infantry Division in Franco, Boor has been discharged.

Henry Hartley, superintendent of schools, announced this week that a "harvest vacation" for Nyssa high school will be held for two weeks beginning October 15. The youngsters will work in the fields and packing sheds.

Mr. and Mrs. Connaughy of Nyssa, formerly of Adrian, received word that their son, Lawrence has been promoted from S2/C to S1/C.

40 YEARS AGO

The Owyhee Hotel received an entire refinishing job. A. V. Pruy finished the job Monday. All the rooms were caulked, re-decorated and put in first class shape for the coming season.

Miss Olive Hunter, whose marriage to Mr. Charles Drewitz will take place in the near future, is the honoree of a miscellaneous shower given at her home last Friday. About 50 guests were present and Miss Hunter received many loving gifts.

At the close, a nice lunch was served by Mrs. S. D. Goshert, Mrs. H. D. Holmes and Mrs. H. T. Francis, hostesses.

50 YEARS AGO

Mrs. James Dennis is the proud possessor of what is undoubtedly the biggest "punkin" ever raised in this neck of the woods, and it is still growing. It evidently discovered very early in its career that there would not be room on the homeplace, consisting of six city lots, for it to develop properly so it crawled through the fence out into the great open spaces of the street where it would have room according to its size. And here, covered by weeds from human observation, it grew to its present mammoth proportions. It was accidentally discovered only a few days ago, its huge bulk being no longer concealed by the weeds. It is only a lowly yellow cow pumpkin but it deserves and honored place in the hall of fame. The monster measures five feet eleven inches around the equator and five feet nine and one by way of the poles. Harry Francis weighed it, the scales balancing at the 100-pound mark.

Series On Pastoral Care

The Rev. Koji Hayashi will speak at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 7, on the Church's roll with those who are ill. This is the first in a series on pastoral care being sponsored by the United Methodist Church where the sessions will be held.

Koji Hayashi

Chaplain Hayashi is presently Chaplain and Director of Pastoral Care at St. Luke's Hospital, Boise, and Chaplain Supervisor of the Inter-mountain Clinical Pastoral Education Center. He has been in Boise since September 1973.

Prior to his present assignment he was Chaplain and CPE Supervisor, Appalachian Regional Hospital, Harlan, Kentucky. He has served Episcopal Churches in Wakkani, Japan ('64-'67), and was Rector of St. Michael's Church, Sapporo, Japan, and Vice-Director of the Anglican University Student Center, Hokkaido University ('68-'70).

Chaplain Hayashi received his B.S. from the University of Hokkaido, Sapporo, Japan in 1959 and his B.C. from Central Theological Seminary Tokyo, Japan in 1964. He studied for a year at Wycliffe College, Toronto ('67-'68) as a World Council of Churches Scholar. He received his CPE training at the Ontario Mental Health Center, Canada, Toronto General Hospital, Canada, Zion Church, Greenville, PA. and at the Appalachian Regional Hospital, Harlan, KY. where he became a certified ACPE Chaplain supervisor.

He is married and he and his wife, Marilee, are the parents of three children.

"If I Were Young Again"

By Erlene Johnson Pastor of Christian Church

"Young man, it's wonderful to be young! Enjoy every minute of it...but realize that you must account to God for everything you do."

When I hear the often repeated phrase "If I were young again," it makes me wonder what that persons depth of understanding is of the Bible to wish for a return to youth as fruitless and frustrating as searching for the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. It invariably ends up in disappointment.

The Church offers many avenues of service to those who are concerned. One of these is investing in our young people.

I think the most thrilling experience in the ministry is to watch your efforts bear fruit in the lives of young people. Not long ago a young man came to me and said, "Pastor, would you write a letter of reference for me, I want to attend Bible College."

I have learned to enjoy football tremendously in the past three or four years because I can watch two of my sons do something I never had the opportunity to do myself, the investment is a very small price for the joy received.

The youth of the Christian Church are an inspiration to the entire congregation. Not long ago I talked to them at a campout in the hills about their responsibilities and it has been a thrill to watch them respond. One of their activities that shows real Christian growth is Youth Prayer Meeting each Saturday night at 10 p.m. They could be out indulging in the sin of the World but instead they choose to pray. How do you spend Saturday nights? What would your priority list look like on paper?

Young people never forget this command from God. "Remember now thy creator in the day of thy youth." Ecc. 12:6.

Friend don't wish for the past to return. Look with great expectancy to the future and invest in those who will rule it.

To the traveler in the hot dry desert, water is a must. To the thirsty soul only the Gospel of our precious Lord and Savior Jesus Christ can satisfy.

Is your soul hungry and thirsty for something better than the world offers? Something that will satisfy for all eternity? Jesus Christ is the answer.

See you in Church, Sunday Morning, corner of 5th and Ennis Avenue, Sunday School 9:45 a.m. and Morning Worship 11 a.m.

Baptists Start Awana Program

The Nyssa Conservative Baptist Church has launched their 1975-76 AWANA program on Wednesday evenings at 6:45 p.m. This nationwide program is designed to reach the youth of the United States through games, campouts, Bible memorization and other related activities. All children, ages 8 through high school are welcome.

The program at the Nyssa Church is led by Neil and Annadelle Mathews, with the following workers as helpers: Beckie Mathews, Duane and Ruth Buchtel, Larry Meyer, Jackie McCellan, Ken and Ilena McGowan, Ralph and Patty Werner and Pastor and Mrs. Beattie.

Transportation will be provided for all youngsters needing rides. For further information call 372-3623 or 372-2424.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS ACTIVITIES

Job's Daughters Bethel No. 33 met Wednesday, September 24 with Honored Queen Tami Webb presiding. The girls voted to attend a tasting party at Ore-Ida on Monday, September 29.

Practice will be held at the Masonic Hall Wednesday, October 1 at 7:30 p.m.

The candy will be here and Jobies will start selling it.

Christian Women

To Meet

The monthly dinner meeting of the Christian Business and Profession Women's Council will be held Tuesday, October 7, at the Charolais Restaurant in Ontario at 7 p.m.

Special feature will be on flower arranging. The music will be presented by Mrs. Hope Kawashima of Ontario. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Sharon Barger of Nampa, homemaker and mother of teenagers.

Everyone is invited to attend. There are no member ships or dues. For reservations call Margaret Bodewig at 889-8508.
