

Engagement Announced

SENIOR CITIZEN ACTIVITIES

THE ENGAGEMENT OF MARLENE JAMIESON TO Richard Hayden, both of Portland, has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Clella Jamieson of Nyssa. Her father was the late A.A. Jamieson.

The bridegroom elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. (Buck) Hayden of La Grande.

Marlene graduated from Nyssa High School, attended Kinman Business University in Spokane and is presently employed at Farmers Home Administration in Portland. He is a graduate of La Grande High School, served for two years with the U.S. Air Force and is employed at the Veteran's Administration Office in Portland.

A wedding date of October 2 at the Episcopal Church in La Grande is planned by the couple.

Home Extension Meets Oct. 7

The Home Extension group will meet Thursday, October 7 at the home of Mrs. Donna Blackburn, 812 Thompson Avenue, at 1:30 p.m.

Laura Ure will demonstrate a most informative lesson, "Using Your Slow Cooker." This appliance has many uses in the kitchen and the lesson should be of interest both to those who already own one, or those who are planning on purchasing one. Come and share your ideas and perhaps pick up a new tip or two.

The meetings are open to anyone who has the desire to learn up-to-date information about food, home, children, appliances, etc. For further information, call Jan Pfeiler, 372-3221.

President Orma Cleaver opened the September 22 meeting of the Nyssa Senior Citizens by leading the salute to the American flag. There were 31 members and eight visitors present at the clubhouse on Bower Avenue.

Following the acceptance of the minutes and the treasurer's report, a letter was read from the State Department of Commerce letting the club know that slides were available for them to use if they so desired.

All the committee reports were favorable. The quilting committee reports that they are working on another quilt. The Rummage Sale is still open and running most successfully. The building committee comprised of Louie Meckem, Ewen Chard and Wyatt Smith will have their report ready for the next meeting. President Cleaver thanked those who cleaned the clubhouse and the yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Nichols of Cove, Oregon were visitors and spoke with those present about the Oregon State Committee Through law. They are members of this committee and it involves senior citizens all over the state of Oregon. This is a progress program thus enabling people to become important members of committees and having a part of make decisions that involves people. There will be a meeting of this state committee in The Dalles, October 6, 7, 8. The Nyssa Club will be sending six delegates.

A most delightful program of old time music and group singing was presented by Mrs. Haws of Adrian, she plays the accordion and Mrs. DeFrees who plays the guitar. The program and the delicious potluck dinner followed the meeting which was closed with prayer by Wyatt Smith.

Sherri Price — Larry Thiel Repeat September Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Thiel

Sherri Lynne Price became the bride of Larry F. Thiel, Friday, September 3, 1976 at the Kingman Memorial Presbyterian Church of Adrian. The Rev. Robert Ball officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Price of Homedale, Idaho and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Thiel of Route 1, Nyssa.

Soloists were Harriet Lorenson and Gloria Lorenson accompanied by Melda Schiomer and Libby Miller.

Altar flowers were large yellow cushion mums and white gladiolus. Candelabras with yellow candles, decorated with flowers matching the altar, added to the church decor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of Sata-Glo and Venice lace. The gown was fashioned with a horse-shoe neckline, bishop sleeves and the skirt formed a chapel train in back. The neckline, sleeves and bodice were accented with lace and lace appliques enhanced the skirt. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was held to a Venice lace and pearl headpiece. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses, white spider mums and baby's breath on a white Bible.

Maid-of-honor was Joy Cameron and bridesmaid was Debbie Peutz. Their gowns were yellow polyester crepe fashioned with long sheer sleeves. They carried nose-gays of large yellow cushion mums and baby's breath. Candelighters were Terri Hill and Trina Thiel. Christina Seuell was flower girl. Ringbearer was Michael Tallman.

Serving as best man was Scott Orris. Ushering the guests were Tom Okai, Craig Dennis and Brendan Pratt.

Mother of the bride was gown in a dress of blue flowered knit crepe and the groom's mother wore a beige cream knit dress. Their corsages were yellow roses and baby's breath.

A reception followed in the church social hall. The three-tiered wedding cake, which was fashioned in the shape of a heart was decorated with yellow roses and topped with yellow bells. Serving cake were Fern Groves and Bernadine McGinnis, aunts of the bride and Darlene Thomas. Jinny Hill and Betty Jean Phifer served coffee and punch.

The new Mrs. Thiel changed to a cotton shirtwaist dress for their wedding trip to Sumpter, Oregon.

Both the bride and her husband are graduates of Adrian High School. She is employed by Dr. Blaisdell, DDS in Caldwell. He is engaged in farming south of Nyssa.

Jacksons Entertain

"The Mafia" golf group and their wives joined Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Jackson at their home at Terrace Lake, Thursday morning. They brown-bagged it for lunch and spent the afternoon golfing and swimming. Those enjoying the outing were Mmes. and Messrs. Don Moss, Bob Wilson, Houston Wilson, George Craig, Arleigh Adams, Fred Bracken. They returned home Friday morning.
