

Martin-McMullen United In Double-Ring Ceremony

The Owyhee Community Church was the scene of a wedding September 13, 1975 uniting Linda Martin of Nyssa and Ervin McMullen of Eugene. The church was decorated with bouquets of fall flowers and candelabras. The double-ring ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Fred Moxom in the presence of 100 guests. Organ selections were provided by Mrs. Fred Moxom.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Martin of Owyhee Junction and Mr. and Mrs. T. P. McMullen of Applegate, California.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a wedding gown of candlelight organza. The gown featured a high neckline and victorian sleeves. The skirt was accented with a Chantilly lace ruffle that formed a chapel train in back. Her mantilla chapel length veil was edged with Chantilly lace. She carried a cascading bouquet in the fall colors of orange, yellow and bronze.

Grandmothers of the bride, Mrs. Edith Semmens and Mrs. Viola Martin both of Nyssa, were matrons of honor. They wore street-length dresses of orange

Traditional Ceremony Unites Serrano-Guillen

In a traditional wedding ceremony, symbolic of their country, Miss Angie Serrano became the bride of Larry Guillen. A wedding rope was placed around the shoulders of the bride and groom, a symbol of a traditional Mexican custom, used during the ceremony.

Large baskets of gladioli decorated St. Bridget's Catholic Church in Nyssa for the 11 a.m., double-ring rites, solemnized August 2, 1975, by Father Robert Simard in the presence of 500 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enrique F. Serrano of Nyssa. Mr. Moises Reyes and Mrs. Dolores Guillen of Twin Falls, Idaho are the parents of the groom.

Providing the wedding music was Mrs. Ruth McGinley.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a beautiful white bridal gown of satin and lace. The bride designed her gown and was made by "The House of New Fashions" of Nueva Rosita, Coah, Mexico. The bodice and skirt were enhanced with lace embroidery, trimmed with seed pearls. Matching her dress, was her full cathedral length veil edged with lace embroidery.

Her headpiece, and bridal bouquet, made of Azahares, a waxed orange blossom, blown crystal and pearls, all imported from Mexico.

Maid of honor was Letecia Serrano. Matron of honor and best man were Mr. and Mrs. Donescio Benauides. Letecia wore a white sheer over polyester with a chiffon bolero, and carried a basket. Bridesmaids were Mary Livas, Rebecca Menlender, Yolanda and Zolita Garcia, Silvia Serrano, Lucy Soliz, Silvia Abregon, Letecia Ramirez and Elosia Pena. They wore gowns identical to the other attendants but green in color and carried a bouquet of artificial flowers. They each wore a green hat.

The train was held by Nora Fuentes and Donescio Benauides, Jr.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Serrano wore a blue two piece polyester gown. The groom's mother chose a green polyester gown with lace trimming. They both wore matching corsages. The wedding cake was sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grimaldo.

Those helping with the reception that immediately followed the ceremony in the St. Bridget's Parish Hall were: Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Mena, Mr. and Mrs. Antero Alaniz, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Juan Perez, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Soliz, Ramon Galindo, Raul Ramirez, Francisco Lopez, Grabiell Ribera, Mario Nunez, Enrique Serrano, Jr., Juan Lopez, Lupe Olivera, Sandra Serrano, Gonzalo Escobedo, Teodoro Castellano, Juan Santibhan, Hector Deleon, Beto Fuentes, Rogelio Garza.

After the reception, the dance followed, at the TVCC gymnasium. Two bands played which included a local band "La Deligencia" and "Mucho," from California.

The bride graduated from Nyssa High School and attended TVCC for two years and later received a bachelors degree in education with a minor in biculture Spanish at Eastern Oregon State College in La Grande. She is presently employed at Lake View Elementary School.

The groom graduated from Brawley Union High School, Brawley, Calif. in 1968. He attended two years at College of Southern Idaho in Twin Falls, then enlisted for three years in the Air Force in Spain. He is currently employed by the Idaho Migrant Council in Caldwell.

The couple honeymooned in Mazatlan, Mexico. For going a way outfit, the bride chose a pink nylon gown.

First National Bank offers farmers specialized assistance.

Loan Officer Jim Gardner and Doug Pfeiler discuss plans for next year's crop needs and farming objectives.

At First National Bank, we believe that providing service to row crop farmers like Doug Pfeiler is more than a day-to-day job. Greater productivity requires long-range financial planning and specialized assistance in today's complex agribusiness.

That's why First National Bank offers farm operating line or "ag line." It's a convenient and practical finance program arranged in advance to meet your individualized farming needs. And, it also frees you to concentrate on the actual growing and harvesting of your crops.

With First National Bank's ag line, you estimate the costs of your operation for such items as seed, fertilizer, chemicals, fuel, labor and repairs for next season. Then we determine how much money you'll need for each month of that period. As with all First National loans, repayment is planned for your convenience.

Reap the advantages of First National Bank's ag line. You'll find a team of specialists at our Nyssa branch...dedicated, capable people like Branch Manager George Craig or Loan Officer Jim Gardner...ready to assist you with your farming objectives for next year. Now's the time to start.

We'd like to get to know you.
