Chess Players Win Honors

Five Adrian Elementary Students traveled to Portland last week to compete with approximately 65 players from the State of Oregon in a Chess Tournament held at the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry (OMSI). Steve Smith won first place and Mark Witt won second place in the individual contests for sixth graders. They each received a $25 bond and a chess board.

Steve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith of Adrian. Mark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Witt of Big Bend.

Other players making the trip were George Martin, Larry Smith and David Nielsen. They were accompanied by James Phelps, chess coach and Mrs. Peggy Nielsen.

Mr. Phelps has been teaching chess for four years and does this during his spare time. Any elementary student interested is welcome to take advantage of these lessons. Mr. Phelps is hoping to get a few girls interested in chess lessons in the near future. He said they plan to hold a District Tournament in Adrian in January. Students also plan to attend an Invitational Chess Tournament in Bend this May.
