

KINGMAN KOLONY NEWS

BY DALE WITT PHONE 372-2183

KINGMAN KOLONY - Arriving Saturday afternoon at the Jim Phifer home were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Scott of Culdesac, Mrs. James Scott of Lewiston and Miss Jeannette Martin of Clarkston. Joining the group for evening dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Freitag and family of Nyssa and Mrs. Bill Toomb.

Also joining the above group at the Jim Phifer home Sunday for an early Easter dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Parker of Adrian and Mary Hatt of Owyhee Corners.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Radford and family were Sunday evening dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ervin.

Mrs. Earl Ervin called on Mr. and Mrs. Joe Castro Saturday afternoon and saw their new baby girl Naomi Jo.

Word was received that Raymond Price had a massive stroke recently and is recuperating. They are living in Parma and are former Kingman Kolony residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gehrke were Saturday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Conant.

Mrs. Myron Osborn went to Emmett Tuesday and took her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cearley to Ontario to see their doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Herring of Pasco brought Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Osborn home Saturday, they had spent the past four months visiting there and with their daughter Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cox in Kenewick. The Herring's returned home on Sunday.

Elisabeth and Jeffery Rhoades, children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rhoades have the measles.

Mrs. Genetty Piercy attended the Happy Dozen Card Club which met at the home of Mrs. Thelma Hammon on Ontario Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Earl Kygar went with her daughter Sharon Gordon to Portland to see her daughter's doctor on Wednesday and returned Thursday evening.

Mrs. Bill Toomb took her sister, Miss Jeanette Martin to Boise Monday to accompany the Vincent Scotts and Mrs. James Scott on their trip home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goodwin of Lake View, Oregon came Friday and spent the weekend with her sister and family, Mrs. Inez Goodwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kygar and family went to the Harold Jenkins home Sunday where they had a birthday dinner honoring Jay. Other guests were Kathy Hay and Mr. and Mrs. Walt McConathy and Brenda.

Jay Kygar went with the Adrian baseball team to Hepner and lone Thursday where they played three games and won them all. They returned on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nedrow called on Mr. and Mrs. Max Mitchell Thursday.

Mrs. Ed Nedrow visited Billy Linville and Mrs. Joe Castro and baby Saturday afternoon.

Jimmie Nedrow and Mike Castro Jr. went fishing at the Owyhee Dam Sunday. Fishing was poor.

Her brother Frank Fry and his wife came down from Nezperce for over the weekend. Mrs. George Gross man and sons, Jesse and Gregory, came from Ellensburg, Washington.

Mrs. Clair Bus with children, Kimberly and Kim came down from Othello, Washington. Mrs. Russell Haggarty of Nu Acres was there and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fry and family came over from Parma.

Another brother, and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jenkins entertained the group at their home in Fruitland. The whole celebration was capped by a dinner for twelve at the Eastside on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Maine, have moved from Modesto, Calif., are settling on the farm of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Maine, and plan to build their own home here in Nu Acres. Mr. Maine plans to continue his education at TVCC and to farm here.

Mrs. Armine Hartman and son Nuby attended a wedding Saturday night at the Presbyterian Church in Roswell where Donna Percz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Percz, of Parma was married to Kirk Berry of Boise.

Saturday week, Mrs. Hartman attended a class on interior decorating conducted by Ron McKnight of Portland at the Rodeway Inn.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Haley of Fruitland. Weekend guests in their home last week were a nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jackson of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne had a birthday dinner Sunday honoring Ben and Mrs. Payne's brother, Bill Newell. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newell, Ken Newell and his mother, Stella Newell, all of Nampa, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Spielman of Emmett, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shaw of Nu Acres.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne visited in Weiser, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bledsoe and their daughter, Mrs. Lou VandeVorde and her son and daughter, Eddie and Lila, who were over from Vancouver visiting the Bledsoes.

The VandeVordes and the Paynes are friends of long standing, the husbands having worked together in the construction business for many years.

came Friday and spent the weekend with her sister and family, Mrs. Inez Goodwin. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kygar and family went to the Harold Jenkins home Sunday where they had a birthday dinner honoring Jay. Other guests were Kathy Hay and Mr. and Mrs. Walt McConathy and Brenda.

Jay Kygar went with the Adrian baseball team to Hepner and lone Thursday where they played three games and won them all. They returned on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nedrow called on Mr. and Mrs. Max Mitchell Thursday.

Mrs. Ed Nedrow visited Billy Linville and Mrs. Joe Castro and baby Saturday afternoon.

Jimmie Nedrow and Mike Castro Jr. went fishing at the Owyhee Dam Sunday. Fishing was poor.

Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyn Dohner

It was a gladsome gathering of the clan at Mrs. Alice Pulsipher's home last week when daughter Lela (Mrs. Maurice Fokken) and her two children, Julie and Jamie, flew in for a few days visit recently, having come via Salt Lake City from her home in Omaha, Nebraska.

All of her brothers and sisters and their kin visited her while here, all but one. Roger Jenkins she saw in Utah, as he lives in Huntsville.

Her brother Frank Fry and his wife came down from Nezperce for over the weekend. Mrs. George Gross man and sons, Jesse and Gregory, came from Ellensburg, Washington.

Mrs. Clair Bus with children, Kimberly and Kim came down from Othello, Washington. Mrs. Russell Haggarty of Nu Acres was there and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fry and family came over from Parma.

Another brother, and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jenkins entertained the group at their home in Fruitland. The whole celebration was capped by a dinner for twelve at the Eastside on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Maine, have moved from Modesto, Calif., are settling on the farm of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Maine, and plan to build their own home here in Nu Acres. Mr. Maine plans to continue his education at TVCC and to farm here.

Mrs. Armine Hartman and son Nuby attended a wedding Saturday night at the Presbyterian Church in Roswell where Donna Percz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Percz, of Parma was married to Kirk Berry of Boise.

Saturday week, Mrs. Hartman attended a class on interior decorating conducted by Ron McKnight of Portland at the Rodeway Inn.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Haley of Fruitland. Weekend guests in their home last week were a nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jackson of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne had a birthday dinner Sunday honoring Ben and Mrs. Payne's brother, Bill Newell. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newell, Ken Newell and his mother, Stella Newell, all of Nampa, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Spielman of Emmett, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shaw of Nu Acres.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne visited in Weiser, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bledsoe and their daughter, Mrs. Lou VandeVorde and her son and daughter, Eddie and Lila, who were over from Vancouver visiting the Bledsoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne had a birthday dinner Sunday honoring Ben and Mrs. Payne's brother, Bill Newell. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newell, Ken Newell and his mother, Stella Newell, all of Nampa, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Spielman of Emmett, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shaw of Nu Acres.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne visited in Weiser, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bledsoe and their daughter, Mrs. Lou VandeVorde and her son and daughter, Eddie and Lila, who were over from Vancouver visiting the Bledsoes.

The VandeVordes and the Paynes are friends of long standing, the husbands having worked together in the construction business for many years.

Swap And Shop Sale For 4-H's

The Malheur County 4-H Horse Advisory Council will sponsor a swap and sell day at the Commercial Building at the Malheur County Fairgrounds, from 12 to 4:30 p.m., Saturday, April 10.

The affair will be open to the public for buying, selling or swapping. Sellers must bring their own display table, price tags, change and must price their own goods. They will be totally responsible for all transactions.

The only materials that may be sold or swapped are horse equipment, tack and riding clothes - English or Western.

Advertisement for Rieb's Foodland featuring various food items and prices. Includes sections for 'WHERE LOYAL SHOPPING EARNS YOU GREATER SAVINGS!!', 'PICNIC STYLE PORK ROASTS... 69¢ LB.', 'CROSS RIB ROASTS $1.39 LB.', 'LEAN PORK STEAK 99¢ LB.', 'FOODSTAMP CUSTOMERS WELCOME!!', 'KLEENEX FACIAL TISSUE 49¢', 'WHEATIES 78¢... 68¢', 'GOLD MEDAL BLEACHED-UNBLEACHED FLOUR 1.39 BAG', 'TREASURE VALLEY SAVE!! LARGE 'AA' EGGS 69¢ DOZEN', 'HERSHEY'S INSTANT MIX 1.49', 'GILETTE TWINJECTOR BLADES 1.44', 'GILETTE TWINJECTOR RAZOR 2.19', 'BRECK SHAMPOO 1.19', 'SOLID CRISP LETTUCE 4/1.00', 'SOLID CRISP 5 LB. BAG CARROTS... 68¢ BAG', 'FRESH PICKED EXTRA FANCY MUSHROOMS... 98¢', 'DONALD DUCK ORANGE QT. JUICE... 49¢', 'APPLES 16/1.00'. Also includes a 'FRIENDLY SERVICE!!' logo and 'FOODLAND' branding.

Activities In Arcadia

ARCADIA - Two beautiful days, Sunday and Monday temperature 74 degrees Monday, Tuesday-rain!

Mrs. Amy Stradley went with the Dail family and the Haney family, Sunday, to New Meadows, where the "Son Shiners" sang at the morning church services.

They all went on to Riggins, where they partook of a potluck dinner and the "Son Shiners" sang for the evening services. They encountered a variety of climate changes on their way.

At New Meadows there was about a foot and a half of snow on the ground and still looked very much like winter. When they got to Riggins, the apricot trees were in full bloom and the forsythia was beautiful.

The church was decorated with huge bouquets of the flowers.

Mrs. Parley Feik visited Mrs. Inga Robbins, Thursday afternoon.

Darlene and Carlene Carroll, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carroll spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carroll.

Henry Carroll plowed the garden for George Moeller, Saturday morning.

Gary and Peggy Neilson and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bullard and family on Sunday.

Todd Cindell spent the weekend with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stephenson.

Clarence and Emma Kesler visited Mrs. Kesler's brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Goodfellow, at Payette, a week ago Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrillean Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Lewellyn Robbins and family of Baker Mr. and Mrs. Norvelle Robbins and family, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Robbins.

Don Bowers, Mark, Brent and David visited a while Saturday evening at the Clyde Bowers home. They had been horseback riding in the sage brush Saturday.

They saw four deer.

A housewarming was held for Jim and Sue Tracy Saturday evening. There were about sixty guests who tried to surprise Jim and Sue. Refreshments were served. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Mike Petersen and Mrs. Chad Olsen.

Otis and Pearl Bullard visited Mrs. Lillian Zittercob and her daughter, Mrs. Harry Thurman, Sunday at Nyssa. Mrs. Thurman is from Baltimore and has been visiting her mother for three weeks.

Mrs. Lillian Zittercob and Mrs. Bertha Matherley took Mrs. Harry Thurman to Boise, Tuesday, where she took a plane for her home in Baltimore.