C.R. Kesler, Sr. Family Spend a Month In Utah

On June 26, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Kesler, Sr. and Sally left for Salt Lake City in their motor home. Dr. Joe Kesler had called and told them of brobert Vibert being very ill in St. Mark's hospital. That evening, they stopped in Rupert. They spent the night with Mrs. Kesler's sister and family, the Wayne Wheelers. Early Sunday morning, they left for Salt Lake. They spent a lot of time in St. Mark's with Vibert, the next two weeks. While there, a sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Depew, from Raymond, Alberta, Canada, came. They stayed five days. Vibert and Fern's son, Larry Kesler, flew in from Centerville, Ohio. He came Friday and stayed till Wednesday. At this time Vibert was very ill. Larry Kesler went to school in Nyssa and was in High School when the family moved to Utah. He is, now, married and has a daughter and two sons. He works for General Motors in Dayton, in the Finance Department. Also Emma and Fern's sister, Mrs. Al Mladenich, flew in from Seattle and stayed a week. Mr. and Mrs. Stan Pace, from Page, Utah, spent a weekend with them. Mrs. Pace is a niece of Mrs. Kesler.

Kesler from Provo came to Salt Lake. There was a small family reunion while the mani Kesler reunion was going on to McCall.

Karma came to spend a month vacation with her folks in the motor home. Karma, Sally, and their mother and dad attended the Mormon Miracle Pageant Manti, Utah. It is a small town but there were 11,500 people there from all over the United States. It was held outside on the lawn.

The next day, Emma Kesler took very ill and spent nine days in St. Mark's hospital where she underwent treatment and surgery. On July 4th, the family attended the parade in Provo. There were 100 entries and most of them were Bicentennial.

On July 24th, they attended the parade sponsored by the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers. Kate Carter originated the parade and was Grand Marshall. It was very beautiful with over 150 entries.

On Friday, July 30, the Senior Keslers, Karma and Sally went to Heber, Utah, in the Wasatch mountains and spent three days. While there they rode the Heber Creeper or the "Wasatch Cannonball". It is an old steam train that goes from Heber through the Provo canyon to Bridal Falls. While on the old steam train, the storm that went through here last Friday night went through there and blew a tree across the track. They had to stop and the engineer and two helpers had to cut the tree and remove it from the track. The train traveled 30 or 35 miles and hour. They turned around at Bridal Falls.

On the way back to Heber they had live entertainment. It was a thrill to ride the old steam train. The engineer and brakeman were dressed like old time railroad men but they were all girls from the college on a summer job on the railroad. On Saturday evening, Karma treated the family to dinner at a very "plush" place "The Homestead" in Heber. On Sunday, they left for Provo where Karma had to go back to work on Monday at BYU Health Center. They continued on to Salt Lake, where they stopped at the Maytime Manor Nursing home to visit Vibert, who is still very ill. They went back to Rupert and stayed with the Wheelers overnight and arrived home Monday afternoon after a lovely trip. Carl Kesler and family stopped in Salt Lake with the Keslers on their way to Portland to a wedding. Carl flew home from Boise but the family revisited the Keslers on their way home to Texas.

Accident Report

The corner of Lytle Avenue and Klamath was the site of another accident last weekend, although there were no injuries as a result.

According to State Police report a pickup driven by Charles P. Culbertson, 64, Nyssa was northbound on Lytle, along with a vehicle driven by David B. Ashley, 16, Pocastello. The Culbertson vehicle made an improper right turn and was cited by the State Police.

Neither drivers, nor the two passengers in the Ashley vehicle, Rick and Karen Olson of Nyssa were injured.
