

Natural Foods — Cheese and Apples, Go Together Beautifully

Cheese 'N' Apple Treats Fresh from Country Kitchen

Some foods just go together naturally. Like smooth, mellow cheese and crisp, tart apples. Both native products of Oregon's bountiful dairylands and orchards, cheese and apples have always been a favorite cooking combination in country kitchens. To fill your kitchen with the mouth watering aroma of homebaking here are two new ideas featuring the delicious duo. The luscious apple flan has a tender crust rich with a whole cup of cheddar cheese while the tasty quick bread is flavored with sharp cheddar cheese, cinnamon and cloves. Both made-from-scratch recipes are short and uncomplicated, calling for basic on hand ingredients. Besides lending flavor and moistness, the cheese contributes high quality protein, calcium and vitamin A to make these goodies good for you, too.

...for a simple dessert serve this easy bread with a glass of wine

CHEESE AND APPLE FLAN

- 1 cup flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 6 tablespoons butter
- 1 cup grated cheddar cheese
- Streusel Topping
- 3 medium tart apples
- Lemon juice
- Melted butter

Mix flour and salt. Beat in butter until crumbly. Mix in cheese and continue beating until mixture forms dough. Roll out on floured surface to 12-inch circle. Slide baking sheet under dough, transferring carefully. Fold up edge of dough to form 1/2-inch border. Sprinkle with half of Streusel Topping. Pare apples, slice thinly and coat with lemon juice. Arrange in attractive pattern on dough. Brush with melted butter. Sprinkle with remaining Streusel Topping. Bake in 450 deg. oven 30 minutes or until apples are tender. Makes 8 servings.

Streusel Topping: Mix 1/2 cup brown sugar (packed), 1/2 cup flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon and 1/4 cup butter until crumbly and moist.

QUICK APPLE CHEESE BREAD

- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 tart apple, grated
- 1/2 cup grated sharp cheddar cheese
- 2 cups flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon cloves
- 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
- 3 tablespoons milk

Beat butter and sugar together until creamy. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Stir in apple and cheese. Mix flour, baking powder, salt, cloves and cinnamon. Stir into batter alternately with milk. Turn into greased and floured 8 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 2 1/2-inch loaf pan. Bake in 350 deg. oven 50 to 55 minutes or until pick inserted into center comes out dry. Let stand in pan ten minutes. Invert onto rack to finish cooling. Makes 1 loaf.

Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyn Dohner

Pays to stay by the old phone and try a little harder sometimes: Caught Mary Grasmick and joyfully got the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grasmick recently returned from Europe where, on a three-week tour they visited Sweden, Finland, Poland, East and West Germany, and Russia.

For Grasmicks, the trip was truly nostalgic, a trip into the past, exploring their origins. Their parents, all Germans from Russia, came to St. Anthony, Idaho, and here Bill and Mary, as preschoolers, first got acquainted, and here, at 18 and 20, they were wed, and for a number of years lived in Nu Acres, building up their dairy farm.

Now the urge to visit the land of their parents' birth led them to select this tour. With them, by chance, went Bert and Maudie Owens, whose companionship made the trip even more enjoyable.

In Russia they found little villages near where their parents must have lived, and they were as they had heard them described. They saw villagers lead their cows to pasture, one or two at a time. They were clad in the quaint costumes Mary remembered her mother to have worn.

To illustrate the prices sometimes charged tourists, she said at one time the Owens' and Grasmicks' decided to leave the tour and have lunch together on their own. The meal for the four of them came to $40. And this was just lunch.

Two years ago the Grasmicks toured the Holy Land on a trip designed to follow the journeys of the Apostle Paul. The trip was cut short by war in Jerusalem and they never reached the Holy City.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans attended a Lay Witness Mission at the Nampa Christian church last weekend, staying with Mr. and Mrs. Varlie Pitman.

"Nothing new under the sun," Solomon said. Not much new in Nu Acres. The 4-H crowd planned a hay ride for Halloween but canceled it when they feared the weather would be bad. Weather that night was lovely!

We laid in our yearly supply of treats but no one showed up to claim them. Carol Weaver said her boys were too busy, too late with milking, and that only two trick-treaters showed up at their place. Either way, its a half mile on a bumpy road, and maybe we old fuddy-duddies wouldn't even know about Halloween.

Ah, but we remember! I was just beyond the time of pushing over out-houses and too early for trick or treating. In Los Angeles, the big city playground near us had a party every year with all kinds of fun and games and everyone in costume. Mostly we were pirates or gypsies. You saved up tramp for your mid-year hard-luck party.

Crime wasn't rampant then and I can only remember one year, way back in Iowa, when a weirdo scared me good, and he didn't get too close!

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Wilson and daughters of Molalla, Oregon, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson over the weekend. George Wilson was hospitalized and ill but returned home Monday morning.

While in Nu Acres, the Delbert Wilson family also visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Wilderson of Emmett were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne last Friday night.

Visiting Paynes Sunday night were Mr. and Mrs. Syl Woodland of Arena Valley. Other visitors in their home were Mr. and Mrs. Hank Servant of Riddle, Oregon.

That first real cold night couldn't leave the three cats out in the patio to freeze so put them in the bathroom for the night. Next day George was real willing and eager to fix them their own sleeping quarters. He built a cute little house, roofed over and sided, made on top of an old drawer. He's not sure why I prefer to call it a bed. Anyhow, the cats all three sleep there, snug and warm, on the patio.

Chickens are letting up in the egg laying department. Friend told me she puts a hatchet out by the chicken house this time of year. It tells those cackling chickens to start laying, stop laying, or they'll be frying! Now, if George would just get over his squeemishness. He goes out there, and they all gather around him like a gang of loving conspirators. He can't see himself in the role of a turncoat, shopping off their heads.

Adrian Teacher Of the Week

JAMES PHELPS, 6th GRADE TEACHER, is Adrian's Teacher of the Week. Phelps has been teaching for 20 years and has been with Adrian Schools for ten years. He has a wife Dorothy and five children, Josephine, a senior at Adrian High Bill in the U. S. Navy in Japan; Barbara in Marsing; John in Montana and David in Adrian and three granddaughters.

James Phelps spends many hours teaching youngsters how to play chess. He presently has a chess team of four working toward the Chess Tournament to be held at the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry (OMSI) in Portland next March 12 to 14. The tournament is sponsored by the Oregon Chess Federation.

One of Mr. Phelps' fifth graders, Mark Witty, won the title of Champion Chess Player last March. He competed against 26 other players from Oregon.

New Veterans Urged To Apply For Benefits

Each of the 50,000 men and women leaving military service every month can expect at least five Veterans Administration communications within six months of their separation date.

Upon notification by the Department of Defense of termination of active duty under conditions other than dishonorable, the VA tells the new veteran of his eligibility for benefits, according to Mrs. Donna M. Arndt, director of the Portland VA Regional Office.

The veteran is urged to contact the nearest VA regional office or a representative of a veterans' service organization for complete application procedures.

"Separate communications are sent to veterans providing them with GI Loan Certificates of Eligibility for homes, condominiums and mobile homes and also information on insurance and educational programs, Mrs. Arndt explained.

"Six months after release from the military, veterans receive a follow-up VA letter, again reviewing the veterans' benefits timetable. Particular emphasis is given to those benefits which require application within a year of separation."

Can You Guess Our "Mystery Merchant" for $24⁰⁰

MYSTERY MERCHANT WINNER

DON SOMERS won $24 this week just for guessing the Mystery Merchant, George W. Patterson and six clues. Don, left, was happy to receive a check Monday evening from Reed Ray of Ray's Food Fair.

This week's pot will again be $24 and the entry box will be at Gamble's. Entries will be accepted until 4 p.m., Monday. All you have to do is guess the merchant and find a certain number of clues.

WHERE TO LOOK FOR CLUES

Clues may be hidden in ANY AD IN THIS SECTION. When a star appears in any of these ads, it means that additional advertising of that firm appears elsewhere in this issue of the paper and additional clues may also be hidden in any of those ads as well.

Clues will be scattered...there may be from one to five in any ad - or none. This is a contest of skills - and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We invite you to do your best to outwit us!

CONTEST RULES

1. This is a family fun contest! One entry per person (family of four could submit four entries.) Anyone may enter UNLESS a member of your family is employed by the Gate City Journal or by the merchant whose ad is heavily bordered in this section. (This applies ONLY during the week this ad is bordered.) Employees of other sponsoring merchants ARE eligible.
2. Nothing to buy - use any slip of paper for entry blank. Not necessary to be present to win. Not necessary to be a subscriber to the Gate City Journal to enter.
3. WHO'S WHO may be anyone in the Nyssa area. Clues for his or her identity will be hidden ONLY in ads for sponsoring merchants (see "Where to look for Clues" above.) If by coincidence, the name of the WHO'S WHO (or other facts about him or her) happens to appear in news items, editorial matter or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues in this contest.
4. To enter, write down the name you think WHO'S WHO is. Add the total number of clues you can find in ALL the ads of sponsoring merchants in this issue. You do not have to list all these clues - just give the total number of them. Don't forget to add your name and address. Then, drop your entry in the box located at the sponsoring merchant, whose ad is bordered in this section of this issue.
5. There is no other place where entries will be accepted. Any member of the family may bring in all the entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.
6. This week's contest starts when you receive this issue and closes at 4 p.m. Monday of the following week.
7. At that time (4 p.m. next Monday) a drawing will be held at the store where entries have been received for this week's contest. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies WHO'S WHO will win $10. If THAT entry also lists the correct total number of clues hidden in all ads of sponsoring merchants, a BONUS OF $14.00 will be paid. Whenever this BONUS is not won, it will be added to next week's BONUS - which will continue to grow until it is won!
8. Every possible precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but errorless typography CANNOT BE GUARANTEED (by anyone). The publisher of the Gate City Journal will be judge in all questions and his decision is final. Family participation gives you a better chance to win the jackpot...your wife, husband or youngster MAY spot a clue that you miss!

Remember, you can't win if you don't enter!
