Bye Lanes Recreation Center

Your Family Fun Center
Ask for Jack Sather

According to the American Bowling Congress, ten to fifteen million men, women and children in this country are active bowlers.

If you haven't yet tried this healthful and wholesome form of recreation, it's time you visited the Bye Lanes Recreation Center in Ontario.

Many enjoy fun and exercise as they roll bowling balls toward the pins, hopefully trying to knock them all down at once. Even when the ball goes in the gutter, bowlers are happy people enjoying their favorite game. They have certified instructors as well as a complete pro shop for your every bowling need.

The air-conditioned building has a snack bar to make breaks between games more enjoyable. There is also a billiard and game room for those who don't bowl or just want a change.

Drive right up and leave your car outside. They are located at 1377 Southwest 4th Avenue in Ontario. A telephone call to 889-5512 will reserve space for the entire group.

We are proud to include this outstanding family fun center in this Review.
