

OUT OF THE PAST

10 YEARS AGO

JoAnn Durfee, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Durfee of Nyssa, was chosen to reign as Malheur County Dairy Princess at a banquet Saturday evening. Judy Faw of Vale was selected as alternate princess.

"I didn't sleep a wink Saturday night, but my dad still got me up to do the farm chores at 5 a.m. Sunday morning," stated the new Dairy Princess.

JoAnn, her parents, three sisters and one brother live 15 miles south-west of Nyssa. They milk 14 cows and own 280 acres of land.

Miss Durfee plans to attend Brigham Young University next year with a major in medical technology.

Miss Sheila Huffman was installed as honored queen of Bethel #33 Tuesday, June 14.

20 YEARS AGO

Tom Sallee of Nyssa is one of 127 selected high school students from Oregon and Washington now attending the first annual Junior Engineers and Scientists summer training institute at Oregon State College.

Selection to attend was based on scholarship and interest in science and engineering subjects.

Harry Miner, a Nyssa baseball manager of some years back will challenge Hugh Tobler, present day boss of the Nyssans to a contest Friday night just prior to the Payette game to see which has the greater pull.

The event will be a cow milking contest in deference to dairy month with a special award going to the victor.

30 YEARS AGO

The women's Civic Club held its regular meeting in the Garret Stam garden Wednesday afternoon.

The members voted to work for the building of a swimming pool either by the school district or by the city and to promote activities for the youth of the community.

An eight-pound, three-ounce boy was born to Ensign and Mrs. Dwight Wyckoff, former Nyssa residents at the Marine Hospital in Seattle, June 13. Wyckoff is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Wilson of Nyssa.

40 YEARS AGO

The Dick Tensen home in Nyssa was the scene of a pretty wedding this afternoon that united Miss Betty Geerje Tensen and Grant Rinehart. Rev. Floyd White performed the single ring ceremony on the lawn at the Tensen home in the presence of relatives, while Miss Tiena Tensen played the Tri-Delta march hymn.

The bride wore a yellow knitted suit, made by her grandmother, and was given in marriage by her father, Dick Tensen. The ceremony was followed by a buffet luncheon, after which the young couple left on the afternoon train for Corvallis where Mr. Rinehart will attend summer school.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart are popular members of the younger set here. Mrs. Rinehart graduated from Nyssa High School, attended Oregon State College, and graduated from Eastern Oregon Normal School. She has been teaching in the Arcadia School.

Mr. Rinehart attended Oregon State University, and graduated from Eastern Oregon Normal. He taught one year near LaGrande before joining the teaching force here.

50 YEARS AGO

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening when Levi Eldridge, Jr., and Miss Dora Thompson were united in marriage.

The bride was beautiful in a dress of green Georgette crepe. She is the daughter of Leila Thompson and has been engaged in teaching. Mr. Eldridge is an extensive wheat farmer at Pilot Rock.

60 YEARS AGO

Owing to an overcrowded range a number of sheepmen of this valley have disposed of their bands and quit the business, while others will work out of the business gradually. Flocks and herds have increased and the range has decreased by reason of settlement that this has become necessary.

Nyssa, although not as large as some towns, has as much patriotism to the square inch as any of them. Several recruits from here joined the National Guard of Idaho and will probably be on their way to the border next week. Besides Frank and Wallace Lynch, Dave Canham and Will Morey, several others are reported to have gone to Boise to enlist. It is earnestly hoped that war may be averted, but, if there should be a clash, the Nyssa boys will be found ready to do their share to keep the star spangled banner waving.

Seniors Host Card Party

The Nyssa Senior Citizens will host a card party at the Senior Citizen Building on Bower St. at 7:30 p.m., Friday, June 18. Everybody is welcome.
