Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyle Dehner

Oh joy unbounded, with family surrounded! My sister Bonnie and her husband Charles Baldwin are up from Kingsburg, California for a short visit. They came in their new travel outfit, a little fifth-wheeler, and brought along Noel, a little silver poodle, a son to my Mimi.

Sunday we went to Christian Life Fellowship at the Women's Club. Leaves one on a beautiful spiritual high. This morning we read some Psalms and Romans together and shared what great things God is doing. Times like these, want to build three little tabernacles and just stay forever, like.

Carol Sue Jones carried home the trophy at the Payette County livestock demonstration. She will go to Boise and compete for district demonstration. Four Nu Acre youngsters competed and each brought home one or more ribbons. Those attending were Debbie Sheffield, Pam Jones, Bob Jones and Carol Sue Jones.

Nancy Sheffield stated that the little Club Fair they had was a lot of fun and profitable for the kids in that it gave them a good start for the coming county fair.

Everyone was concerned last week when Dave Weaver was hospitalized with a heart attack. He was at Holy Rosary a couple of days, and when he insisted on going home, he and wife Carol, went off for a small rest time and loving friends came in and ran the ranch. Carol asked that her thanks go in here to thank folks for the

89th Birthday

ANGIE COOK, now of the Nyssa Nursing Home, will celebrate her 89th birthday tomorrow. She came to Nyssa in 1910 and must be one of its longest residents. She was born in Malheur City in 1887, which then was a boomtown of 3,000. A fire and depleted plaster mines emptied the town eventually. She had four children in Nyssa, three of whom are now in Boise. The fourth lives in Sweet Home. Her late husband was a blacksmith and a policeman. Recent visitors to her were Col. Robert Lyells, a nephew, and family of Santa Cruz, California.

many phone calls, cards and help. Howard Malone did the milking and Terry Malone took little Clint home with her for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Fischer have a good start toward their new home, a well, a light post and a basement started. We continue to enjoy them and Christi and Julie for close neighbors, but the nights are getting a little cold on the patio.

Sweet corn is ripening just right. Funny, my sister came last year at sweet corn time! We ex-lowsans love our corn.

Eugene Woman Takes Top Beef Recipe Honors

Mary Wimberly of Eugene added a party twist, a dash of oregano and some creativity to an Oregon favorite food to capture top honors Thursday in the second annual Oregon Beef Cook-off. According to Mrs. Ted Hyde of Bly and president of the Oregon CowBelles, sponsors of the event, she has won a side of beef, plus an all-expense paid trip to Salt Lake City to participate in the National Beef Cook-off in September.

Mrs. Wimberly's entry, called Party Meat Roll was judged best; from among nearly 100 entries received from throughout the state. Ground beef, eggs, mozzarella cheese and tomato juice were featured in the winning entry.

The Oregon beef Cook-off program is sponsored and coordinated by the Oregon CowBelles and the Oregon Beef Council. Chairman for the 1976 Cook-off was Mrs. Myron Miles of Baker.

PARTY MEAT ROLL

2 beaten eggs
1/4 cup soft bread crumbs
1/2 cup tomato juice
2 tablespoons snipped parsley
1/2 teaspoon crushed oregano
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 small garlic, minced
2 pounds ground beef (very lean)
8 thin slices boiled ham
6 ounces (12 cups) shredded mozzarella
Cheese, halved diagonally

Combine eggs, bread crumbs, tomato juice, parsley, oregano, salt, pepper and garlic. Stir in ground beef, mixing well. On foil or wax paper, pat meat to a 12 x 10 inch rectangle. Arrange boiled ham slices on top of meat mixture, leaving small margin around edges. Sprinkle shredded cheese over ham. Starting from short end, carefully roll up meat, using foil to lift, seal edges and end by pinching together.

Place meat roll, seam side down on baking pan. Bake at 350° for one hour and 15 minutes. Place cheese wedges over top of roll. Return to oven for 5 minutes to let cheese melt. Makes 8 servings.

(Also makes very good sandwiches when cold.)

Try planting lemon seeds in well-drained soil. They make pretty little shrubs.
