Fred and Jennie Bennett closed the Twilight Cafe and Lounge at 508 Main, Nyssa, Monday morning and began the move into their new quarters three blocks down the street to 212 Main.

The location was formerly occupied by Michael's Pharmacy until that firm moved into Eder's building. It is owned by Bernard Frost of Payette. He has had the interior completely remodeled to Bennett's specifications to fit in with their all-new, all-electric kitchen and cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Richards, nee Vesper Capper, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary with a family party held on the evening of February 16, 1966 in their home. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. Richard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Capper, and the honorees' daughters, Mrs. Henry (Phyllis) Allen of Ontario, and Janice Richards of the home.

The Nyssa Chamber of Commerce has voted to give a jeep for the use in raising funds for the proposed Malheur Memorial Hospital. The jeep will be given away at a mass meeting tentatively arranged to be held in the Gymnasium May 4.

The machine to be given away is a 1946 Willys civilian model of the well-known army jeep. It has a four-wheel drive and is equipped for a power take off. Its value is $1200. Upon arrival it will be placed on display in the Powell Service Station at Second and Main.

A total of $13,000 in cash and pledges has been raised in the campaign, according to Olean Well, who is acting as treasurer of the drive.

Being buried alive was the experience of Ray Mull Monday morning when a bank at the gravel pit west of Nyssa caved away and literally buried him alive. Only his hand was sticking out and others at the pit came to his rescue and dug him out. He received a broken foot in the experience.

Three others narrowly escaped the same fate, and indeed were covered up to the waist in the cave-in. They were Dave Duggr, Howard Greenup and Herb Lythgoe. Harold Long who was also shoveling with the gang, was the only one who escaped when the bank caved in without warning.

The men were getting gravel for the county. A Chadwick and one of the Swam boys were at the pit getting out a load of gravel and helped in getting the men out of the pile of gravel; as did Archie Howell and Jack Keizer. All of the tools used by the men were lost beneath the pile of dirt and gravel.
