

UPPERCLASSMEN IN THE SUPERNATURAL Literature Class taught by Clyde Swisher have each made a project depicting a supernatural story. Altogether, 32 projects were built by the students, with some of the more creative pictured above.

From the story "The Terribly Strange Bed" came this project, built by Norene Savage. The castles were constructed by Beth Stout and Sherrie Fitzsimmons, inspired by the story "Carmilla." Randy Savage made the gorilla, which weighed over 25 pounds, for the story "The Mark of the Beast." The cabin from "The Boarded Window" was made by Scott Holcomb. Many other outstanding projects could not be pictured.

Activities In Arcadia

By Nell Bowers

ARCADIA - (Since your reporter played hockey last week to go fishing, I will present last week's news

Esther Stephens visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carroll Sunday evening.

Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carroll, Roy and Jim Wood, Mrs. Carroll's brother, went down the Columbia on a trip to Albany. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Epling and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Carroll. While they were visiting Ruth (Mrs. Epling), a granddaughter of the Carrolls came from Vancouver, Washington. She was Mrs. Michael Green. She brought her infant son, Dustin Michael, the Carrolls only great-grandchild for a little visit. The Carrolls and Roy and Jim Wood came home by way of Bend, stopping for dinner at the Grizzly Bear and a short visit with Orville Carroll who works there.

Mrs. Emmy Wood and Mrs. Eva Tully of Boise, visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carroll, Tuesday. Mrs. Wood is an aunt of Mrs. Carroll. Other guests for dinner were Mrs. Edith Allumball from Boise, a cousin; Mrs. Cloma Petterson, from Flint, Oklahoma; Orville Carroll of Bend; and Jim Wood, a brother of Mrs. Carroll visiting from Colcord, Oklahoma. Mrs. Tully was celebrating her 92nd birthday.

Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Steve James of Eagle, Mr. James is a brother of Mrs. Feik, Mrs. Hirschi and Mrs. Throckmorton.

On Friday, Mrs. Edith Hirschi, and Mrs. Dora Throckmorton, left the Feik residence to return to their respective homes.

Amy Stradley went to Boise with the "Son Shiners" and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Haney and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dail. The "Son Shiners" sang at Hill View Nazarene Church at the morning service. Then the group went to Julia Davis Park for picnic in honor of Boyd Haney's birthday. Bill and Janine Stradley of Meachem were also guests.

Mrs. Amy Stradley had a quilt tying party one afternoon last week. Helpers and guests were her sister, Gertie Smith of Nyssa and her daughters, Ethel Mae Dail and Annette Haney.

Mrs. Don Bowers, Brian, Brenda and Barbara were visitors at the Clyde Bowers home Thursday evening.

The Arcadia Sunshine Club met at Ruth Petterson's home, Friday afternoon. There were eight members present. An enjoyable afternoon was spent reminiscing the summer activities. A delightful lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bowers attended the birthday party for Brian and Brent Bowers in their home in Parma. Brian is one year old and Brent is, now, eight. Each had a birthday cake. Brent's cake was in the shape of a car race track with real toy cars on a chocolate track. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mitchell were also guests. Homemade ice cream was served.

The Fishing Trip

by Dale Witt

Jess Asumendi and son Tony flew to Roseburg, August 29 for a fishing trip. They left Ontario with their friend, Dick McDonald, a dentist in Roseburg, who was their pilot for the trip. It took them two hours and forty-five minutes to fly to Roseburg.

After lunch at the McDonald home they headed for the ocean. On the way they saw elk, lots of wild blackberries and really beautiful trees. They were joined by another friend, Bob Bailey, a veterinary in Roseburg, when they arrived at Salmon Harbor at Winchester Bay. The foursome then journeyed to Coos Bay where they unloaded their river boat. However, they fished with Bob's boat "Father's Folly" on the ocean.

Upon their arrival, the ocean was too choppy for salmon fishing so they caught thirty crabs. During this, the crab rope got caught in the jet unit and the boat finally drifted near a shipping company and some commercial fishermen pulled them in.

The next morning (Saturday) when they went salmon fishing, Tony caught a seventeen-inch silver salmon and a 17 1/2-inch one. Later to add to his fisherman's luck, he hooked a three and a half foot blue shark. This shark was used for bait, but not before Tony had his picture taken with it as "living proof" that he caught it. Right in keeping with the times, he also kept the "jaws." Like all fishermen, he also had another larger shark on the line but it chewed his line in two and got away. Tony also reported that no one else caught any fish that day.

The next morning, however, Jess caught two salmon in a row, Bob got three, Dick two and Tony again pulled in three, one which measured 18 inches. They also saw a whale as it jumped in the water. That evening they went crabbing and got thirty crabs which they ate that evening for dinner.

Sunday evening found the group packing up and returning to Dick's house where they spent the night.

Monday they went to see a Wild Safari, where they saw lots of wild animals, some tigers, lions, cougar, donkeys elephants, zebra, a cheeta, mountain goats and big horn sheep. They also saw "Chico" a McCaw parrot. Chico did lots of tricks. He was trained in California and has traveled to England and many places over the world. His speech was very good. Pilot Dick McDonald and his wife flew the Asumendi's home Monday evening. They all had a wonderful trip especially 13-year-old Tony.

Tony's biggest problem seems to be that no one really believes he caught a shark. Perhaps this story and the pictures will help convince the non-believers, that young Tony had unbelievable good "Fisherman's Luck" with a shark thrown in, for a fishing trip he will never forget.

THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD TONY ASUMENDI holding his version of "Jaws." He caught this 3 1/2-foot blue shark recently while fishing with his dad, Jess, on the Oregon Coast.

Can You Guess Who Our "Mystery Merchant" Is This Week? CASH PRIZES!

"Who's Who" in Nyssa?

WHERE TO LOOK FOR CLUES

Clues may be hidden in ANY AD IN THIS SECTION. When a star appears in any of these ads, it means that additional advertising of that firm appears elsewhere in this issue of the paper and additional clues may also be hidden in any of those ads as well.

Clues will be scattered...there may be from one to five in any ad - or none. This is a contest of skills - and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We invite you to do your best to outwit us!

CONTEST RULES

1. This is a family fun contest! One entry per person (family of four could submit four entries.) Anyone may enter UNLESS a member of your family is employed by the Gate City Journal or by the merchant whose ad is heavily bordered in this section. (This applies ONLY during the week this ad is bordered.) Employees of other sponsoring merchants ARE eligible.

2. Nothing to buy - use any slip of paper for entry blank. Not necessary to be present to win. Not necessary to be a subscriber to the Gate City Journal to enter.

3. WHO'S WHO may be anyone in the Nyssa area. Clues for his or her identity will be hidden ONLY in ads for sponsoring merchants (see "Where to look for Clues" above.) If by coincidence, the name of the WHO'S WHO (or other facts about him or her) happens to appear in news items, editorial matter or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues in this contest.

4. To enter, write down the name you think WHO'S WHO is. Add the total number of clues you can find in ALL the ads of sponsoring merchants in this issue. You do not have to list all these clues - just give the total number of them. Don't forget to add your name and address. Then, drop your entry in the box located at the sponsoring merchant, whose ad is bordered in this section of this issue.

5. There is no other place where entries will be accepted. Any member of the family may bring in all the entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

6. This week's contest starts when you receive this issue and closes at 4 p.m. Monday of the following week.

7. At that time (4 p.m. next Monday) a drawing will be held at the store where entries have been received for this week's contest. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies WHO'S WHO will win $10. If THAT entry also lists the correct total number of clues hidden in all ads of sponsoring merchants, a BONUS OF $14.00 will be paid. Whenever this BONUS is not won, it will be added to next week's BONUS - which will continue to grow until it is won!

8. Every possible precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but errorless typography CANNOT BE GUARANTEED (by anyone). The publisher of the Gate City Journal will be judge in all questions and his decision is final.

Family participation gives you a better chance to win the jackpot...your wife, husband or youngster MAY spot a clue that you miss!

Remember, you can't win if you don't enter!
