

Vets And Widows Must Apply For Exemptions

Disabled war veterans and veterans' widows must apply for their annual Oregon property tax exemptions by April 1, the Department of Veterans' Affairs cautioned today. Application is filed with the county assessor.

H. C. Saalfeld, Veterans' Affairs director, said the exemption amounts to $7,500 of the true cash value of the property. Entitled are war veterans 40 percent or more disabled, and unremarried widows of war veterans.

Saalfeld said this is not an automatic exemption. Even though an exemption was granted last year, the property owner must file a new application to be considered for the exemption this year.

If the taxpayer still has property tax to pay on his residence after the veterans' exemption, and has an income of less than $15,000 a year, he may be eligible for a refund under the homeowners and renters property tax refund program. Application for this benefit must be filed by April 15 with the Department of Revenue.

Paiute Indians Receive Grant

Congressman Al Ulman (D Second District) announced today that the Burns Paiute reservation has won a grant of $218,000 from the Economic Development Administration.

The funds cover the entire construction costs for a tribal administration building and cultural center at Burns. In full operation, the center will serve as a focal point for programs for improved job skills, industrial planning, and cultural and public health activities.

"This grant answers a long-felt need to stimulate economic development and create jobs on the reservation," said Ulman, "and one that has become particularly acute during the last year's downturn."

Funds for construction purposes are available immediately.

Hot Bubbly Casseroles Feature Cheese and Crab

Cheddar and romano cheeses give entree special flavor

A classy casserole is the obvious answer for carefree hosting and party planning. Natural cheese is probably the most useful and best liked ingredient to be found in casserole cookery. It melts smoothly with mellow flavor and gives off a tantalizing aroma sure to arouse any appetite. It also gives moistness and softness to any dish and blends into beautiful, creamy sauces. Cheddar and romano - one of the popular Italian type cheeses - go into these savory crab and artichoke casseroles. Other popular Italian type cheeses that are especially appropriate with all kinds of pastas and dress up almost any baked main dish include Parmesan, Provolone and Mozzarella.

BAKED CHEESE AND CRAB
½ cup shell macaroni
Boiling salted water

2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon paprika
¼ teaspoon salt
Pinch pepper
1½ cups milk
1 (7½-ounce) can Alaska King crab
1 (8½-ounce) can artichoke hearts
¼ cup sherry
¼ cup grated romano cheese
1 cup grated cheddar cheese

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water as package directs. Drain. Saute onion in butter 2 minutes. Blend in flour, paprika, salt and pepper. Stir in milk. Cook, stirring until mixture thickens and comes to boil. Mix in crab, artichokes, macaroni, wine, romano cheese and ½ cup cheddar cheese. Turn into 4 individual casseroles. Sprinkle with remaining cheddar cheese. Bake in 400 degree oven 15 minutes or until hot and bubbly. Makes 4 servings.

Lawn Control Featured Topic

Billbug control and crab-grass control in home lawns will be featured topics at educational meetings planned in Ontario, Nyssa, and Vale for late February and early March by Malheur County Extension agents.

The time and location of each meeting is as follows: Ontario, February 24, 7:30 p.m. at the Fairgrounds; Nyssa, February 26, 7:30 p.m. at the multipurpose room in the elementary school; Vale, March 4, 7:30 p.m. at the Grange Hall.

Dr. Charles Stanger, Malheur Experiment Station researcher will cover weed control recommendations and Extension Agents, Jim Burr and Oris Rudd will discuss insect control and general lawn management suggestions.

The meeting is open to all interested persons. The same subject matter will be presented at each of the three sessions.

Rex Nichols and Jay attended the State Wrestling meet at Pocatello on Friday and Saturday.

Can You Guess Our "Mystery Merchant" for $24.00?

WHERE TO LOOK FOR CLUES

Clues may be hidden in ANY AD IN THIS SECTION. When a star appears in any of these ads, it means that additional advertising of that firm appears elsewhere in this issue of the paper and additional clues may also be hidden in any of those ads as well.

Clues will be scattered...there may be from one to five in any ad - or none. This is a contest of skills - and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We invite you to do your best to outwit us!

CONTEST RULES

1. This is a family fun contest! One entry per person (family of four could submit four entries.) Anyone may enter UNLESS a member of your family is employed by the Gate City Journal or by the merchant whose ad is heavily bordered in this section. (This applies ONLY during the week this ad is bordered.) Employees of other sponsoring merchants ARE eligible.
2. Nothing to buy - use any slip of paper for entry blank. Not necessary to be present to win. Not necessary to be a subscriber to the Gate City Journal to enter.
3. WHO'S WHO may be anyone in the Nyssa area. Clues for his or her identity will be hidden ONLY in ads for sponsoring merchants (see "Where to look for Clues" above.) If by coincidence, the name of the WHO'S WHO (or other facts about him or her) happens to appear in news items, editorial matter or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues in this contest.
4. To enter, write down the name you think WHO'S WHO is. Add the total number of clues you can find in ALL the ads of sponsoring merchants in this issue. You do not have to list all these clues - just give the total number of them. Don't forget to add your name and address. Then, drop your entry in the box located at the sponsoring merchant, whose ad is bordered in this section of this issue.
5. There is no other place where entries will be accepted. Any member of the family may bring in all the entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.
6. This week's contest starts when you receive this issue and closes at 4 p.m. Monday of the following week.
7. At that time (4 p.m. next Monday) a drawing will be held at the store where entries have been received for this week's contest. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies WHO'S WHO will win $10. If THAT entry also lists the correct total number of clues hidden in all ads of sponsoring merchants, a BONUS OF $14.00 will be paid. Whenever this BONUS is not won, it will be added to next week's BONUS - which will continue to grow until it is won!
8. Every possible precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but errorless typography CANNOT BE GUARANTEED (by anyone). The publisher of the Gate City Journal will be judge in all questions and his decision is final. Family participation gives you a better chance to win the jackpot...your wife, husband or youngster MAY spot a clue that you miss!

Remember, you can't win if you don't enter!
