GRANGE NEWS

Oregon Trail Grange
Guests at the Oregon Trail Grange meeting Thursday evening, June 17, were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Mahan of Vale and Carl Linegar of Nyssa.

A display table featuring articles from by-gone days was the subject of much conversation. Loyd Adams displayed some unusual veterinary tools; an instrument used to hold a horse's mouth open, looked very much like an instrument of torture. Adams also displayed a pair of black hairy chaps, but declined to model them. One-hundred year-old dishes displayed by the women. Grange was called to order by Master Harold Kurtz. All officers were found present by Assistant Steward Tom Drydale as roll was called by Secretary Clara Somers. Jerry and Caroline Hansen reported on a trip to Washington D. C. where Jerry had been Oregon representative for National Wild Life. A visit to a Senate

Session was one of the highlights of their trip. Hansen reminded Grange members of the importance of sending in resolutions and in letting Senators and Representatives know their thoughts and opinions.

During Lecturer Sadie Metcalf's program, the Bill of Rights, written September 25, 1789 was read by Lois Boenig.

Nine members acted as Hollywood Squares with Don Somers and Myrtle Sasser as contestants and Sadie Metcalf as Mistress of Ceremonies. Each won a game. Refreshments were served by Jansie Stam and Tom and Violet Drydale.

The next regular meeting will be held Thursday, July 1, 8:30 p.m. All Grange members are urged to attend.
