10 YEARS AGO

New officers for Malheur Memorial Hospital auxiliary were installed Monday afternoon during a regular meeting of the group. Mrs. Jake Fischer served as installing officer and conducted the ceremony for Mrs. Jessie Morgan who assumed duties as president; Mrs. Charles Michael, vice president; Mrs. Dick Forbes, secretary; and Mrs. Ralph Lawrence, treasurer.

The women also completed details for the annual dance recital set Friday evening by students of Betty Madge Wilson and sponsored by the auxiliary.

Nysa School Superintendent W. L. McPartland, along with Superintendent Ralph Jones of Grants Pass, will represent Oregon at the 20th annual conference of presidents and executive secretaries of the State Association of School Administrators at Chicago this week.

While in Chicago McPartland plans to visit with Clyde Swisher, who is at the University of Chicago on a John Hay fellowship; and will visit his daughter Barbara at Ann Arbor, Sunday before flying home. Barbara will be graduated this weekend after a year of graduate work at the University of Michigan.

The first meeting of Nysa's newly appointed planning commission was held Wednesday evening, with the group organized to work with the city council in studying needs for the city.

Tenure of office was determined by drawing lots with Fred Bracken and Dale Bingman receiving four-year memberships; Eastman and Albert Heldt, three years; Wilson and John Briebl two years; and Lewis, one year.

The annual Snake River Valley track and field meet for both "A" and "B" schools will be held at the Nysa oval Friday. Athletes will be shooting not only for team honors but to try and beat the 16 class "A" records now in the book. Nysa and Weiser have a corner on most of them, with five each.

Bulldog record holders include Ray 440 in 52.6 set in 1940; 880 yard relay (Royce Chadwick, Bob Wilson, Floyd Hale and Jim Takami 1.33.3 1949; Ray Keck, shot, 48.1 1/2, 1950; Leo Long, javelin, 179.1 1/2, 1950; Ken Toomb, high jump, 6.2 1/2, 1955.

The first German prisoners of war to reach Nysa this season for work on Malheur County farms arrived here Sunday and more were expected today, making a total of 800 for this territory.

Captain E. E. Gaihs, who will be in charge of six prisoner of war camps, said 550 of the 800 will be billeted in the Nysa camp and 250 in the Vale camp.

Plans are nearly completed for the carnival and dance to be held in the Nysa gymnasium Saturday night by the Nysa Lions Club for the benefit of the Malheur Memorial Hospital.

A 1946 Jeep and a $1000 inboard motorboat will be given away. In addition to the carnival features, an auction will be held.

The Eagles lodge will have charge of the refreshments. The American Legion will handle the games and conduct the auction.

40 YEARS AGO

A lively competition among homeseekers is anticipated when the 107 farm units, containing in all 6,289 irrigable acres, is opened on the Mitchell Butte Division of the Owyhee project on May 16th. Twenty-seven farm units containing a total of 1,021 irrigable acres will be opened on the Vale project May 15th.

John C. Page, acting commissioner of Reclamation says the hundreds of inquiries received concerning these lands indicated that all the farm units would be entered shortly after the opening. Inquiries have been received from virtually every state.

The opening of the Owyhee project is the largest single opening offered by the Bureau of Reclamation since 1927.

A committee consisting of County Agent Ray Larson, Frank Morgan, secretary of the Vale-Owyhee Land Settlement Association and R. J. Newell, project engineer, will pass on the qualification of applicants.

50 YEARS AGO

The final hearing on approval of the proceedings for the sale of surplus water from the Warm Springs irrigation district to the government was held before the supreme court at Salem on Tuesday. The district was represented by its attorney, Ed R. Coulter, and by the Board of Directors, R. H. DeArmond, Percy Purvis and Stanley Mallett.

Two county offices are to be filled and voted upon at the coming election, but there is but one candidate for each office. J. D. Billingsley of Ontario is running for state representative from this district. F. T. Morgan, Owyhee rancher, has announced himself as candidate for county commissioner on the Republican ticket, to replace C. H. Osman, retiring commissioner.

Watch Nysa grow. The famous slogan is no joke in Nysa now. The sound of the saw and the hammer is heard in many sections of the city and the year promises the greatest advancement of any similar period since the big boom.

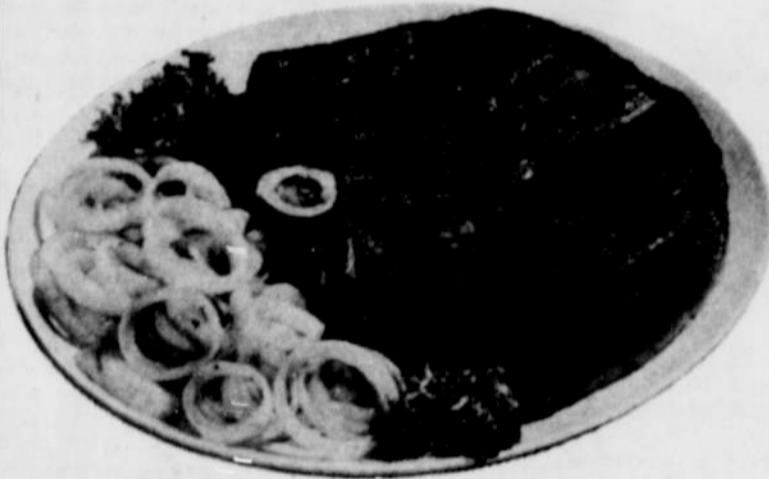

The handsome brick building being erected by Wilson Brothers will be ready for occupancy by June 1. When these enterprising and successful young businessmen open the doors of the building to the public they will not only carry groceries, but will have complete stocks of dry goods and furniture.

Dick Tensen will erect a large building on Main Street, to be occupied by Henry Fields, who has had experience in the garage business in Nysa.

The Cozy Theatre is being remodeled and enlarged at considerable expense, and a stage constructed that will accommodate the best traveling companies.
