

MRS. VIRGINIA BAKER'S FIRST GRADE class at Adrian was promised the reward of getting their picture in the paper if they scored high on reading this past school year. Many of the students read over fifty books and Mrs. Baker is very proud of the whole class.

OUT OF THE PAST

10 YEARS AGO

Effective June 1, the market known as Pounds Grocery officially became Rieb's Market after being operated under the former name for approximately 23 years. The store was given the name of Pounds Grocery in 1943 when it was purchased by Roy and Hazel Pounds.

Three area youths enlisted in the Navy. They are Jack Blackford, son of Edrie Blackford; Ronnie McCain, son of Vernon McCain; and James Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Houston.

20 YEARS AGO

Chosen as delegates to Beaver Boys' State at Oregon State College at Corvallis are Bill Looney, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Looney, Adrian and Frank Pratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pratt of Route 1, Nyssa.

Janet Marie Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Parker of Adrian has been selected to represent Adrian Union High School at Girls' State at Willamette University in Salem in June.

30 YEARS AGO

The Owyhee Truck and Implement Company will hold formal opening of its new building Saturday, June 8.

Robert Henry McNee, resident of Nyssa for many years, died Friday after an illness of several weeks.

Mr. McNee, known generally as "Old Hank" was born in Middleville, Michigan June 12, 1862 and came to Nyssa in the early days. He married Sarah Blanche Lackey January 5, 1905.

Mr. McNee, who was a prize fighter of considerable note in his youth, farmed on the Owyhee River for several years and later owned a garage in Nyssa. He engaged in the show business, featuring a trained bobcat, for several years after retiring from the garage business.

40 YEARS AGO

Harvesting of peas started in the Nyssa section Wednesday with a crew of approximately 175 pickers in the field with some 35 workers in the packing plant of F.H. Hogue. Picking is expected to continue for around three weeks, weather and market conditions permitting. The first peas were shipped to the New York market.

Eric Boenig on the KS&D ranch was the first grower to harvest peas this year. The F.H. Hogue plant is a genuine bee-hive of industry, with peas being packed at a rapid rate. Mrs. Ralph Tyler of New Plymouth, an experienced pea packer is in charge of the shed, while Tom Eldridge and Albert Hopkins are head of the pea picking crews.

50 YEARS AGO

Mrs. J.J. Sarazin and two children Isabelle and Norbert, left today for The Dalles, Oregon, where they will be joined by Miss Eva Boydell, who is teaching school there. From there, they will go to the coast for a week; then back to Portland, where Mrs. Sarazin will represent Golden Rule Chapter, OES, as worthy matron at the 37th annual session of the grand lodge.

60 YEARS AGO

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Agnes Boydell to Earl Britt Nedry was solemnized at St. Paul's Parish House Thursday evening, June 1.

Promptly at 9 o'clock the bride entered the hall and on the arm of her father J. Boydell, marched slowly up the aisle to the beautiful strains of Mendelson's Wedding March. Dr. J.J. Sarazin acted as best man and Eva Boydell, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid. Ushers were Audrey Ward and Blayne Boydell.

The bride wore a gown of embroidered batiste following the prevailing short style. She wore her mother's wedding veil of silk net with a tiara of orange blossoms and carried a shoulder bouquet of white roses and carnations. Her traveling gown was of African brown chiffon taffeta and georgette crepe, with a hat to match.
