

HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED where some of the sugar from the Amalgamated Sugar Company goes and how? May Trucking Company in Payette, Idaho has six sugar tankers like the one pictured above. Each tanker holds 23 tons or 46,000 pounds of bulk sugar. Fifteen loads are delivered to Portland each week. The tankers are loaded by gravity from the top and emptied from the bottom.

For the return trip home, eight-foot paneling, plywood or roofing is loaded in between the tankers and hauled back to Treasure Valley lumber yards or trailer manufacturers.

Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyn Dohner

Date for the Nu Acres Bicentennial celebration has been set August first. It will start at noon with a big potluck picnic. There are plans to do the fun things people did in the first half of this century.

Like, play horseshoes, hopscotch for all ages, marbles. Hear boys aren't allowed to play marbles anymore. Afraid they'll play for keeps. Or gamble.

Kids now play more sophisticated games that our stuffy generation isn't even allowed to know about. What? Well, how should I know? I never quite got my fill of hopscotch!

If you've a game you'd like included, call a committee member, or Mrs. Gerald Russell, head planner, and get it in. Others to call: Mrs. Calvin Conner, Fruitland, Mrs. Paul Russell, Mrs. Layman Sheffield, Mrs. Dave Weaver, or myself.

Fishing where she fished as a girl was a high spot in her recent trip to Iowa. Mrs. Dean Hislop said. Caught some fish, too. During her two-week visit she saw many relatives and friends she went to school with, and was entertained joyfully.

Her sister from Florida also visited Iowa then, so making the reunion complete. She and her brother and his wife drove up to Milwaukee, Wis., in order to attend the wedding of another sister.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stam for about ten days early this month were all their children and grandchildren.

Coming from Austin, Texas, were Mr. and Mrs. Elvie Dalton and their children, Jennifer, age two, Joseph, six, and Peter, five. From Portland came Mr. and Mrs. Mark O'Donnell and son, Patrick. Occasional visitors were their son and family from Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stam.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne and Francis Cammorn took a fishing trip Thursday to Padick Dam. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Syl Woodland, their son, Rick, and Mrs. Christine Crookshank all of Arena Valley. Sunday dinner guests in the Ben Payne home were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newell of Nampa.

Ready for the "Grand and Glorious Fourth?" Understand you can have a ball just staring at the television set this weekend. Maybe shuffle back and forth to the kitchen on commercials to keep food coming.

Think maybe an old-fashioned picnic outdoors and watching fireworks under the stars would be more fun.

HELLO WORLD!

Mr. and Mrs. C. Kent Mann are happy to announce the birth of a son, Darin, on Friday, June 25, 1976 at St. Luke's Hospital in Boise. He weighed seven and one-half pounds and was twenty inches long. Both mother and son are doing well in their Parma home.

The new arrival joins a brother, David and sisters, Melanie and Lauralyn.

Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gonyer of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mann of Parma.

Bargain Outlet

Where you live, electricity is cheap.

Idaho Power Company customers pay one of the lowest electric rates in the nation.

Customers of 96 percent of the private electric utilities in the country pay more for electricity than does the average Idaho Power residential customer.

Your rates are low because we've tried to keep them that way. We've operated as efficiently as we know how. We've been able to use hydropower. We've been able to acquire and use coal on economically advantageous terms.

We'll keep doing everything we can in the face of rising costs to keep your rates low. In the meantime, your electricity is a bargain. Use it wisely.
