PROTECTING YOURSELF AGAINST LOSS

TIPS TO HELP YOU

This information has been supplied by experts at The Society of Chartered Property & Casualty Underwriters, the national professional society whose members have earned the CPCU designation by meeting high educational, ethical and experience requirements.

Q. I recently paid $400 to repair my car after an accident in which I was completely blameless. The other driver was not insured and couldn't pay the $400. My own company paid me $300 because I have $100 deductible collision coverage. Is there any way I can get the other $100?

A. There is, but only if your insurance company can make the other driver pay the whole $400. Then you'll get your $100, less one-sixth of the company's collection costs.
