

MR. AND MRS. C. K. OLSON CELEBRATED their 50th wedding anniversary at their home on King Avenue, Monday, July 19. They enjoyed the special day with a beautifully decorated cake and the company of two of their children, Weston Olson and Janet Mangini and their grandchildren. Their other son, Lawrence and his family will arrive in Nyssa later this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Olson were married in Idaho Falls and lived thirteen years in Emery, Utah, where Mr. Olson farmed, coal mined, raised bees and did carpentry work. They came to Nyssa in 1939, and he was a building contractor.

The couple have three children. Lawrence and his wife and three children live in Logan, Utah. He is a data processor for the Hesston Corporation. Their other son, and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Weston Olson have two children and make their home in Cicero, Illinois. He owns his own machine and carpentry shop and is an electrical engineer in Chicago. The couple's only daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bob (Janet) Mangini live in Las Vegas, Nevada. She has been a medical secretary for several years but is now happy being a full-time homemaker. Her husband, Bob, is assistant terminal manager for Milne Truck Lines.

GRANGE NEWS

Members of Oregon Trail Grange met in regular session Thursday evening, July 15. Grange was called to order by Master Harold Kurtz. County Deputy Dale Teter was escorted to the Master's Station by the Stewards. A welcome was given to Deputy Teter and 23 visitors from Vale, Big Bend, Western Star and Boulevard Granges.

Ernie Metcalf and James Stephen gave reports on agriculture and Master Kurtz commented on the Safety Program for farmers suggested by OSHA. It warns farmers that they should wear SHOES when handling cattle. There are several other "wise" pieces of advice just as helpful.

Lecturer Sadie Metcalf introduced the visiting Lecturer, Judith Andregg, Big Bend Grange, who presented a most interesting program on the music and poetry of our country and the historical highlights of the last two hundred-year period. One delightful interlude was a dance performed by a couple in Colonial costume; full hoop skirt, powdered wig for the lady and dark suit, ruffled shirt and white gloves for the gentleman. The music was Minuet in G. Their program was closed by the group singing "Because He Lives."

Pomona Master Blain Girvin reminded members that Pomona Grange will meet Saturday, August 28, 8 p.m. at Ontario Heights. The date is a week later than usual because of conflict with the Malheur County Fair dates, August 18 - 21. Election of officers will be held.

Members were also reminded of the Tri-county picnic to be held July 25 at Whetmore Park.

Refreshments were served by CWA Club members. The next regular O.T. Grange meeting will be held Thursday evening, August 5. Master Kurtz reminded members to be thinking about land products to be entered in the Fair.

Jacksons Take Family Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Jackson and Tom recently spent two weeks visiting at the homes of their five married children. They sailed, picnicked, and played games in the Portland and Milwaukie areas with their daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wimmer and Mr. and Mrs. John Wortendyke.

Their daughter Jill, accompanied them to Portland, enroute they had lunch at Hood River with the James Mallon family. Terry Mallon, their son, joined the Jacksons for a champagne brunch at the Benson Hotel. Jill then returned home.

Nyssans Attend Eugene Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Coffman, Dorothy and Patsy Wilson were houseguests of the Melvin Marcums in Eugene a week ago and they attended the wedding of Crystal Marcum and Ken Mills on July 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Marcum, Bill and Sara flew their plane to Eugene the day of the wedding. Mrs. Marcum and Mrs. Wilson served the cake. Patsy Wilson and Carol Greig (formerly of Nyssa) served the coffee and punch. Sara Marcum was in charge of the guest book.

The Coffmans remained in Eugene where Mrs. Coffman is hospitalized. Mr. Coffman is staying with their daughter and son-in-law, the Melvin Marcums.

SENIOR CITIZEN ACTIVITIES

Orma Cleaver, president of the Nyssa Senior Citizen group, opened the meeting at the United Methodist Church, July 14, with a flag salute to the American flag. Thirty-three members and two visitors were present.

The minutes and treasurer's report were read and accepted. The nurses were there to take blood pressure. It was decided to have a concession booth at the Thunderegg Days and sell hot dogs, homemade pie, cookies and donuts and serve pop and popicles.

Nancy Dunham from the Referral Office reported that the Senior Citizen housing project will be underway soon.

Merle Johnson was named alternate member to the Council of Aging for this district. President Cleaver thanked the ladies for making the beautiful Bicentennial cake that was served during the special program in observance of our Bicentennial year.

It was decided by vote that the group will help deliver "Meals on Wheels" in October. There will be a film shown at the next meeting.

The meeting was adjourned with prayer by Wyatt Smith, chaplain. The usual potluck dinner was enjoyed.
