

OUT OF THE PAST

10 YEARS AGO

Dedication of the Jack Zittercob memorial dugout on the Nyssa high school baseball field will be at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, July 12, 1966, date of the deceased's birthday anniversary.

Materials and labor for the facilities were donated by relatives and friends of the late Jack Zittercob and his family. Plaques are being furnished by his widow, Rosemary; daughter, Ann; and son, Tom.

being held in Vale Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Work of hooking up the Nyssa sewer system started Wednesday on the business houses of Main street and most of them are now getting sewer service.

50 YEARS AGO

Timmie W. Clarkson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clarkson, has submitted an entry in the 1966 Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild model car competition, officials reported recently. Clarkson, a senior at Nyssa high school, built and entered a small sports coupe in the senior division of the competition.

During the past year, mining operations have gotten well underway on the properties belonging to the Mercury Mining Syndicate, which controls an immense deposit of quicksilver in Southern Malheur County, near McDermitt, according to a letter received by County Assessor A.M. Graham, from Clifford G. Dennis, mining engineer in charge of the properties.

Friday night the Nyssa Sugarbeets moved into third spot in the Border League when they defeated Weiser 5-1 in a fast moving game at the high school field.

Our ice plant is running full capacity. Whenever you need ice. We have it. Nyssa Packing Co. Burbridge and Ray, Prop. Phone 6, Nyssa, Or.

60 YEARS AGO

Nyssa area produce packing houses were being geared for operations that will get underway next week on early spuds that show every indication of bringing "fabulous" prices, even if early quotations drop to a much lower level.

Some growers were rejecting 54 offers for their early spuds and reports were that some potatoes might go as high as $6 here.

L. Spier, C.C. Wilson, Billy Vogts and Tom Dixon mounted a trusty Ford Saturday and started out for their favorite fishin' hole at the head of navigation on Wilson Creek. They returned Monday with a good supply of the finny fellows which they distributed among their friends, but having more friends than they dreamed of, they ran short before they reached the Journal office, but the "force" was regaled with a choice selection of fish stories.

30 YEARS AGO

The first white gopher reported seen in the Nyssa heights area was found at the Glen Suter farm recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Suter saw the gopher about the place and set a trap for it. They were successful in catching the albino rodent.

The epidemic of "cussedness" continues to plague Nyssa equines. A team plowing on the Lackey tract adjoining town ran away Tuesday, smashing the plow and damaging the harness.

Apple Valley Items

APPLE VALLEY - Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sodowsky left Wednesday in their new mobile home for Brookfield, Illinois where they will visit and then do some traveling over the U. S. before deciding where they will eventually make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Trupp who are from Rexburg, Idaho bought their home in Apple Valley. Mr. Trupp's farm and home was under water from the Teton Dam flood.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knox of Springfield left Friday after a weeks visit with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. William Knox.

Mrs. Clifford Knox of Grandview, Idaho and her daughter Mrs. Bob Swanson and Wendy of Denver, Colorado visited Thursday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. William Knox.

Mrs. Nell Correll was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Knox.
