Love to sit outside the plaza inn at West Park Plaza and people-watch. Joretta Norman and I were there Thursday. Got in a nice visit with Betty Blake. Joretta hadn't seen Betty since her miraculous healing. She used to wear a steel brace and walk most painfully. Now she all but dances!

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Mural Lewis gave a patio breakfast. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. George Dohner. Mr. Lewis proved himself to be a talented cook.

George is worried over Bossie. Looks like she isn't going to have a calf after all. Now what? Butcher her... Oh no!

Visiting the Dave Weavers over the past weekend were Carol's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hamlow of Eugene, Oregon. While there, Mr. Hamlow built Kent another rabbit pen, in addition to having brought him four new nest boxes. Carol said that whenever they come they do something special like that for the family.

The Weavers have added a couple of goats to their farm. One is expecting a kid, the other gives milk and happily submits to the cow's milking machine. Try to milk her by hand and she kicks!

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans recently returned from a two and a half weeks trip to California, during which they visited several of their children, and their families.

In Eureka, California, they enjoyed watching some one hundred people digging for clams on the beach.

Thence they drove to Kernin, near Fresno, where they enjoyed a long visit with their daughter Phyllis and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Arlon Schubert.

While with the Schuberts, they attended a Junior High School opera, "Bye, Bye Birdie" in which their granddaughter, Renae, sang the female lead.

They also attended a piano ensemble recital at Fresno State University in which their daughter Phyllis played in a two-piano duet.

In returning to Nu Acres, the Evans brought with them their grandson, Loren Schubert, who will be here for the summer.

This past week the Cecil Evans stayed at their daughter and son-in-law's home in Hazelton in order to do chores while the young family vacationed in Yellowstone.

Special dinner guests at the Sherman Keck home, Saturday, were Sherman's brother and his wife and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Keck, Mark and Melody, of Osburn, Idaho. Also present were Mrs. A.H. Keck of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cysse and family of Nu Acres. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Keck took a fishing trip to Horsethief Lake last week, together with Janice Evans. The visit was cut short when Miss Evans fell and broke her glasses and the group hurried home to have them fixed. They did have fresh trout for dinner though.

Memorial Day breakfast guests surprised Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne when Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Boucher of Los Banos, California, and Marie Castro of Gilchrist, Oregon arrived on time for breakfast.

Cousin Francis Cammann, who lives next door, joined them, and for the first time in years, these four cousins of different families, were together, Ben Francis, Marie, and Mrs. Boucher.
