

Sage of Nu Acres
By Lynn Doherty

Dorothy Pollard, undisputed domino champion of the Doherty domicile, flew the friendly skies back to Southern California Saturday night, leaving behind one sad black lab-Irish setter puppy, a pile of school books, a lonesome boy friend, and a couple of kinda aching hearts.

She was here only twenty-four days. Most company stays only about a week, and we'd hoped to keep her forever....

First meeting of the fall season, the Farmerette Club gathered here Wednesday, with Mrs. Dave Weaver as co-hostess. In addition to the regular members, several stopped by for just a short get-acquainted time. They were Mrs. Gary Fischer, Mrs. Russell Leininger, Mrs. David Maine and her two children, tiny, almost newborn Teresa Amy and year-old Paul David, all of 'Nu Acres, and Mrs. Richard Rose of Parma.

Mrs. Maine said her mother stayed with her for a week when the baby was born. Her parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Ray Hibbard, of Union. Mrs. Maine said they visited her often throughout the summer on their frequent trips over to Nampa for District or Board meetings of their church. The Rev. Hibbard was formerly the pastor of the Nazarene Church in Parma.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grasmick attended a wedding Saturday night at the First United Methodist Church in Ontario when David Schuster was united in holy wedlock with Letha Ann Jennings. David is the son of Grasmicks friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schuster.

A Sweet-Sixteen birthday party was held for Cindy Russell Saturday night, attended by a group of her high school friends from Parma and Nu Acres. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hawkins of Vale. Mrs. Hawkins, a professional cake decorator, brought a cake whose top was ornamented with a black angus calf and yellow roses.

Saturday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne were Mr. and Mrs. Mel Manning of Council.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Keck joyfully announce the birth of their first great-grandchild, one Beverly Plunkett Keck, born to Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Keck of Saratoga Springs, New York. Beverly is the Keck's son Kenneth's first grandchild and she gets the name of Plunkett from her maternal grandma's maiden name.

Visitors for the day, Wednesday, at the Keck home, were his mother, Mrs. A. H. Keck of Nyssa, and his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jerrold Robertson of Eagle Creek, Oregon.

Sunday Christian Life Fellowship moved into the place that used to be Po-Jo's Family entertainment Center. Since the group is purely non-denominational, may get to keep on meeting there. Great! Other place needed a room-stretcher when the whole crowd came. Never saw so many beautiful young people, with the pure joy and love of the Lord shining in their faces.

Kidney Association Campaign

The Kidney Association of Oregon has announced the opening of its 1976 statewide sale of Halloween "Trick or Treat" candy to help finance the cost of providing artificial kidney machines, training and medical supplies for Oregonians suffering from kidney failure.

At the same time, KAO issued an appeal to individuals, civic groups, schools, veterans, fraternal, businesses, churches, youth and men and women clubs to come to its aid by helping to sell the Halloween candy during the annual fund-raising event.

Chuck Foster, KAO executive director, said, "a number of organizations and community groups around the state have already placed orders for the candy, but in order to raise as much money as possible for our patients, we need the help of other groups." He added, "We hope that through this Halloween candy sale, we can obtain the money to provide several artificial kidney machines."

The Halloween packages contain 20 Sherbits candy 5-flavor rolls, which are attractively boxed and cellophane wrapped. There are 30 boxes in each case. A Kidney Association label on the box identifies the product. Each box of candy sells for $2.00. If possible, people are asked to order in units of complete cases in order to facilitate handling.

"Most families," said Foster, "will buy a supply of Halloween candy for 'Trick or Treat' goblins anyway. We would appreciate people buying their candy from KAO and thereby helping to save lives."

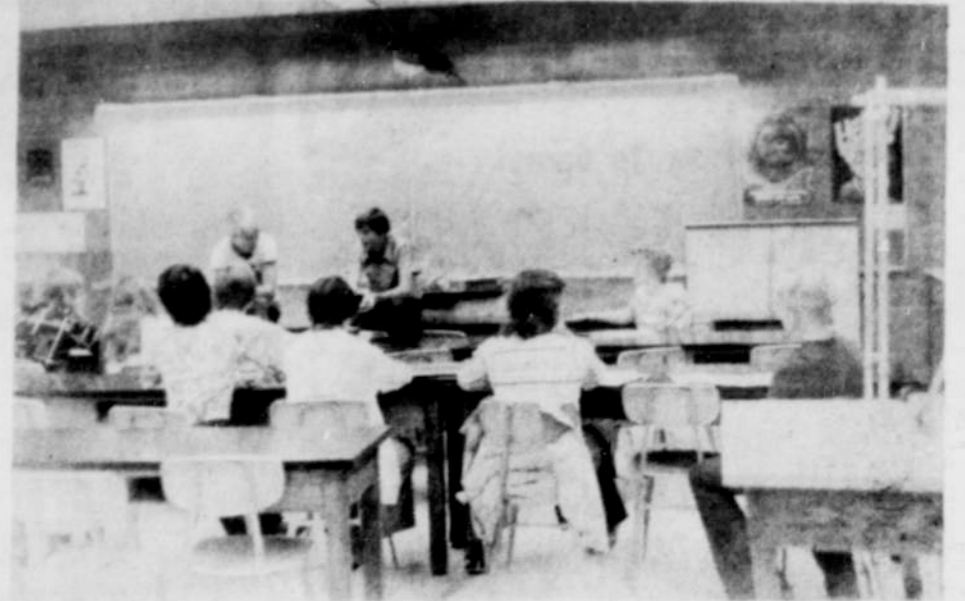

Individuals and organizations who want to help KAO are asked to send orders for candy to the Kidney Association of Oregon, 7008 N. Interstate, Portland, Oregon 97217 or call KAO at 283-4444.

When you're creating cream soup, add the cream last for the correct consistency and flavor. It's not a hot idea to let it boil either; just heat it until it's the proper temperature for serving.

News About SERVICEMEN

Roth Promoted

Major Ronald Roth was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the general's office at Marine Headquarters in Washington D. C. His wife Carolyn pinned on one Oak Leaf and the general pinned on the other Oak Leaf, before the group of invited guests, which included the Roth's three daughters. He will continue to work at Marine Headquarters until he takes over a new command in December. The family lives in Woodbridge, Virginia. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roth of Nyssa.

AFTER TWO YEARS OF makeshift class rooms in church halls and an old grocery store building, Nyssa students are attending school in beautiful spacious class rooms in their new high school building. Pictured is Miss Mary Omberg's biology class.
