Booster Night Held At Oregon Trail Grange

Members of Oregon Trail Grange and their guests met Thursday evening, September 18, at the Grange Hall for a potluck dinner followed by a Booster Night program.

Grange Master Harold Kurtz welcomed the guests and introduced Lecturer Marguerite Moss who was in charge of the program. Mrs. Moss added her welcome and introduced Don Somers who reported that the purpose of Booster Night was to acquaint interested persons with the aims and history of the grange. Contrary to opinion, it is not necessary for one to be a farmer in order to be eligible to join the grange. Anyone interested in any of the activities related to agriculture such as processing, transportation, or marketing is eligible for membership. There is no restriction in race or creed.

The Grange is for the entire family and women can hold any office. A Junior Grange for children ages 5 to 14 is available where it is desired.

The Legislative Committees of the Grange start at the local level. Resolutions made at local level go to the Pomona or county level and to the State Grange and on to the National Grange. Any member can introduce a resolution.

Somers explained that Grange is opened by placing the Bible on the altar, a prayer is offered by the Chaplain, and the flag is always presented. He stated that there are 43 quotations from the Bible in the ritualistic work. The Subordinate Degrees portray the four seasons; spring, summer, fall, and winter and are compared to the seasons of life: childhood, youth, manhood or womanhood, and old age.

State Deputy Robert Coble and Mrs. Coble, Richland, were visitors. Coble spoke of the part that State and National Grange take in the Legislative program. The State Grange is committed to the preservation of the family farm.

The group was entertained by the Son Shiners. This very popular singing group was greatly appreciated.

The meeting was closed by Grange Master Harold Kurtz. The next regular meeting will be held Thursday evening, October 2, 8:30 p.m. Election of officers is in order and all Oregon Trail Grange members are urged to attend this important meeting.
