Miss America

Most Nyssa and Malheur County residents will be watching television Saturday evening in anticipation of the Miss America awards. Naturally, we think that Shan Moss, Miss Oregon and Miss Malheur County, should be picked for Miss America.

How the judges pick the winner and runners-up is something else, and admittedly they have a tough job. Each of the 50 girls is tops in her state, and all are beautiful and talented.

Shan has been in Seaside for the last month being groomed for the contest, which includes learning to walk and talk in accordance with beauty contest requirements. With her own natural beauty and talent, Shan will be hard to beat.

We notice that Shan has also been making appearances as Miss Oregon, a job that she will have throughout the year. The opportunities for travel, scholarships and experience makes being Miss Oregon very worthwhile. The publicity given Nyssa and Malheur County is an added benefit.

We wish Shan all of the luck possible, and win or lose, we will be rooting.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, The Journal:
 To the Friends of Shriner's Hospitals:

Each September for the past twenty-one years, the Snake River Shrine Club has held a benefit auction to raise money to aid in the support of the Shriner's Hospitals for crippled children.

Other than the money that we raise through these benefit auctions, we also solicit produce, foodstuffs, and supplies for use by the hospitals which we deliver to the Portland and the Salt Lake units during our annual Shrine Caravans that are held just for that purpose.

Shriner's Hospitals are not tax supported. They are supported by money that is given by Shriners, or contributed by people such as you, to support this worthwhile endeavor. There are nineteen Shriner's Hospitals for crippled children that give free orthopedic care and three Shriner's Burns Institutes.

If you know of any child needing orthopedic care, just let a Shriner know and he'll handle it from there. Remember—no one stands so tall as he who stoops to aid a crippled child.

Soon there will be a Shriner calling on you to solicit your help in this project.

The children at the hospitals and the members of the Snake River Shrine Club thank you sincerely.
 Bob Lanterman, President

Editor, The Journal:

I would like to say how much I appreciate the efforts of the Town and Country Garden Club on the north end of town. It's a refreshing change to be met with bright flowers and green shrubs each time I enter Nyssa from that direction. And the Bicentennial theme on the point is attractive and appropriate.

I would like to say thanks to those ladies for initiating this project and the many hours of maintenance they have put in this summer to keep it looking nice.

It's projects like this that help to make us proud of Nyssa.

LDS Church To Hold Open House

Governor Bob Straub has proclaimed September as "Family Unity Month" in Oregon. In signing the proclamation, Governor Bob Straub recognized "the importance of family unity as the cornerstone of our society."

The document establishes the family as "the center of strength and guidance," and recognized that "the solidarity of a community is dependent on the stability of individual family units." The Governor cites the need for communication between family members in these demanding times and urges "all citizens to strengthen their homes and family ties and work together to improve the quality of family living."

In cooperation with Family Unity Month, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is sponsoring a statewide information program during September to familiarize Oregonians with a specific activity conducted by members of the Mormon Church since 1915. It is known as "Family Home Evening," an occasion in which Mormon families devote one night each week to being together and participating in a family activity or discussion.

Although it was originally emphasized within the Church, the family home evening concept has proven so successful among the 3.5 million Mormons that the Church is endeavoring to share the program with all who are interested.

As an activity related to the Family Unity Month, the Nyssa Wards of the LDS Church will hold an open house at the Nyssa Stake Center on Thursday, September 23 at 8 p.m. The Family Home Evening program will be discussed along with a film presenting the Church's view of the eternal nature of the family. Everyone is invited to attend.

Missionary Tours Three States

Miss Frances Foster, missionary to Pakistan, has just returned from a tour of visiting friends and churches in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. She accompanied the R.T. Sagers as far as Portland. There she spent a week visiting many friends and speaking in three churches the next week. One night was spent with her aunt, Lu Childers, formerly of Nyssa in Oymmpia. The next night she was with the Dave Wiens family in Puyallup who were with the Pentecostal Church of Nyssa in 1972. They had just had the wedding of their second daughter Becky. It was a joy to see all of them again, and the beautiful church which will be sponsoring a Christian Day School this year.

In Seattle, it was a pleasure not only to present the work of Pakistan to the church, but to meet again one of the members of the Pentecostal Church of Lahore, Mr. Naseem. Thursday, the twenty-sixth found Miss Foster making the beautiful trip across the Snoqualmie pass by bus to Moses Lake. What a thrill to see those lofty mountains, cool streams, then later the fruitful plains! Surely God has blessed America. Mrs. Harry Gardner and her daughter Anna Jean, now Mrs. Bob Reflett also of Nyssa, met her and with their families, nine in all had a delicious meal in a restaurant there.

Friday the stop was in Ritzville community for some time. The next stop was Lewiston, Idaho where she ministered both in the Sunday School and the evening service of the Pentecostal Church. Back over the Lewiston hill on Tuesday to Moscow where a new church was being dedicated on Friday night. It was a joy to be their first missionary speaker. Wednesday night in McCall after another beautiful day's trip. There her hostess was the former Sherry Brashears of Parma, now in McCall. It was good to return home late Thursday night after a trip thru Boise and happy and profitable.

Also that there are public buses still running in most places though the schedules are sometimes strange.

Miss Foster will leave again by Trailways on Saturday night for Burns, Oregon then south to California to attend the United Pentecostal Church annual Conference in Anaheim September 22-28. Following this she will be doing her formal deputational work before returning to Pakistan. She wants to express her thanks again to the many Nyssa friends who remember her in prayers and interest.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all my relatives, friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers, cards, phone calls and your prayers following my recent surgery. I especially want to thank Rev. and Mrs. William Russell for their visits and special prayers. Also I want to thank Dr. Kerby and Dr. Danford and the wonderful staff at the Malheur Memorial Hospital for the excellent care I had.

God bless each of you.
 Mrs. Percy Capper.
