Nyssa will be thoroughly sprayed with DDT and benzene hexa-chloride early this summer to combat flies, mosquitoes and other insects according to City Manager Middaugh.

Nyssa will field a hardball club this spring under the management and coaching of Hugh Tobbler, long associated with the many successful softball teams which have represented this city.

Players who are expected to work out with the Nyssa team include many past high school stars, present college players and former semi-pro athletes.

Those who have indicated interest include Floyd Hale, Joel Mitchell, Duane Holcomb, Rodney Holcomb, Don Herron, LeRoy Meacham, Dick Pounds, Rich Wilson, Stan Thompson, Don Newbill, Gerald Cox, Larry Schenk, John Siminair, Jack Bowen, Bill Jarrett and Glen Marcum. Bob Church will act as assistant coach, Bob Wilson is lined up as official scorekeeper, Bill Campbell will handle the publicity.

Two little boys lost their lives Sunday afternoon from eating the appetizing, but deadly poison roots of water hemlock, familiarly known as "wild parsnip." The tragedy happened in the Big Bend District about three miles south of the Adrian bridge and took the lives of John, age 12 and Samuel, age 11, sons of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Johannessen, Big Bend residents.

A lively competition among homeseekers is anticipated when the 107 farm units, containing in all, 6,289 irrigable acres, is opened on the Mitchell Butte division of Owyhee project Sunday, May 16.

President Coolidge sees a serious danger to representative government in this country unless the people are aroused from their present lack of interest in public affairs and go to the ballot boxes on election days.

60 YEARS AGO

A bunch of sheep shearers composed of such good men as Jack Lynch and Ira York and a contingent from Boise, will leave for Harper basin Sunday to remove the winter overcoats from the backs of the woolies. They will be chauffeured by Frank Lynch, the famous ford expert, who guaranteed to land them at the camp in time for dinner.

Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyn Dohner

Have you ever wondered about that London Bridge they brought over from England and placed over the Colorado River at Lake Havasu? Like, "Doesn't it look out of place out on the Arizona desert?" Well, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Keck have just returned from there and have a fantastic report.

Seems they've built a little town there, called London City, and have made it, Mrs. Keck said, a "fairy tale place", where a bit of old England is counterfeited. She said they have side-walk cafes, English style cars and buses, tea rooms, shops and even a popcorn wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. Keck took an eight-day trip with their pickup camper down through Utah, Arizona and Nevada during which they visited Bryce Canyon, Zion and Grand Canyon National Parks. At Brigham City, they visited Sherman's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Keck.

In all of their travels, Mrs. Keck said she enjoyed the desert best. At this time of the year, she said, all the flowers are blooming and the weather is pleasantest.

Nu Acres is proud of it's 4-H fellows and girls and especially proud, right now, of the four girls who participated in the Payette county demonstration contest.

Pam and Carole Jones, Debbie Sheffield, and Dawn Hiner each did so well in her presentation that each was awarded a blue-ribbon award! Also, Carole Sue Jones was the happy winner of the Idaho First National Bank award for eight and nine-year-olds.

Mr. Francis Cammann traveled to Portland Friday in order to attend the wedding of JoAnn Anderson to James Dunlap, held Saturday at Milwaukie, Oregon. JoAnn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, Mr. Cammann's cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans were honored by their children Thursday on their forty-second wedding anniversary by a surprise dinner party, at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Russell. Centerpiece for the table was a rose-decorated cake on which was written "Thank You, Lord, For These Forty-Two Years."

Present at the party were Mrs. Alice Pulsipher (whose son Jesse Fry made the cake), Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sager, Miss Janice Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Zeigler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Russell, and the Gerald Russell family.

Cecil and Margaret Evans attended a Lay Witness Mission held by the Baptist Church at Jackson, Wyoming last week. Mrs. Evans said the crowds were so large the meetings had to be held at a convention center.

A delightful part of the trip were visits with their children Sunday night they stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Evans at Massacre Rock State Park near American Falls. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Terry Stigile of Hazelton, Idaho.

Thursday visitors at the home of Francis Cammann were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Kerslake and their three children of Gresham, Oregon.
