

OUT OF THE PAST

10 YEARS AGO
Nyssa's first annual Thunderegg Days event, scheduled for August 3-6 is expected to draw thousands of visitors to town for guided tours into the rock areas and to see the displays of Snake River Gem Clubs.

A Chamber of Commerce committee promoting the event is headed by Harold Brendle with Lloyd Mackrill and Stan McNutt assisting.

20 YEARS AGO
Miss Nannetta Bybee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Bybee of Nyssa was chosen as one of the singers from among 500 applicants to sing with the famed Brigham Young University capella choir. She is now touring with the choir appearing on television and radio broadcasts at Idaho Falls, Billings and other western cities.

30 YEARS AGO
A variety of entertainment numbers centering about the theme "Roses of Picardy" were presented at the annual Cinderella Ball sponsored by the Girls League of Nyssa High School in the gymnasium last Friday night.

40 YEARS AGO
