A NEW DAIRY PRINCESS was crowned last week in Malheur County. Cindi Osborn, Adrian, outgoing princess, pins the tiara in place for Susan DeLong, Willowcreek.

Susan DeLong Earns Dairy Princess Title

A tall blonde senior at Vale Union High School was crowned Malheur County Dairy Princess in Ontario last week. She is Susan DeLong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley DeLong of Willowcreek.

Susan received her crown from Cindi Osborn, Adrian, outgoing princess.

First runner-up and winner of the congeniality award was also a Vale girl, Patty Philpott. Other contestants were Pam Tanner and Terry Lee Wynn, both of Nyssa.

Jim Harrison, Oregon Dairy Products Commission, was MC and introduced the candidates.

During the deliberation of the judges, Miss Osborn told of her experiences during her year as Princess and Florence Sheldon, Payette, presented a chalk talk with accompaniment provided by Mrs. Jim Phifer of Adrian. Mrs. Kirk Olson and her daughters of Payette sang several numbers.

Miss DeLong will serve as an ambassador for the local dairy industry for the coming year and will be contestant for the state crown next January in Portland.
