Mrs. Sam Ferrenburg of Nampa is the extra proud great-grandmother.

TV Garden Clubs Hold Spring Meet

Twenty-two Treasure Valley garden club members journeyed to Baker, Saturday for their spring district meeting. Represented in the group were ANK, Town and Country of Nyssa and Vale, Ontario, Owyhee, and the host club, Baker Garden Club.

Following a business meeting and dinner, the assembly enjoyed a lecture and slides on "Edible Wild Plants" by Jerry Strickler of La Grande. The meeting was held at Sun Ridge Inn.

Special guests present were the president and recording secretary of the Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs, Mrs. Ben D. Andrews and Mrs. Donald Bigelow.

During the business meeting, projects were discussed and yearly reports made on the activities of individual clubs. A state membership was voted for the District Director, presently, Mrs. John Substad, the money from which will go into a scholarship fund.

Each guest was given a lovely house plant to take home. It was voted that a competing flower arrangement would be made up to go to the June convention to be held in Jantzen Beach, Portland.

Those attending from ANK were Mrs. Joe Perez, Mrs. Raymond Poulton, Mrs. Clarence Knight, Mrs. Gordon Judd, Mrs. Cyrus Bock, Mrs. Lee Dail, and Mrs. Garrit Stam.

The Ontario Garden Club was represented by Mrs. Frank Barber, Mrs. G. A. Ireland, and Mrs. Dyre Bennett.

Attending from town and Country Garden Club were Mrs. John Stam, Mrs. Ben Payne, Mrs. William Schireman, Mrs. John Craner, Mrs. Merle Thomson, and Mrs. George Dohner.

The Owyhee Garden Club was represented by Mrs. John Stubstad, Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mrs. Elver Nielsen, Mrs. Frank Holub, and Mrs. Mas Atagi.

The Vale Garden Club was represented by the district assistant director, Mrs. Carleton Fletcher.
