

Janet Dail—Eugene Watson
United In Garden Ceremony

The lawn at the home of the bride's parents was the setting of the 10 a.m. wedding of Janet Marie Dail of Nyssa and Eugene E. Watson of Nampa, on Saturday, June 26, 1976. Decoration for the occasion were large baskets of roses in variegated shades of pink.

The double-ring ceremony was performed in the presence of 150 guests by the Rev. James Farmer, brother of the bride, of the Donnelly Bible Church, Donnelly, Idaho.

Soloist Miss Kathy Ward of Ontario was accompanied by Mrs. Fred Mosom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned with an empire waist of re-embroidered Chantilly lace and seed pearls with a full polyester chiffon skirt. The Victorian styled sleeves featured lace and pearls with a chiffon overlay. The Chapel length train of chiffon was attached at the shoulders. Her double tiered veil, edged with lace was held to a floral headpiece. She carried a nosegay of maroon roses, pink carnations and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Miss Joyce Haney. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Carl Cleaver and Miss Barbara Haney. They wore identical floor-length gowns of pink flocked floral polyester crepe fashioned with scooped necklines, full skirts and long sleeves.

Jim Farmer of Boise served as best man. Ushers were Warren Wilson and Barry Ward, both of Cambridge, Idaho; and Steve Hill of Mud Lake, Idaho. Ringbearer was Michael Baker of Kuna, Idaho.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dail chose a gown of mint green floral polyester crepe with pink flowers. The bridegroom's mother wore a polyester gown of lime green accented with lace. They each wore a pink carnation corsage.

An outdoor reception followed the ceremony. The Bride's table was graced with a four-tiered wedding cake decorated with pink roses and topped with pink bells. Assisting with the reception were Mrs. James Farmer and Mrs. Rick Baker who served the cake; Miss Patsy Anderson poured coffee; Miss Marla Dail served punch and Mrs. Lillian Baker was in charge of mints and nuts. Karla Farmer and Kristi Bullard received the gifts.

The bride, a 1974 graduate of Nyssa High School attended Montana Institute of the Bible. Her husband was graduated from Cambridge High School in 1974 and is employed at Lee's Plumbing in Nampa, Idaho.

The bride changed to a yellow pant suit with a multi-colored pastel blouse for their wedding trip to Glacier National Park in Montana. The newlyweds are making their first home at 303 Ivy Street, Nampa.

Out of area guests were Mrs. Luella Long, Salem, Iowa, maternal grandmother of the groom; Frank Hiebert family, Aberdeen, Idaho; Steve and Becky Hill, Mud Lake, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Perry, Portland; Karelyn Stradley, Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stradley, Jr. Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stradley, Pasco; and Tricia Cleaver, Coos Bay, Oregon.
