

Engagement Announced

THE ENGAGEMENT OF MISS JODIE HARPER, of Nampa to Phil Pinckard of Kansas City, Missouri has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Harper of Nampa. Miss Harper is a graduate of Nampa High School and Northwest Nazarene College of Nampa. She teaches eighth grade Math and Science at the Nyssa Junior High School. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert E. Pinckard of Nampa. He is a graduate of Morrisville High School, in Morrisville, Pennsylvania and Olivet Nazarene College in Kanakee, Illinois. He is a student at the Theological Seminary in Kansas City. A July 13 wedding is planned at the Nampa College Church of the Nazarene.

Nursing Home Bingo Games

Bingo games at the nursing home were highlighted last Thursday. Players were served ice cream cones while they played.

This did not seem to distract from the playing nor the player's winning abilities as each one of the eighteen participants was a winner at least once during the morning.

More and different prizes had been donated which added to the enjoyment of selecting prizes. Thanks for the prizes and assistance.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Francis of Nyssa proudly announce the birth of their first child, a son, Robert Damon. The new arrival was born Saturday, May 22, 1970 in St. Luke's Hospital in Boise, Idaho. He weighed in at eight pounds and two ounces and measured twenty two inches in length.

Beaming grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jantz of Lebanon and Mrs. Arlene Francis of Annandale, Virg.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Farr, nee Marilyn Lewis, of Provo, Utah are the proud parents of a baby girl, born Friday, May 14. She was named Katherine and tipped the scales at nine-pounds. She joins three brothers, Jeff, age 7, Jaron, age 5, and Ryan, age 3.

Grandparents are Mrs. Dorothea Mitchell of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Farr, former residents of rural Nyssa, now living in Ogden, Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Scott (Cheryl Young) of Petaluma, California, wish to announce the arrival of their second child, a girl, named Ashley Rexann, who arrived April 29, 1970.

She joins a three-and-a-half-year-old sister, Hayley Rochelle.

Grandparents are Mr. Ralph Young of Route 2, Nyssa and the late Phyllis Young and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Scott of Route 1, Brady, Nebraska.

Former Nyssa Boy Is Lebanon High Graduate

Kelly Tomb, seventeen year old son of former Nyssans, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Toomb will be among the 330 seniors graduating from Lebanon Union High School June 3.

Kelly Toomb

Kelly is a young man of many talents and achievements. As a junior his picture and biography were published in Who's Who Among American High School Students and he was a delegate to Beaver Boys State. As a first year Thespian, he earned awards for best supporting actor, best Cameo actor (first year actor), technical excellence and was elected historian.

He is a member of the concert choir and "The Crescendos," a selected ensemble group. He had the lead part of Creon in "Antigone" last fall, and a lead part in "Hansel and Gretel" this spring.

An accomplished artist, Kelly has won many awards and recognition for his works. In addition to his art classes in school, he also takes night classes at Linn-Benton Community College. He has designed the stage sets for the Strawberry festival queen's coronation the past two years.

To further his education, Kelly plans to attend Willamette University in Salem next fall, majoring in technical theatre. He hopes someday to design costumes for a major theater.

Kelly's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John K. Mullins of Nyssa and Mrs. Robert Toomb of Payette, former Nyssa resident, and the late Robert Toomb.

Legion Ladies To Sponsor Tea

The American Legion Auxiliary of Nyssa will be hosting the area Girl's State Tea, Saturday, June 5 at the Twilight Cafe dining room at 2 p.m. Girls State delegates and their parents from Ontario, Vale, Adrian and Nyssa are cordially invited to attend.

Nyssa will be sending two delegates to the Girl's State convention in June for the first time due to the generosity of Mrs. Nora Graham, past Legion president and past district president who has financed Beth Calhoun's part of the trip. Beth will accompany Sally Looney, the other delegate. Julie Garner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Garner, has been named as alternate to replace Beth Calhoun. She will be attending the convention if one of the other delegates is unable to attend.

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

The Stardusters O.E.S. met May 24 at the home of Louise Wernick with Patricia Marcum assisting. Cleta de Boer, president presided at the meeting with twelve members answering roll call. A discussion was held on the bazaar. Officers elected for the coming year are: Cleta deBoer, president; Beatrice Grossnickle, vice-president; Ida Miner, secretary; Gladys Newbill, treasurer and Louise Wernick, publicity.

This was the last meeting until fall unless a special meeting is called by the president during the summer.

ANK Garden Club

The A.N.K. Garden Club met for the May meeting at the home of Mrs. Gladys Newbill with Mrs. Burton Barnes as co-hostess. After being served a delightful desert and drink by the co-hostess, Mrs. Barbara Powers of Parma showed her slides of Hawaii. She told of the Powers' bee industry in the Islands and explained how bees were transported from smaller islands to the Island of Hawaii.

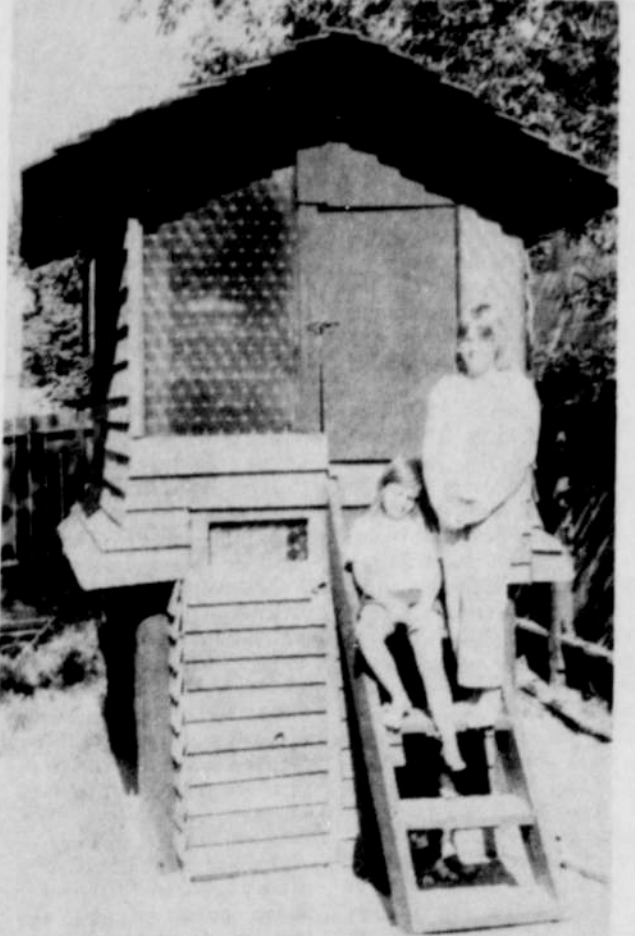

Mrs. Hazel Westervelt of Longview, Washington was a guest, as was Mrs. Ruth Steele of Roswell. Mrs. Steel joined our club, making A.N.K.'s second new member this spring. Mrs. Carolyn Witty became a member earlier.

A short business meeting followed our interesting program.

Our June meeting will be a brunch with Mrs. Joe Perez in Parma.
