Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McKinley went to La Grande Monday and saw their grand-daughter Mary Earnest graduate from high school. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Hugh Eddy of Caldwell. They came home on Tuesday. James McKinley of Albany came on Tuesday. He had business in this area and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McKinley. That evening they all went to Vale to the Frank Yurguen victory party at the Golden Slipper. Saturday, Mrs. Hugh Eddy brought her children, Carolyn and Jason to the R. D. McKinley home so they could spend some time with their grandparents.

Activities In Arcadia

By Nell Bowers

ARCADIA - The Arcadia Club will meet with Sue Tracy, June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruth Petterson and Tony went to Burley, Idaho over the weekend to a family reunion of the Petterson family. The brothers are Ernest, Earl, Merwyn, Chuck and Neil Petterson and one sister, Kerma Olsen. All of their children and grandchildren were there except for three. There were 59 people at the reunion. They decorated the graves at Oakley where many of their ancestors and family are buried. Mr. and Mrs. Brig Olsen and Sue Tracy and girls, and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Petterson, all of the Arcadia district attended the reunion.

Tuesday, Connell Petterson arrived home from Salt Lake City, Utah, where he had been visiting relatives. Last Monday the Neil Pettersons received a call from Toronto, Canada. It was from a couple from South Africa, Robin and Allene Lowe, who had become friends of Connell while he was on his mission. They had made arrangements to fly to Boise, Tuesday for a few days visit before leaving for their home. Neil and Ruth met them at the airport in Boise, Tuesday. They stayed all night. They saw some of the country on the way home from Boise and renewed acquaintances with Connell. The next day, Mr. Lowe became very sick. They took him to the doctor and the doctor advised him that he would be sick for quite some time. So they took the plane the next day for home, cutting short their visit. They had a 17-hour flight ahead of them before arriving in South Africa.

Janice, Barbie and Brian Bowers visited Clyde and Nell Bowers, Saturday evening. Don, Mark, Brent and David Bowers went fishing to Paddock, Saturday.

Bonnie Frahm is celebrating the Bicentennial with an addition to their cattle herd. She owned a blue roan heifer and the other day the heifer had a red and white calf.

Henry Carroll's cousin, Mrs. Kenneth Jackson and her husband from Battle Mountain, Nevada, spent the night, Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carroll. They were looking around for a place to settle when he retires.

Doyel Carroll went fishing to Owyhee Lake, Saturday evening after taking supper with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carroll. Sunday evening, he came back by after an unsuccessful fishing trip and was again a supper guest. Clyde and Nell Bowers drove to Hell's Canyon, Sunday. Clyde caught a few bass between showers.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Williams of Portland arrived in the wee hours of Saturday morning to spend the weekend with Mrs. William's family, Mr. and Mrs. Ko Abe. They returned home Monday.

Jeff Abe is graduating from the Arizona Automotive Institute of Technology, June 4. He will be home after a trip into California to visit relatives. A former Arcadia resident, Larry Saunders is also graduating from the same college.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stephenson, Todd Cindell, Mr. and Mrs. Art Richardson of Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Orr and son camped over the weekend at East Camp Creek. They did some fishing, and came home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kesler, Sr. and Sally attended a funeral at Rupert, the weekend of the 21. The funeral was for Mrs. Pearl Wheeler, the mother-in-law of Mrs. Kesler's sister, Mrs.
