

Blue and Yellow, Theme Of Falen - Moore Rites

Repeating vows Saturday, January 3, 1976, at Deer Flat Free Methodist Church in Caldwell, were Carol Inene Falen of Caldwell and Frank Lynn Moore of Nysa. Officiating at the 7:30 p.m. double-ring ceremony was the Rev. James McMillan of the Free Methodist Church.

The church was decorated with large tree candelabras, centered with blue and white carnations and chrysanthemums. Decorating the altar were evergreen boughs and large white and pastel blue candles.

Soloist was Janiece Tolmie accompanied by Susan Griffiths. Mrs. James McMillan furnished the organ music.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Falen of Route 6, Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Max L. Moore of Route 2, Nysa.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white taffeta with an organza overlay. The gown was styled with a high neckline and the round yoke front and bouffant sleeves were enhanced with white cotton lace and seed pearls. The full skirt formed a chapel train in back. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was held to a headpiece of cotton lace, accented with seed pearls and satin bows. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations, centered with a large white orchid and white velvet streamers.

Maid of honor was Linda Youngers. Bridesmaids were Terrill Starr and Christine Spencer. They wore floor-length gowns of pastel blue satin brocade, accented with seed pearl trim and white gloves. Each carried a single long-stemmed yellow rose.

Candlelighters were Patty Rule and Holly Batt, who also served as bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to that of the other attendants but of pastel yellow satin brocade. They carried nosegays of pastel blue mums and yellow carnations. All attendants wore matching white chokers.

Serving as best man was Jack Moore. Groomsmen were Dean Sappe, Larry Falen and Joe Falen. All four gentlemen also served as ushers. The groom and his attendants wore pastel blue tux jackets with black pants and white ruffled shirts.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length gown of gold crepe accented with pearl trim. Mother of the bridegroom was attired in a floor-length gown of blue crepe with a matching jacket. Their corsages were a single large orchid.

Can You Guess Our

"Mystery Merchant" for $24⁰⁰ ?

WHERE TO LOOK FOR CLUES

Clues may be hidden in ANY AD IN THIS SECTION. When a star appears in any of these ads, it means that additional advertising of that firm appears elsewhere in this issue of the paper and additional clues may also be hidden in any of those ads as well.

Clues will be scattered...there may be from one to five in any ad - or none. This is a contest of skills - and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We invite you to do your best to outwit us!

CONTEST RULES

1. This is a family fun contest! One entry per person (family of four could submit four entries.) Anyone may enter UNLESS a member of your family is employed by the Gate City Journal or by the merchant whose ad is heavily bordered in this section. (This applies ONLY during the week this ad is bordered.) Employees of other sponsoring merchants ARE eligible.

2. Nothing to buy - use any slip of paper for entry blank. Not necessary to be present to win. Not necessary to be a subscriber to the Gate City Journal to enter.

3. WHO'S WHO may be anyone in the Nysa area. Clues for his or her identity will be hidden ONLY in ads for sponsoring merchants (see "Where to look for Clues" above.) If by coincidence, the name of the WHO'S WHO (or other facts about him or her) happens to appear in news items, editorial matter or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues in this contest.

4. To enter, write down the name you think WHO'S WHO is. Add the total number of clues you can find in ALL the ads of sponsoring merchants in this issue. You do not have to list all these clues - just give the total number of them. Don't forget to add your name and address. Then, drop your entry in the box located at the sponsoring merchant, whose ad is bordered in this section of this issue.

5. There is no other place where entries will be accepted. Any member of the family may bring in all the entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

6. This week's contest starts when you receive this issue and closes at 4 p.m. Monday of the following week.

7. At that time (4 p.m. next Monday) a drawing will be held at the store where entries have been received for this week's contest. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies WHO'S WHO will win $10. If THAT entry also lists the correct total number of clues hidden in all ads of sponsoring merchants, a BONUS OF $14.00 will be paid. Whenever this BONUS is not won, it will be added to next week's BONUS - which will continue to grow until it is won!

8. Every possible precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but errorless typography CANNOT BE GUARANTEED (by anyone) The publisher of the Gate City Journal will be judge in all questions and his decision is final.

Family participation gives you a better chance to win the jackpot...your wife, husband or youngster MAY spot a clue that you miss!

Remember, you can't win if you don't enter!

MYSTERY MERCHANT WINNER

HAROLD KURTZ, right, Route 2, Nysa, was the lucky winner this week of the Mystery Merchant contest. Harold is $24 richer for guessing the Mystery Merchant, Cecil Morrison, Jr. and for giving the correct number of clues which was 6. He received his check Tuesday morning from Ron Prun of Ron's Shell Service. There were 90 entries this week with over half with correct answers.

Prize money remains at $24 and the box will be at Owyhee Truck and Implement Co. until 4 p.m. Monday. You are allowed one entry for each family member. Remember, you can't win if you don't enter.
