

Sr. Citizens To Sell Paperweights

Mrs. May Bretz, Mrs. Nellie Jenkins and Mrs. Anna Marostica of the Nyssa Senior Citizens will be selling Bicentennial paperweights next week. This is one of the Senior Citizens' Bicentennial projects for this, the year of our Nation's 200th birthday.

Sr. Citizens

Make Decisions

Ten Senior Citizens attended the Great Decisions class, "Arabs and Israel," at the Nyssa Clubhouse, Monday, February 9.

These classes will deal with foreign policy and many issues prominent in our daily news. Any Senior Citizen that is interested may attend these classes at the Nyssa Senior Citizens' Club House on Bower Avenue, Monday mornings at 10 a.m.

The beautiful and brightly colored Oregon Bicentennial emblem is set into a piece of Italian marble and sells for $5.00.

Stardusters met at the home of Gladys Newbill on February 9, with Myrtle Sasser, president presiding. The fourteen members present, answered roll call.

The pillowcases for the bazaar were distributed and other plans were discussed.

Following the adjournment of the meeting, everyone made Valentine tray favors for the nursing home.

Hostesses Gladys Newbill and Nora Graham served lovely refreshments. The next meeting will be March 8 with hostesses Jessie Brown and Vera Webb.

AN UNUSUAL DISPLAY

at the Nyssa Public Library for the month of February, features the artistry of Mary Harden in taxidermy and oil paintings.

Mrs. Harden, a native of Kansas has lived many years in Alaska, and while there she learned taxidermy. She now resides in Nyssa with her family and is employed as a dispatcher for the Nyssa Police. She started painting in 1971 when a back injury limited her activities. Mrs. Harden is self-taught, and among her paintings are various scenes of Alaska. Some of her paintings are: "Chilkoot Lake" and "Battery Point," "Alaska," and "Homestead in the Steen Mountains." (shown above).

Her taxidermy display includes two pheasants, a Merganser duck, (at left) and a barn owl in winter colors. This display may be viewed during regular library hours.

Owyhee Garden Club

All Owyhee Garden Club members are asked to bring two dozen cookies by 9 a.m. Friday, February 13 to the Malheur Memorial Nursing Home. The "Cookie Party" for the nursing home residents will begin at 10 a.m.

Hold it up. And compare it to U.S. Bank's. Our basic Only Account includes all the things you see in this ad for probably the same amount of money many people pay for a checking account alone. Three dollars a month.

Now, with credit or without.

If you'd like our basic Only Account, all we need is your signature. It's that simple to get.

Of course, you can still get the Only Account with check cashing and U-Bank options, if you like. But you'll have to fill out a credit application. Once it's approved, we'll cash checks up to $100.00 with no questions asked. This card is also your key to U-Bank which lets you bank 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Or, you can get the Only Account with a U.S. BankAmericard®. It includes all the services we've talked about plus our Automatic Cash Transfer. Once your application is approved, we'll automatically advance funds from your BankAmericard account (up to your approved credit limit) when you need to write a check for more than the balance in your account.

Chances are, your checking account didn't hold up very well to this ad. If not, maybe you should turn it in to U.S. Bank and let us turn it into an Only Account.

THE ONLY ACCOUNT. IN NYSSA, ONLY AT U.S. BANK.
