

OUT OF THE PAST

10 YEARS AGO

Representing Nyssa High School at the fifth annual Eastern Oregon Press Conference held recently in Pendleton, were Teresa Elquezabal, Jim Ableman, Patty Urry, Janet and Judy Nedry and Advisor Dale Schraufnagel. These students and their journalism instructor, delegates from both the Yearbook and Bulldog staffs, were among those attending from 27 Eastern Oregon schools.

Some 300 neighbors of the Donald Brewer family joined last Monday night in a "fire shower" held in the Owyhee Community Church, in a good will gesture to aid the Brewers, whose house burned down the night of October 4.

The event was sponsored by the Worthwhile Club of Sunset Valley, the OK Club of the Owyhee district and the Community Church.

Folks came with armloads of gifts for the family which had lost everything in the fire. Mrs. Essie Perko, Mrs. Homer Brewer, Mrs. Keith Tallman and Mrs. Jack Elliott were in charge of the gift tables.

Mrs. Wayne Robb, Mrs. Kenneth Himple and Mrs. Earl Kygar were in charge of refreshments served to all who came to the shower.

When the former luxury liner Lurline docked at San Francisco recently, the cargo included 555 Australian war brides of American servicemen and some 200 of their children. Hundreds of war brides are awaiting transportation from Australia as well as from England, France and other European countries.

Don R. Strickland of Route 2, Nyssa, has received an honorable discharge from the Army and has returned to his home.

He was a Technician Fifth Grade with the Medical Corps and was discharged at Oliver General Hospital at Augusta, Georgia.

40 YEARS AGO

At a pretty wedding Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the presence of relatives and friends, Miss Eva Roberts became the bride of Howard Foster. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents at Gooding. Miss Edna Lucille Roberts was the bride's only attendant, and Curtis Foster acted as best man for his brother, Rev. Titus of Buhl performed the ceremony.

After the ceremony a wedding lunch was served to the guests. The young couple left for a wedding trip, but will be at home in Boise soon, where they will live until Mr. Foster finishes his course at the Boise Business University. After that they will probably make their home in Nyssa.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Roberts of Gooding and is a Gooding High School graduate. She also attended the Boise Business University.

Howard Foster is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Foster former Nyssa residents who now make their home in Portland. He is a graduate of Nyssa High School and attended Gooding College for one year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Foster and children of Portland, Curtis, Crete Marie Foster of Nyssa and Eleanor Foster of Nampa were guests at the wedding.

The Circuit Writer

by Rev. Jim Monroe

My friend Hermann Joiner came bouncing into my office last Tuesday. "Hey Jim! We want you to join the M.A.M.A.'s."

"The what?" "The Malheur Association for the Maintenance of Aardvarks!"

"But," I noted, "I haven't seen any aardvarks around here."

"You see!" Herm was near hysteria. "We have to move fast to save them!" I didn't join, but Herm got me for five dollars to "locate and protect area aardvarks."

Wednesday, Hermann was back in the office. "By the way, we would like to take you into the Solemn Order of Bats tonight. If you join now, I can guarantee you an office. Whaddayasay!!! Join us in our belfry tonight! All you do for initiation is hang by your ankles for three hours and..."

My discretion overcame my thrill at being asked. "With initials like those there is no way a man of the cloth will join!" And, I didn't, but another five bucks went out for "researching a new name (maybe the solemn order of aardvarks?)."

Friday morning, helpful Herm was back again. "You wouldn't believe what I'm going to do for you!"

I said, "I believe Herm, I believe!" I thought "To me, not for me."

"I am putting you on a chain letter for dog food! Send one can to the name at the top of the list, and then put your name at the bottom. Why one woman kept the chain intact and in a very short time received 16,552 cans of "Bowler" dog food. Don't break the chain, though! Last guy did that, was bitten by a raging dog. Had his toe bandaged for week. Next can of hash he opened up had a funny taste to it too."

"But, Hermann, I don't even have a dog!" "That's the other chain letter I wanted to talk to you about..."

I didn't give Herm any money this time, but I did send in five ones to the local S.P.C.A. I also donated three cans of "Bowler" dog food. I would have had more, but I broke the chain.

Women Return From Trip

Mrs. Bill Webb, Mrs. Margarete Payne and Mrs. Pauline King of Ontario returned home Saturday evening after a 1,338 mile trip. They were gone one week.

First they all attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Don Payne at Klamath Falls. A garden wedding with reception. They spent two days at the "Lake of the Woods" near Klamath Falls. One night was spent with Mrs. Norman Harp at Salem and one night with Mr. and Mrs. Vance Welty and family of Dallas, Oregon. They visited Laura and Jim King at Corvallis and later went to the Coast for a picnic.

There were now ten in the group from those where they had visited. They went to Pacific City and watched the dory boats come in and go out. It was really exciting as the waves were high, and they went real fast. They saw a fellow with a kite flying off a high cliff near Pacific City. In Milwaukie, Oregon, they spent one night with Russ and Margarete Coffman. In Oregon City they visited Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Butler and girls.

A group of the Hostess at Portland where they visited took them to the Zoo. It was beautiful along the Coast that day, you did not need a sweater. They saw so many interesting animals. It was a wonderful trip for all.

Sunday after church, I saw Hermann heading towards me. The best defense is a good offense, so I beat him to the draw!

"Hermann Joiner!! Good to see you! I need to ask you a big favor!! (He reeled) You see, we need someone to head up our financial drive. (He was against the ropes) I really think you could do it! (He was down for the count...) I'll give you all the verbal support I can, and..." "Are you kidding?!" "Herm was stammering. "I'm no good at getting money out of anyone! Why, (shyly chuckling) I only kick, 'er I mean, put in a dollar a week myself!"

As I walked home, without a chairman for the drive, I marveled at how blind we often are to our God-given strengths and talents. We can't see what's so obvious to others. Almost at the back door, a cock-a-poo jumped me. It seems I'd broken the wrong chain....

Pollyanna Club

The Pollyanna Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dale Witt with Mrs. Marge Ervin as co-hostess. Ten members were present and one guest, Mrs. Hazel Chamberlain.

Mrs. Ervin, president, presided at the meeting. Roll call was answered by each member reading a joke. Mrs. Mary Laan gave the secretary-treasurer report in the absence of Mrs. Ray White. Plans were made for the club ladies to do something helpful for the nursing home in Nyssa next year. Old and new business was discussed and the meeting adjourned.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Irma Begeman with Hazel Schafer as co-hostess.

Our Field Trip

On September 25, at 9 a.m. the fifth grade classes of Don Baker, Mrs. Elaine Nelson, Miss Christine McPike and Mrs. Jan Wilson, went to Fort Boise, by the Snake River for a field trip. When we got there we all started to explore. We found a pond where we saw animal tracks. Mrs. Wilson, my teacher, brought some plaster in case we found tracks. We did! We made prints of deer, raccoon and we think a heron bird tracks.

Some kids brought back some stems of plants which showed teeth marks of being chewed by animals. Kim Scarbraugh found some dried out grasshopper skins.

We looked at the Fort Boise monument by the river. Fort Boise is now under water because the river channel changed.

We ate our lunches by the river and explored around more before we returned to school.
