30 YEARS AGO

Lloyd A. Wilson of Nyssa, son of Mr. and Mrs. E.C.

Wilson, was promoted from the rank of major to lieutenant-colonel in the army June 5.

Col. Wilson, who served in England with the eighth air force for two and one-half years, will go off active duty October 6. He will return to Nyssa some time this month.

One hundred and fifteen cars of lettuce had been shipped from Nyssa over the Union Pacific rails this season up to Tuesday night, according to E.C. Crandall, Nyssa railroad agent.

40 YEARS AGO

The entire Snake River Valley section in eastern Oregon and western Idaho was visited by a heavy hail storm Sunday that did considerable damage in spots. The hail was not general, some portions escaping entirely, while others were peppered with hail stones ranging in size up to the size of small marbles.

Harvesting of peas has entered the second week with a crew of nearly 300 pickers working in the vicinity and across the river. The hail Sunday cut down the number of choice peas considerable.

50 YEARS AGO

A most favorable report on the operation of the old Rainbow mine in Mormon Basin district is received in Baker and gives assurance that property is being put in shape to again become the big gold producer that it was a few years ago.

Seventeen miners are now on the payroll, it is said, and development of ore bodies are being made that are very encouraging. The Rainbow will soon again be in the producing class.

60 YEARS AGO

An event of considerable interest in business circles and to the community at large was the moving of Wilson Bros. into their new store building and the addition of several new departments to their business. Nyssa now has a full fledged up-to-date department store and the trading facilities of the town are largely increased.

The formal opening of the new store occurred Monday last, attended by a large number of people who thronged the store all day "rubbering" at the fine displays of goods in the different departments and many taking advantage of the liberal bargains offered. Following is the personnel of the force and the heads of departments. Furniture, Ernest Wilson, manager; Dry Goods, Mrs. Kinnaird, manager; Miss Gertrude Wilson, assistant; Boots and shoes, Harry Goshert, manager; Groceries, Barney Wilson, manager, with Obie Wilson and Will Howard, assistants.

History Group Meets Tonight

A special meeting of the Malheur County Historical Society has been called by Chris Moore, president, for Thursday, (tonight) June 10 beginning at 8:00 p.m. in the Weese Building at Treasure Valley Community College.

Among items of business will be a discussion and final plans for the historical tour in conjunction with the Top-Op agricultural event to take place in Jordan Valley on June 19th. Other business will include final preparations for the Captain Jonathan Keeny Pass dedication to take place on July 4th on Lytle Boulevard and plans for the summer excursions sponsored by the society.

This is the last meeting of the year and members as well as interested individuals are urged to attend.

TVCC Student Body Officers

The Treasure Valley Community College student body went to the polls recently to elect student body officers for the 1976-77 year.

Tyler Felton of Arco, Idaho was elected president. His vice president is Mark Gangewer of Coquille, Oregon. Marianne Nichols of Ontario will be the secretary, and Lisa Spears of Vale, the business manager. Christine Wilson of Payette was chosen publicity director.

These officers will take over their duties at the close of the current college term.
