

Barbara Kuester—Jim Kile
Exchange Nov. Wedding Vows

Miss Barbara Kuester of Ontario became the bride of Jim Kile of Colfax, Washington, in a double-ring ceremony performed at 7 p.m., Saturday, November 8, 1975 in the First Christian Church in Ontario. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Elderage in the presence of approximately 200 guests.

Bouquets of wheat and dried chrysanthemums, hanging ferns and candelabras decorated the church. Soloist was Tom Howe, accompanied by Ron Palmer.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Manser of Ontario and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kile of St. John, Washington.

The bride, given in marriage by Bill Manser, chose a gown of Champagne eyelet lace accented with cocoa brown velvet sash and bow. The gown was styled with a v-neckline, short sleeves and skirt was fashioned with three tiers of eyelet lace. Her chapel-length veil was held to a bow headpiece. She carried a bouquet of large orchids.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Carol Ceniga of Ontario. She wore a floor-length gown of yellow jersey and carried a bouquet of dried flowers in fall colors, centered with a candle. Bridesmaids were Nancy Fike, Seattle; Juanita Finger, Malita Roach and Linda Magnuson, all of How's Your Hearing?

Free electronic hearing tests will be given at the Nyssa Service Center, 116 Ehrgood Avenue, on Friday, November 28 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Factory-trained hearing aid specialists will be at the Nyssa Service Center to perform the tests.

Anyone who has trouble hearing or understanding is welcome to have a test using the latest electronic equipment to determine his or her particular loss. Diagrams showing how the ear works and some of the causes of hearing loss will be available.

Everyone should have a hearing test at least once a year if there is any trouble at all hearing clearly. Even people now wearing a hearing aid or those who have been told nothing could be done for them should have a hearing test and find out about the latest methods of hearing correction.

The free hearing tests will be given at the Nyssa Service Center, 116 Ehrgood Avenue, Nyssa, Friday, November 28. If you can't get there on Friday, call 889-3864 for an appointment at another time.
