

May Wedding Scheduled

TERESA KAY TRAVIS and Steven Mace Pecora have set the date of May 22, 1976 for their wedding to be held in Lewiston, Idaho.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Ester M. Saxton, Fruitland, and Bob Moulton, Lewistown, Montana. She attended New Plymouth High School.

Her fiancé is the son of Lucille Wilson, Nyssa, and Mace Pecora, Bellevue, Washington. He was graduated from Nyssa High School and is employed as an underground cableman in Lewiston. He previously worked for The Amalgamated Sugar Company in Nyssa.

REBEKAHS MEET

Yellow Rose Rebekah Lodge met May 11 at the IOOF Hall with Helen Pittz, noble grand presiding. Fourteen members answered roll call. Good of Order Chairman, Kathleen Wheeler presented a poem, "Glasses Like Grandma, So I Can See Good." Noble Grand then had Kathleen Wheeler escorted to the altar where Rose Toombs presented a poem for her service the past year and Louise Wernick presented her a gift from the Lodge.

The following were presented seals for giving the proficiency work, Nellie Jen-

CARD OF THANKS

Thank you seems inadequate when I try to express my gratitude for the many beautiful cards, flowers, letters and prayers that I received during my hospitalization in Seattle. I didn't know there were so many wonderful and nice people in the city of Nyssa and the surrounding Parma area. My special thanks to each and everyone. Your kindnesses are much appreciated.

Mrs. Adam (Frances) Focht

kins, Emily Clapp, Neta Mae Wiley, Helen Pittz and Louise Wernick. These were presented by Kathleen Wheeler for Marie Riley of Vale who is district deputy. Noble Grand read a poem, "Give Generously and Live Abundantly" by Helen S. Rice.

Hostesses were Beulah Gann and Kathleen Wheeler.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank all my friends in Nyssa and the surrounding area for the gifts, flowers, get-well cards and the many, many letters I received after my accident and up to the present time. I also received a great number of telephone calls while I was in the hospital. These were appreciated more than you'll ever know.

Delegates Go To Meeting

Mrs. Bill Morrison and Mrs. Willis Bertram delegates for the Nyssa Women's Bowling Association, returned Monday from Salem where they attended the state meeting.

W.W. I Barracks Auxiliary # 352

Twenty members of Mailheur Barracks No. 352 of World War I and Auxiliary met for a delicious potluck dinner, followed by business meetings on Sunday, May 16 at the Vale Grange Hall.

Joe Maughn began his duties as Commander and Mabel Thompson presided as newly elected president of the Auxiliary. Birdie Vaughn was installed as secretary by Mary Graves. Edna Beckdolt was chosen as a delegate to the convention in Corvallis in place of Agnes Jordon. President Agnes Jordon will be a delegate of District No. 6.

A letter was read commending the Auxiliary for 50 novels and some goodie bags that were taken to the Veteran's Hospital in Boise by VAVS chairman, Virginia Sandy. She mentioned that they failed to acknowledge 19 magazines which she had also delivered.

In new business the Barracks and Auxiliary made plans to have decorated cars in the 4th of July parade in Vale.

President Mabel Thompson requested that each member present bring a paid-up member to the next meeting. She also asked that each Auxiliary member make an afghan of polyester during the coming year. These will be sent to the Veteran's hospitals in either White City or Boise.

Having a rummage sale to defray expenses of the convention delegates was discussed and finally tabled until a suitable place can be found.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mabel and Earl Thompson, 426 Holland Street, Vale, Sunday, June 20. Bring a covered dish and your own table service.

Don't forget Convention, June 7-8-9-10 at Nendel's Inn at Corvallis.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank my friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers, cards, delicious food, and many kindnesses offered to me during my recent bereavement. Your thoughtfulness was much appreciated.

Cheryl Trick—John Zittercob United In Double Ring Rues

Rites at the Pilgrim Lutheran Church in Ontario united Cheryl Trick and John Zittercob in marriage, January 3, 1976. The Rev. Harry Spaude officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Marlow Trick, Fruitland, and Mrs. Willy (Jane) McConkey, Fruitland, and Gerald Zittercob of Nyssa.

The church was decorated with roses, pink and blue carnations and chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown made of traditional lace decorated with seed pearls at the neckline and on the sleeves. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink roses accented with green fern.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Steve (Kathy) Obray of Fruitland was matron-of-honor and Pamela Hoch, Ontario, was the bridesmaid. They were both dressed in organza gowns and carried bouquets of pink roses, babies breath and white carnations.

Steve Obray, Fruitland, served as best man. Ushers were Jerry Zittercob, Everett Heldt, Nyssa and Ivin Upoff, Vale.

Robin Heitz, dressed in a light pink organza gown, was flower girl and carried a basket of blue daisies and pink roses. Steve Trick, brother of the bride, lighted candles.

Soloist was Mrs. Laurence (Lorraine) Person. She was accompanied by Mrs. Jean Peterson.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony with the Pilgrim Lutheran Church Ladies Aid Society assisting. Mrs. Jerry (Mary) Zittercob and Mrs. Kirk (Jan) Troutner served cake. Bonnie Rhinehart and Mrs. John (Alberta) Rhinehart, cousins of the bride, served cake.

Mrs. Zittercob is a senior at Fruitland High School and attends beauty school in Payette. She is employed by the Red Steer. Her husband is stationed at Kirtland Air Force Base in New Mexico. The bride will join her husband in June and they will live in Albuquerque, New Mexico.
