Your Property Taxes

By Oscar B. Bratton, Malheur County Assessor

To further understand the responsibilities of the county assessor let us examine the oath of office that he takes when he takes office.

"I (name) do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States of America, and the Constitution of the State of Oregon and its laws thereof, and will faithfully and honorably demean myself in the office of County Assessor to which I have been elected, to the best of my ability, so help me God."

The elected office of County Assessor was established as a part of the Oregon Constitution in 1859. Although a county office, the Assessor's duties, the manner in which he is to carry out these duties and responsibilities is clearly spelled out by Oregon law. There are also penalties if the Assessor does not properly function and carry out these duties.

The involvement of the State as a policing force insures the local taxpayer that he is being treated fairly as these laws not only establish uniformity of assessments within the counties, but also establish uniformity between counties.
